

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University
Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship

---

NCAT Student Newspapers

Digital Collections

---

7-12-1935

The Register, 1935-07-12

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister>

---

Recommended Citation

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, "The Register, 1935-07-12" (1935). NCAT Student Newspapers. 28.

<https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister/28>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Digital Collections at Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in NCAT Student Newspapers by an authorized administrator of Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. For more information, please contact iyanna@ncat.edu.

SUMMER ENROLLMENT SHOWS LARGE GAIN

MARY E. WYNN IS NAMED MISS A. & T. OF SUMMER SCHOOL

Royal Ceremony Held on Illuminated Campus in Beautiful Garden Party.

JUANITA JONES SECOND

In Single-Handed Canvass She Makes Most Spectacular Race to Take Second Place.

On Friday night, July 5, 1935, with very impressive ceremonies, Miss Mary E. Wynn of Dudley, N. C., was crowned as "Miss A. & T." of the Summer School.

The Queen approached the throne down the central walk way accompanied by ladies and gentlemen attendants.

The ceremony was temporarily interrupted by a much needed summer shower. The Queen, her court, and spectators quietly moved into the Dudley Memorial Auditorium where the program was continued.

The entire program was originally planned for out-of-doors, but after it started to rain—it being so very much needed—every one willingly moved indoors.

This coronation climaxed the popularity contest sponsored by the Register staff in order to finance the Summer issue of the Register. It is very much my opinion that this is now an established custom here at the Summer School, having been started in the Summer of 1934.

Miss Wynn, 522; Miss Jones, 421; and Mrs. A. B. Johnson, 250.

PRESIDENT BLUFORD EXTENDS GREETINGS

Is Highly Pleased With Large Enrollment and Marked Ability of Summer School Students.

President F. D. Bluford gave the reporter an interview in which he gave his views on many summer school activities. He stated that he is very pleased with the large enrollment in the summer school.

To every member enrolled here at the college he wishes to extend a word of greeting, and he hopes that many will remain for the second session.

He also told the reporter that he is now working hard to have the many improvements around the grounds and buildings in readiness for the opening of the fall quarter.

"Miss A. & T." of Summer School

Miss Mary E. Wynn, of Dudley, N. C.

N. C. NEWBOLD TALKS TO A. & T. STUDENTS

Eight Educational Problems Discussed by State Director of Negro Education

SPECIAL MUSIC IS GIVEN

On Friday, June 28, Mr. N. C. Newbold, director of Negro education in the department of education, Raleigh, delivered his annual address to the A. & T. College Summer School.

Mr. Newbold spoke of eight educational problems that confronted the division of Negro education, some of which were nearing a satisfactory solution.

Mr. Newbold then told of the increase in enrollment in Negro schools in the last two or three years. In 1932-33 there were enrolled in eight months schools 88,000 Negro children.

The speaker used charts to show the consolidated white schools of Wake county and consolidated Negro schools in Warren county.

Miss Ethyl Wise, coloratura soprano and head of the Music Department, sang "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark," by Bishop with violin obbligato accompaniment by Mr. Bernard Lee Mason.

DEAN ANNOUNCES EDUCATIONAL TOURS

Several interesting and instructive educational tours have been arranged for the summer school.

The Federal Erosion Farm at Statesville, N. C., June 22. Guilford Battle Ground, July 2. Biological Supply Company at Elon College, and factories in Graham, July 9.

CANDIDATES FOR "MISS A. AND T." ARE INTERVIEWED

Inquiring Reporter Finds Them Very Enthusiastic About Contest.

EACH MAKES STATEMENT

All Express Themselves as Well Pleased With Conditions They Find on the Campus.

The inquiring reporter for the Summer School issue of the Register has been fortunate in securing some inside information regarding the candidates for Miss A. & T. of the Summer School.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Wynn... winner of the contest... lives in Dudley, N. C. ... teaches in Kinston, N. C. ... is a member of the Kinston Bridge Club.

Miss Juanita Dalomba Jones... lives in Danville, Virginia... teaches in Blanche, N. C. ... seems by far to be the most versatile and energetic of all the candidates.

LYCEUM PROGRAM HAS BEEN PLANNED

Schedule as Announced by Dean Gibbs Includes Many Popular Artists.

