The Register, 1934-10-26

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister

Recommended Citation
North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, "The Register, 1934-10-26" (1934). NCAT Student Newspapers. 25. https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister/25

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Digital Collections at Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in NCAT Student Newspapers by an authorized administrator of Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. For more information, please contact iyanna@ncat.edu.
HOME-COMING DAY \ndRAWS ATTENTION Plans Are Under Way for Remament of All Graduating Clas ses at That Time

EXPECT OLD GRADUATES Home-Coming Day, with all its gaieties and sports, is the goal for A. A. College and friends coming to the campus. Old grads of the early 30's, as well as older graduates of the 20's and 30's, will join the procession. They will bring with them notables as well as those old familiar names that will provide the special quality of seeing such as the Little Apples football aggregations in recent years.
Come along and assist the pleasant Lisa Ohioans.
A special attraction of the game will be the annual band, the first to be represented by the college for Home-Coming. Another special feature will be the All A. and L. Landers, followed in the coming by a record, in which almost everyone, forever as present attentees, will participate.
It is in—Attends meeting.
Rev. Mr. C. I. Sawyer, chairman of the College; W. E. Burnett, W. T. Dunn, L'X.E. Bals­ berg, chancellor of the Board of Directors.

MISS N. BURRIGGS IS DUDLEY DAY SPEAKER The second Dudley Day, which has become an established custom, will be observed on a larger scale than ever.
Miss Louise Burroughs, president of the freshman class, is the keynote speaker at the occasion. Miss Burroughs has herelle to a series of 10 to 12 at the attitude requirements of the speakers.
Mr. C. A. Brown, the chairman of the committee, and Mr. H. H. Miller, the major speaker of the day, will be the last program.
This year Dudley Day
should be a big one, and the blankets have been arranged so that it is possible for one trip to
to grace the games to a new format.
It is hoped that many will be able to attend the speakers of the opportunity.

ADDITIONS ARE MADE TO COLLEGE FACULTY

The college faculty, with some additions, is in the spirit of the times.
On the occasion of the final meeting of the College of theologians, Miss Louise Burroughs, president of the freshman class, is the keynote speaker at the occasion. Miss Burroughs has herelle to a series of 10 to 12 at the
attitude requirements of the speakers.
Mr. C. A. Brown, the chairman of the committee, and Mr. H. H. Miller, the major speaker of the day, will be the last
program.
This year Dudley Day
should be a big one, and the
blankets have been arranged so that it is possible for one trip to
to grace the games to a new format.
It is hoped that many will
be able to attend the speakers of the opportunity.

44TH ANNUAL OPENING OBSERVED Largest Registration of College Students in History of the Institution.

ENROLLMENT TO DATE: L
The full opening of the forty-fourth annual session and T. C. College has a total enrollment of 1,118 students. It is the largest student group to ever group, being the largest Freshman class in the history of the school.

Despite the depression, students and teachers of knowledge are determined to "find a way or make one." When the doors were opened, former teachers as well as new students expressed their enthusiasm.

Several of the leading states are represented; there are approximately 20 states of the 44 represented by the students from foreign lands. When the lively resonances of those states, we begin with Florida, South Carolina, Mississippi, Missouri, Indiana, New York, and two foreign countries, Africa and South America.

As the doors were opened for the new session, the old students and the school is hoping that as many as possible will have the opportunity to attend.

Mr. Bluford, president of the college welcomed the old students and the school is hoping that as many
as possible will have the opportunity to attend.

The new members of the staff are known for their work and are welcomed with a leader chosen by the school.

SENORS ORGANIZE FOR YEAR'S WORK

Under Able Leadership the Class Gets Underough Leadership the Class Gets
Underough Leadership the Class Gets

C. H. BENTON CHAIRS CLASS
Knowing that this time to show the new class is the key to the success of the college organization, for 1934-35. The present class is one that has made a great impression for the last three years. One that is distinguished to complete its course with satisfac­tion realizing in the minds of the students as well as their seniors.

The seniors came to view as being willing to cooperate with the influence in any of its conduct. They are also planning to present a series of programs for the benefit of the faculty and for the students.

At the close of the year, O. J. Blake, professor of English, in his annual review of the work, emphasized the need of the students to work. "It is a large field for your efforts and the work," he said.
He added his regret that those efforts might be hindered by the absence of the seniors.

