God Of Our Fathers, Whose Almighty Hand

I

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

II

Thy love divine hath led us in the past;
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide, and Stay;
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

III

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Be Thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase,
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

IV

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never ending day;
Fill our lives with love and grace divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.

Alma Mater

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., a monument indeed,
Around thy base with grateful hearts behold thy students kneel.
We bless the power that gave thee birth to help us in our need,
We'll ever strive while here on earth all loyalty to yield.

REFRAIN

With joy, with joy, dear A. and T., thy students turn from thee
To spread thy trophies year by year from Dare to Cherokee.

IT IS REQUESTED THAT PICTURES NOT BE TAKEN DURING THE EXERCISES

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The academic costume word today derived from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics as well, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings made caps and floor length gowns with attached hoods a necessity for warmth. Probably because of the costumes' religious heritage, they remained largely drab until the universities gradually began to pass from the control of the Church, whereupon some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and the academic costume worn today.

In light of the nation's strong English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity with regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed which prepared a code for caps, gowns, and hoods which has been adopted by all institutions. Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the more familiar mortarboard square — a shape which resembles a scholar's book. Legend has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship for it covers any dress which might indicate rank or social strata. The hood not only indicates the type of degree, but is lined with the official colors of the University.

THE GOWN

BACHELOR — Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

MASTER — Black, long or short sleeves with arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

DOCTOR — Black, with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

THE HOOD

BACHELOR — Three feet in length with a two-inch wide velvet.

MASTER — Three and one-half feet in length with a three-inch wide velvet.

DOCTOR — Four feet in length with a five-inch wide velvet and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution from which the degree was received. The color of the velvet indicates the field in which the doctoral was granted.

CAP AND TASSEL

Candidates for degrees at The North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel the color of which is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Agriculture	Maize	Music	Pink
Arts and Letters	White	Nursing	Apricot
Accounting, Business Administration and Business Education	Drab	Physical Education	Sage Green
Economics	Copper	Speech	Silver Gray
Education	Light Blue	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Engineering	Orange	Science	Golden Yellow
Fine Arts	Brown	Social Studies	Cream
Home Economics	Maroon	Social Work	Citron

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.