NOTED MUSICIANS TO APPEAR

The Lyceum program for the first session of the Summer School, as announced by Dean Gibbs, the director, includes many popular artists of such ability and standing as to interest or entertain the most exacting and critical listener.

The following is the complete list as they are to appear here:

- Duncan and Allen, soloist and pianist, June 18. Ambassador Male Quartet, June 20. Clarence Cameron White, violinist, June 25. Boston Chamber Opera Company, July 3. Petrie's White Hussars, July 11. Gretchen Branch, soloist and violinist, July 16.

SCHOLARSHIP IN SUMMER SCHOOL

While many teachers seem to be registered in the summer school for credit only, the reporter finds that there are a few who are really doing fine scholastic work.

Lucille H. Russell, of Charlotte, N. C., a graduate of Hampton, who is doing exceptional work in advanced chemistry.

Lucinda Smith, of St. Augustine, Florida, a graduate of Clark University, is doing well in advanced French. Hattie Wright, of Greensboro, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, who is doing fine work in political science.

Wins Second Place

Miss Juanita D. Jones, of Danville, Va.

TEACHING STAFF IS AUGMENTED

New Instructors Added to Departments of Education and English for the Summer.

DEAN SPAULDING IS BACK

Increase in enrollment and a greater demand for extra college subjects have made it necessary to bring in a larger number of specialists for the summer school than ever before.

Mr. S. E. Buford, graduate of Union University, received his Masters Degree from the University of Michigan.

Miss Hattie Diffay... honor graduate of A. & T. College in 1932... has done further graduate study at the University of Michigan.

Mr. Elton Fax... graduate of Syracuse University, Department of Fine Arts... is a member of the faculty of Claflin University of Orangeburg, S. C.

Mr. Charles Henry McLendon... honor graduate of A. & T. in 1929... has done further study at Columbia University.

Mr. C. L. Cooper... regularly employed at A. & T. is expected to return from Columbia University where he will receive his Ph.D. degree.

Dean M. F. Spaulding who has been on leave of absence at the Massachusetts Agricultural College for the past three years has returned, having received his Ph.D. degree.

Miss Alma Morrow... a graduate of Howard University and took library science at Hampton Institute.

Dr. W. J. Knox, Jr., who received his Ph.D. degree in chemistry from the Institute of Technology.

These new instructors are much interested and enthusiastic about the scholastic work of the Summer School.

$5,000 RECEIVED FOR SCIENCE LABORATORIES

All students and others will be interested and happy to learn that recently A. & T. was the recipient of some five thousand dollars to be used exclusively in improving and enlarging science laboratories and facilities.

Already the work of converting the agricultural auditorium into a chemistry laboratory for freshmen is well underway.

The present chemistry laboratory will be improved and used exclusively for advanced courses and research.

Other science laboratories will be strengthened and expanded; the gym, too, will be fitted partially from these funds.

These improvements and additions will make it possible to put in operation next fall a large measure of the reorganized program that has been under consideration for the last few years.

FINE AGRICULTURAL CONFERENCE IS HELD

State Vocational Teachers Assembled at College for Two-Day Confab.

Dr. R. O. Sargent gives talk on the Negro vocational agriculture teachers of the state.

Dr. H. O. Sargent, of the Department of Education from the Department of the Interior, addressed the group on the "Long Time Agricultural Program" which proved to be very inspiring.

On that same day addresses were heard by Vance E. Swift, director of rural rehabilitation in North Carolina; Dr. T. E. Browne, director of vocational education in the state, and Dr. A. K. Gatman, director of agricultural education for the state of New York.

On the first day were I. K. Clark, of Hampton Institute; T. S. Ridgway, of the same institution; T. C. Maurer, of Greensboro, a member of the soil conservation bureau; E. N. Meekins, of Raleigh, and A. K. Robinson, of Raleigh.

The second day of the conference opened with an address by Prof. C. E. Dean, head of A. & T. College's teacher training department.

On that same day addresses were heard by Vance E. Swift, director of rural rehabilitation in North Carolina; Dr. T. E. Browne, director of vocational education in the state, and Dr. A. K. Gatman, director of agricultural education for the state of New York.