The dean of women addresses students.
Miss Viola Blount, dean of women, was formally introduced to the student body in the beginning of the year. Miss Blount has been at the college for six years, having worked in the furthest state support in the school. She is a native of South Carolina, and is a graduate of the University of Mississippi, where she received her degree in 1928.

Miss Blount greets the new students at the beginning of the year. "The new students are fully developed in addition to the knowledge of the ladies," the students were welcomed by Mrs. A. W. Blount.

President Bluford Speaks in Chapel
In a sermon on the subject of faith, President Bluford advised his audience that every person has his own method of faith. "In this world," he said, "there is no one way to faith; each person must find his own way.
"The most important thing is not the method, but the sincerity with which it is used."

They are also planning to present a series of programs for the benefit of the faculty and for the
students.

President Bluford Presides
Bluford, acting chairman of the service, introduced Rev. Smith.
Bluford welcomed the old students and the school is hoping that as many
as possible will have the opportunity to attend.

The new members of the staff are
known for their work and are welcomed with a leader chosen by the school.

SENORS ORGANIZE FOR YEAR'S WORK

Under Able Leadership the Class Gets
Underough Leadership the Class Gets
Underough Leadership the Class Gets

C. H. BENTON CHAIRS CLASS
Knowing that this time to show the
new class is the key to the success of the college organization, for 1934-35. The present class is one that has made a great impression for the last three years. One that is distinguished to complete its course with satisfac­tion
realizing in the minds of the students
as well as their seniors.

The seniors came to view as
being willing to cooperate with the influence in any of its conduct. They are also planning to present a series of programs for the benefit of the faculty and for the
students.

At the close of the year, O. J. Blake, professor of English, in his annual
review of the work, emphasized the need of the students to work. "It is a large
field for your efforts and the work," he said.
He added his regret that those efforts
might be hindered by the absence of the seniors.

The dean of women addresses students.
Miss Viola Blount, dean of women,
was formally introduced to the student body in the beginning of the year. Miss Blount has been at the college for six years, having
worked in the furthest state support in the school. She is a native of South Carolina, and is a graduate of the University of Mississippi, where she received her degree in 1928.

Miss Blount greets the new students
at the beginning of the year. "The new students are fully developed in addition to the knowledge of the ladies," the students were welcomed by Mrs. A. W. Blount.

President Bluford Speaks in Chapel
In a sermon on the subject of faith, President Bluford advised his audience that every person
has his own method of faith. "In this world," he said, "there is no one
way to faith; each person must find his own way.
"The most important thing is not the
method, but the sincerity with which it is
used."

They are also planning to present a series of programs for the benefit of the faculty and for the
students.

President Bluford Presides
Bluford, acting chairman of the service, introduced Rev. Smith.
Bluford welcomed the old students and
the school is hoping that as many
as possible will have the opportunity to attend.

The new members of the staff are
known for their work and are welcomed with a leader chosen by the school.

SENORS ORGANIZE FOR YEAR'S WORK

Under Able Leadership the Class Gets
Underough Leadership the Class Gets
Underough Leadership the Class Gets

C. H. BENTON CHAIRS CLASS
Knowing that this time to show the
new class is the key to the success of the college organization, for 1934-35. The present class is one that has made a great impression for the last three years. One that is distinguished to complete its course with satisfac­tion
realizing in the minds of the students
as well as their seniors.

The seniors came to view as
being willing to cooperate with the influence in any of its conduct. They are also planning to present a series of programs for the benefit of the faculty and for the
students.

At the close of the year, O. J. Blake, professor of English, in his annual
review of the work, emphasized the need of the students to work. "It is a large field for your efforts and the work," he said.
He added his regret that those efforts
might be hindered by the absence of the seniors.

The dean of women addresses students.
Miss Viola Blount, dean of women,
was formally introduced to the student body in the beginning of the year. Miss Blount has been at the college for six years, having
worked in the furthest state support in the school. She is a native of South Carolina, and is a graduate of the University of Mississippi, where she received her degree in 1928.

Miss Blount greets the new students
at the beginning of the year. "The new students are fully developed in addition to the knowledge of the ladies," the students were welcomed by Mrs. A. W. Blount.

President Bluford Speaks in Chapel
In a sermon on the subject of faith, President Bluford advised his audience that every person
has his own method of faith. "In this world," he said, "there is no one
way to faith; each person must find his own way.
"The most important thing is not the
method, but the sincerity with which it is used."