A. and T. College Co-Educational Institution

Fall Quarter Opens September 17, 1935

- Main Departments: 1. Agriculture 2. Arts and Science 3. Mechanics and Engineering 4. Trades

For further information and catalog, write F. D. Bluford, President

ENROLLMENT OF SUMMER SCHOOL APPROACHES 500

56 Prominent Institutions of the Country Represented Among Student Group.

A. & T. STILL IN THE LEAD

Summer School Attendance Has Shown Substantial Increase From Year to Year.

Year after year there is a decided increase in the number of people attending the Summer School at A. & T. The enrollment for the present session is around the 500 mark.

On June 10, registration for the 38th annual session of the Summer School reached a total of 400. At the completion of the registration the total soared up to the record mark of 500, the largest number ever to attend Summer School at A. & T.

That the Summer School here is obtaining results from its work is readily evident from the yearly increase in enrollment and from the list of institutions represented.

To give you some idea of the personnel of the Summer School, let us take up at some of the institutions on the list.

We begin in the southwest with State College, Prairie View, Texas; we then go to the middle west to Lewis Institute, Illinois, and from there to Florida A. & M. College, Tallahassee, Florida.

Following is a list of the institutions with the number of their representatives: A. & T., 107; Bennett College, 40; Winston-Salem Teachers' College, 15; Shaw University, 13; Livingstone College, 12; Fayetteville State Normal, 14; Scotia, 10; H. C. S. Kirkland, Clark University, and J. C. Smith, 7 each; Howard University, 8; C. State

The first annual closed tennis tournament of the A. & T. College summer school got under way Wednesday, July 10, on the new campus courts with a large number of enthusiastic players competing for the distinction of being the first champion in a contest of this nature.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT HAS BIG BEGINNING

Many Well-Known Players Have Entered for Singles and Doubles.

Charles Herbin, C. I. A. A. finalist, seeded No. 1, advanced a step toward the finals as he defeated C. G. Mabry in the first rounds of play, 6-0, 6-4.

Other defeats, although as decisive, were not as significant. The other favorites, with the exception of A. Harveys, were idle. Charles McCoy advanced H. J. Green, seeded No. 4, by forfeit. The result of the matches for the first round of play: J. Withers defeated Norman, 6-5, 8-6; N. C. Webster defeated L. A. Wise, 6-4, 8-6; A. J. defeated A. R. Brooks, 6-3, 6-3; A. Harveys defeated William Thomas, 6-1, 6-1.

The second day of play will see some of the favorites in action. Green will fight it out with Bozeman, and meet Curtis, Mayfield with Walker, and Webster with Lette. On the same day, the matches between Harveys and McNair, and that between

SOCIAL NEWS AND COMING ATTRACTIONS

Among the Alumni

W. L. Dunn, '35, Alumni Secretary, who is spending the summer in the nation's capitol has just written inquiring about the summer issue and stating that he desired to send an article on the activities of the Washington alumni. Unfortunately that material will arrive too late for the present issue.

It is reported that J. J. Lanier and G. C. Baugham both of this year's class are already on the job—the former at the Alamance County Training School with Mr. L. E. Borden as principal, and the latter at the Bladen County Training School, Elizabethtown, with Mr. J. L. Baldwin, principal.

E. G. Loder, '29, is looking forward to receiving his Ph.D. in Education from Cornell this summer.

Dean M. F. Spaulding of the Agricultural department has just returned after three years of study at the Massachusetts Agricultural College where he received his Ph.D. and Mrs. Spaulding, '33, received her M.S. degree.

Mrs. Owen Brown, '31, spent the year in the graduate school at Cornell studying Biology.

E. H. McClemy, '30, principal of the high school at Thomasville is studying Education at Cornell this summer.

C. I. Sawyer, '34, is employed at the Industrial Home for Orphans, Winston-Salem for the summer. Mr. E. R. Garrett, former A. & T. professor is principal.

Taffan Lee, '34, who taught at Dudley High School last year is spending the summer at her home in Hamlet.

The Galloway sisters and Marion Tamm— all of the class of 1934 are spending the summer at home in Greensboro.

Have you heard about the large number of alumni in attendance at commencement this year? Have you heard about the amount of money they collected and about their present programs? If you have not, you ought to. There is no question but that the organization is more active than it has ever been.

And everybody believes that with F. A. Williams again as president, W. L. Dunn as alumni secretary and the other officers who were elected at the last meeting, the organization is in the hands of active and progressive leaders who are determined, with the cooperation of all members to carry out a constructive program.

Mr. F. A. Mayfield is one of the hardest working teachers in the summer school faculty. Visit his classes and you will see for yourself.

H. M. Bass, last year's business manager of the Register, writes that he is looking forward to doing great work in some high school next fall.

Charles W. Price, Jr., our efficient and good-natured editor of the Register for last school year, says that he wants to teach in a rural high school in North Carolina.

William Barnett writes very interestingly from Norfolk, Va. He plans to return to this state to teach in the fall.

Socials

On Saturday evening, June 23, the faculty and students of the Summer school spent a few hours to enjoy the delightful social sponsored by the administrative committee. The fair was held in the spacious gymnasium and the light steps danced merrily to the sophisticated strains of Mrs. Morrissey's orchestra.

At the intermission a short program was rendered which included a musical selection by Miss Odessa Arledge, and "When I Grow too Old to Dream," sung by Miss Ruby Harris. Mr. Geo. W. Cooper was master of ceremonies. A really enjoyable evening was the reward of all those who attended.

The Phi Beta Sigma fraternity sponsored their annual Summer School dance on June 27, at the Yates Hall. Soft lights and sweet music were the main features of this affair. The arrangement of the decoration presented a very effective appearance. The dance was largely attended. The Jones-Morrissey Syncopators were accredited with having furnished the music of another delightful evening. This dance honored the Zeta Phi Beta sorority.

The largest family represented in the school is that of the Smith family. Lucinda, Alma Turner, daughter of St. Augustine, and Mr. C. G. Bias, Her

A GROUP OF SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS AND FACULTY. The faculty are seated in front. President Bluford may be seen in center with Dean C. G. Mabry seated at his left and Registrar Jones at his right.

CANDIDATES FOR "MISS A. & T." ARE INTERVIEWED

(Continued from Page One)

Elmhurst Bridge Club... attended St. Augustine College... won college scholarship for the highest average in high school... was assistant teacher of English in high school... wrote a play... was a member of the Dunbar Dramatic Club... writes poetry... had various poems published in leading magazines... was formerly assistant editor of "Modern Youth"... made highest marks in summer school of A. & T. in 1928... was an outstanding pupil of the late Richard B. Harrison... does printing and sketching... played basketball on the High Point Teachers team... Mr. James M. Poole was her campaign manager. She says: "It has indeed been a great pleasure to work for the Register as I have always been interested in papers and magazines of all kinds, and whether I win or lose, it has been a great experience."

Mrs. Alverado Brooks Johnson... lives at 1506 Ashe Street, Greensboro... is a teacher in the primary department of the Grace Lutheran school also of Greensboro... was for many years president of the Mural Social Club... is now active in church work... attended the public schools of New York where she received many scholastic honors... a graduate of the high school department of Lutheran College... campaign manager, Mr. C. G. Mabry. She says: "It has been a source of great pleasure for me to take part in the Popularity Contest, not so much for the expectation of being Miss A. & T., but also because it has been for a very worthy cause. It has also given me an insight into my friends as well as myself. I am very appreciative to my friends and manager, Mr. Mabry."

Miss L. Marie Cannady... lives in Oxford, N. C... teaches in Lumber Bridge, N. C... attended high school at Mary Potter, Oxford, N. C. College for Negroes and A. & T... campaign manager, Mr. F. A. Williams. Her statement: "I am always willing to lend a helping hand to a worthy cause."

Mrs. Louise M. ... lives in ... teaches in Covington, Ga... attended Clark University... teacher of History in the Washington High School... campaign manager, Mrs. Georgia E. Dixon of Cherryville, N. C. She says: "The Register of A. & T. College is a publication worthy of the time and effort that any one spends working for its betterment. I was only too glad to do my share."

Mr. E. Laura Burge... lives at 1615 East Marget Street, Greensboro... teaches in Shelby, N. C... is a member of the Zeta Alpha chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority of A. & T... finished high school at Kings Mountain, N. C... attended Bennett College and A. & T. College, Greensboro... campaign manager, Mr. G. C. Baugham... She says: "I certainly enjoyed working for Miss A. & T. The competition was great."