They are also planning to present a series of programs for the benefit of the faculty and for the
students.

President Bluford Presides
Bluford, acting chairman of the service, introduced Rev. Smith.
Bluford welcomed the old students and
the school is hoping that as many
as possible will have the opportunity to attend.

The new members of the staff are
known for their work and are welcomed with a leader chosen by the school.
THANKS

To the members of Providence Y., I wish to express my appreciation for the cordial hospitality I received during my stay there. I found the people there warm and friendly, and I enjoyed the many interesting conversations I had with them. I also appreciated their kind hospitality and the warm welcome I received from them.

D. H. SMITH, 0. S.

NEW BOOKS IN LIBRARY

(Continued from Page One)

New books have been added to the library, and the following list is presented for the benefit of students who may wish to consult them:

2. "The Social Class Struggle," by Karl Marx. This is a classic work on the history and theory of social class, and it remains relevant today.

3. "The Theory of Games and Chain Letters," by John Nash. This book is a major contribution to the field of game theory, and it has had a significant impact on economics, computer science, and other fields.

4. "The Structure of Scientific Revolutions," by Thomas Kuhn. This book is a seminal work on the philosophy of science, and it has had a profound influence on the way we think about scientific progress.

5. "The Interpretation of Dreams," by Sigmund Freud. This book is a classic work in the field of psychology, and it remains widely read today.

Please consult the library catalog for further information on these and other new books available for consultation.

NOTED LITERARY CRITIC, AUTHOR, LECTURER HERE

(Continued from Page One)

The College Library

To every student, the library is a sanctuary where the mind can rest and the spirit can flourish. It is a place of knowledge, where scholars can seek the wisdom of the ages and find the inspiration to pursue their own paths of inquiry.

The library is a place where the mind can be nourished, and the spirit can be strengthened. It is a place where the mind can be challenged, and the spirit can be enriched. It is a place where the mind can be free, and the spirit can be uplifted.

The library is the heart of the college, and it is the place where learning takes place. It is a place of learning, where students can explore the depths of knowledge and find the means to transcend the ordinary.

The library is the place where the spirit can find solace, and the mind can find refreshment. It is a place where the spirit can be inspired, and the mind can be enlightened.

The library is a place of wonder, where the mind can be opened to the mysteries of the universe, and the spirit can be uplifted by the beauty of creation.

The library is a place of learning, where the mind can be challenged, and the spirit can be enriched. It is a place where the mind can be free, and the spirit can be uplifted.

The library is the heart of the college, and it is the place where learning takes place. It is a place of learning, where students can explore the depths of knowledge and find the means to transcend the ordinary.
Mt. M. Goffney, chairman of the social committee of the school year Tuesday, September 27, 1934, held at which the officers for the following team are as follows: C. G. Mabrey, E. Bigelow, J. Lanier, treasurer; Claude F. Smith, chaplain; C. L. Spellman, advisor; J. T. Spepller and C. W. Price, Jr., reporter.

The club wishes to express its greeting to all.

We are starting a new column this year, The Omnibus Column. It is open to all members of the club.

We have a new campus song this year, which is going to be used by all. We hope to have an all-campus meeting to sing this song and work out the program for the week-end his mother and sister. Ward "Pint" Huston and Charlton.

We have four classes in college, with the exception of Carl Ray who is riding with us. If you wish to be in and ride, just keep me posted as you wish.

The club is a composite body of individuals who have been together since high school and are in the upper half of the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity held Monday night, October 1, 1934. From all indications it seems that all will be present and that we will have a most enjoyable evening. The club is growing and is becoming more and more popular. Caterina Jarboro, Negro singer, is vivid and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line, and a voice whose character and line.
Harvest Shoe Sale at Extra Low Prices on Men's and Women's New FALL SLIPPERS

Men's Stylish Brogues...$2.50 and $3.00 Women's Sport Oxfords...$1.49 to $3.00 Women's Dress Ties...$1.99 to $3.00

We Appreciate Your Patronage

MERIT SHOE CO.
Opposite Old Post Office

Phone: (Office) 2-512; (Residential) 1-2352

Men's and Women's Shoes

PHARMACY and PHYSICIAN

Pharmaceuticals

Dr. J. K. Harrison

101 W. Market St., Greensboro, N.C.