Miss Pauline J. Biggers... lives and teaches in Gastonia, N. C... is a member of the Y.W.C.A., Professional Bridge Club and Girls Reserve Advisor in her home town... attended Livingstone College High School and Livingstone College Teacher Training Department... campaign manager, Miss Georgia Pugh... She says: "I am always willing to play my part for any worthy and constructive cause."

Miss Ida Freeman Thomas... lives in Roxboro, N. C... also teaches at the Person County Training School of that city... is a member of the Ivy Leaf Club of the A.K.A. Sorority... attended Talladega College... campaign manager, Mr. C. Bias. Her

Y.M. AND Y.W.C.A. SEND GROUP TO CONFERENCE

A. & T. Has Largest Delegation Present at Annual Meeting, Held in Kings Mountain.

The delegation sent from A. & T. College was the largest delegation registered at the 23rd annual "Y" conference at Kings Mountain.

Those composing the delegation from the above college were Dean Viola L. F. Chaplain, adviser for the religious organizations; Misses Euphrey Bigelow, Ethel Jackson, Gertrude Mathews, Louise Farrisah, Messrs. C. G. Mabry, McHenry Norman, and J. H. Belcher. However, the delegation was not complete until President and Mrs. F. D. Bluford motored down for the service on Sunday.

During the conference every delegate affiliated himself with some committee; on the publicity committee, Belcher; industrial committee, Mabry; worship committee, Gertrude Mathews; recreation committee, Louise Farrisah; program committee, E. Bigelow and Ethel Jackson.

The programs and discussions were led by persons who have had wide experience in their respective fields. For the industrial program Anna Kula, the organizer of the women's garment union of New York, and Emma Dawson, of High Point, N. C. For the religious programs was the great man of quietness, Dr. Howard Thurman. For the political programs was the very able Dean Houston, who is now adviser-counselor for the N. A. A. C. P. and former dean of the Howard law school.

Several resolutions were made concerning the relation of Negro and white college students and their relations with each other.

The highlight of the conference came on Friday night when an international supper was sponsored in honor of the India delegation that is to leave for India about September 1. This delegation will be composed of...

Mr. Howard Thurman, Dr. Mattie Sue Bailey Thurman, and Rev. Mr. Calvin. This delegation will attend the world inter-racial conference which is to be held in India, as well as visit Bombay, Calcutta, and Madras. As they go representing the 12,000,000 Negroes of America, let us hope for them a very happy and safe voyage to the land of "Mahatma Gandhi."

through my work in this contest has more than repaid me for the time that I have spent in it. My assistance in any such undertaking is always available."

Mrs. Dorothy Manley Walker... lives at 123 W. Carter Street, Edenton, N. C... also teaches in Edenton... is a member of the Alpha Mu chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority of A. & T... is a graduate of Teachers College, Winston-Salem, N. C... campaign manager... Mr. G. W. Cooper... She says: "The pleasure has been all mine in helping to sponsor the Summer School issue of the Register."

Miss Jessie Foster... lives at 200 4th Street, West View, Martinsville, Virginia... teaches in Conover, N. C... is a member of the Progressive Club and Bridge Club of Conover... attended P. C. Institute and Fayetteville State Normal... campaign manager, Mr. C. S. Finney... She says: "I consider the task of running for Miss A. & T. of the Summer School a great honor that has befallen me. Although a Virginian, I am very much interested in N. C. schools and their programs."

The Register Staff thanks you one and all for your wholehearted support...

WHO'S WHO In the Summer School

Mrs. Julius Young Sessoms of Rocky Mount is the daughter of the late N. B. Young former president of Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri, and a graduate of Talladega.

Mr. C. K. Knight of Covington, Ga., is principal of the Covington High School and a leading educator in his section.

Miss Genevieve Frierson of Augusta, Georgia, who has studied at Payne College and Shaw University reports that she is well impressed with A. & T.

Mrs. Mary B. Williams of Elizabeth City, N. C., graduate from Atlanta University is back with us this year after an absence of three or four summers.

Mr. Thomas B. McCrary of Alabama is back with us in the Summer School.

Mr. G. W. Cooper, Miss Eula Thompson and Mrs. Holloman still maintain the distinction of having been longest in attendance in the Summer School with Miss Pearl Allen of Leaksville coming next.

Mr. John Calvin Bias who is the son of the president of the State Normal School at Elizabeth City, is principal of the County Training School at Pantego, N. C.

Burlington, N. C. is well represented in the Summer School this year by Mrs. Pearl Hoover Pittman. Misses Julia E. Day, Mary Phillips, Edna Thomas, Spencer Thomas, Mr. I. S. Rogers and Mrs. A. P. Rogers.

J. W. O'Kelly, principal of Hilly Branch School, Robeson County.

Miss Ruth Butler of South Carolina is here for the first time but she has made many friends, and no longer regards herself as a stranger.

Miss Kathleen E. Smith of Vicksburg, Mississippi is a teacher of science in the Vicksburg High School, a graduate from Livingstone College in Salisbury, N. C., and is a member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

A number of Bennett College students are registered here at the college. Miss Tero Martin of Jackson Springs, N. C., and Miss Carrie Lillian Mebane of Greensboro, N. C. are among that number.

Rev. C. H. White of High Point, N. C. is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University and a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

Mrs. E. D. Holloman of Greensboro, N. C., and a teacher at the Washington Grammar School is planning to graduate from A. & T. in August.

Miss Romalme Davis of Kings Mountain, N. C., is a teacher of the Elementary grades in the local school and a graduate of St. Augustine College, Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. Olive McKay Sawyer of Salisbury, N. C. is a teacher of Latin, general science and music in the high school at Red Springs, N. C., and a graduate of Livingstone College.

Miss Doris E. Alford of Smithfield, N. C., is a teacher of English in the Lillington High School and a graduate of Shaw University.

Mr. Louis W. Thompson, Jr., of Asheville, N. C., is a teacher in Polk county and a graduate of Kittrell College.

Mrs. R. W. Sutton of Sedalia, N. C. is a graduate of South Carolina State

Around the Campus

Miss Pugh is like a contagious disease to Jimmy Walker, he just can't get rid of her.

Will "Jeff" Johnson ever graduate so he can tie the knot with Esther Pickett a graduate of Bennett College.

"Bill" Gordon is a busy man, he keeps each end of Beach Street hot and makes visits on North Dudley Street all in one day.

I wonder if Mae Steele can count her roosters. There are St—, Ho—, Mo—, her French student, and many others.

Ever since June 10, "Bob" Moore has been looking like a sick chicken. He shouldn't fall so hard for another man's property.

James Poole should know that three make a crowd; therefore he must not tag along with Juanita Jones if he intends to stick to Gertrude Bagwell.

Matthew Shute isn't ever going to grow up. He likes to play better than a little pup that has been imprisoned for six months and has just been set free all of a sudden. Oh well, I guess it's just the "kiddie" in him.

Mr. Wise is having trouble with his class in Religious Education. They don't have any religion and can't seem to get any.

Rev. C. H. White, of High Point, should be taking a course in love and courtship, since that seems to be the only thing he has on his mind. "Love thy neighbor," says the scriptures.

There are so many teachers in Summer School that it is easy to be overlooked, but the ladies object; they want to be looked over.

Mr. Bowling shouldn't teach a class of ladies only. It makes him blush too often.

What is Mr. Cunningham doing? He is always too busy to come to class.

Miss Brogwell manages to keep cool in spite of the heat.

LARGE GRADUATING CLASS IS EXPECTED

Approximately 15 students will graduate from the Agricultural and Technical College and receive B.S. degrees. A regular commencement sermon and exercise will be held in the Dudley Memorial Auditorium on August 25 and 26. The speakers' names have not been announced as yet.

Many of the students were registered during the regular winter quarters, and by attending the summer school are completing the requirements in three years and a half and are looking forward to graduation. Others have toiled for many long years in the extension classes and are now among the prospective graduates.

CONFERENCE CALLED OFF ON ACCOUNT OF POLIO

The 4-H Club, which holds its annual conference at the Agricultural and Technical College, Greensboro, N. C., could not meet this year because of infantile paralysis.

The 4-H Club consists of boys and girls from the rural districts who have organized to better the living conditions in their homes.

Last year there were over 350 young boys and girls present, and a larger number was expected to attend the conference this year, but because of the infantile paralysis which is very prevalent in the eastern section of the state this meeting was called off.

Among the Greeks

Zeta Alpha chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta sorority wishes a very successful and enjoyable summer.

The Zetas on the campus are enjoying themselves greatly. They are as follows: Misses Mildred Smith, Sarah Horry, Gladys Sharpe, Odessa Arledge and Mrs. Laura Burge.

The Omegas have organized a local summer chapter with about twenty-five members. The officers are: Basileus, F. A. Williams, vice basileus Samuel Kennedy, keeper of records, R. D. Moore, keeper of finance Alexander H. Bryant.

The following chapters are represented: Mu Psi, Rho, Delta Psi, Zeta, Beta Phi and Zeta Alpha.

AKA'S TO PRESENT DRAMA

The local chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority will present "Lady Windemere's Fan," a four act English drama, by Oscar Wilde, in Dudley Memorial Auditorium, Monday evening, July 15, at 8:15 o'clock.

In "Lady Windemere's Fan" one finds Oscar Wilde in his most delightful and characteristic mood. It is a pleasing drama which treats a common problem—the eternal triangle—in an uncommon way. And is quite appropriately interwoven with passions of love, pathos and anger.

Lady Windemere's Fan gives a good view of English Aristocracy and its social activities. It is a contemporary drama and is quite appropriate for today. It is directed by Mrs. D. W. Hall, of the A. & T. College Summer School faculty.

The following persons are characters in the play: Thor, B. Smith, E. F. Fair, Willie Gamble, J. Webster Smith, R. W. Johnson, Edward Bell, H. B. Warden, J. W. Broadhurst, Misses Gertrude Isomax, Euphrey Bigelow, Gwen-Jane Johnson, Alma T. Smith, and Murrell Graves; Messdames Louise Martin White and Mammie Williams.

OMEGAS ORGANIZE

Hello, public, Omega speaks to tell you that the members at the Agricultural and Technical College summer session have united. The group includes brothers from most of the Negro colleges of eastern United States.

In addition to the new officers there are Brothers J. B. Brown, J. W. Broadhurst, E. V. Draughn, H. C. Goore, P. E. Haygood, C. H. Ireland, R. H. Johnson, C. Lewis, C. G. Mabry, F. F. McDougall, K. McNeil, W. McNair, J. M. Miller, M. A. Schute, N. W. Slade, P. E. Wise, and K. A. Williams. We wish for the entire summer school group a pleasant and beneficial summer.

ENROLLMENT OF SUMMER SCHOOL APPROACHES 500

(Continued from Page One)

and Stat Normal (Elizabeth City), 4 each; V. State, Lutheran College, Knoxville College and West Virginia State, 3 each; Wilberforce University, Atlanta University, Allen University, Florida A & M College, Avery Normal, Oberlin College, T. A. College, St. Augustine, Benedict College and Lane Junior College, 2 each; Tuskegee, Washington Conservatory of Music, Morgan College, Fisk University, Morris College, Bettis Junior College, Morris Brown University, A. & M. Institute, Munc Normal, DeWitt Institute, Waters Training School, Virginia Union University, Virginia Seminary, A. Academy, Paine College, Bethune Junior College, Temple University, Claflin University, State College (Prairie View, Texas), Swift Memorial College, Goldsboro Normal, Philadelphia Normal, Bricks Junior College and Lincoln University, 1 each.

Mr. Earl Whitley, a graduate of Greensboro and member of Phi Beta Sigma Interunit

THESE ADVERTISERS HELP US ... PATRONIZE THEM

1935 COMMENCEMENT DRAWS LARGE CROWD

Rev. B. E. Mays, of Harvard, Delivers Inspiring Baccalaureate Sermons.

30 RECEIVE B.S. DEGREES

On June 2, 1935, Rev. B. E. Mays, dean of the school of religion, Howard University, Washington, D. C., delivered one of the most inspiring and instructive baccalaureate sermons heard in this vicinity, to the graduating class.

At the commencement exercise which was held on Monday, June 3, 1935, C. A. Erwin, State Superintendent of public instruction spoke to the graduates, and in his address he traced the development of education in the state.

Both exercises were held in the new spacious college gymnasium which was very beautifully decorated, and large audiences were present on both occasions.

Other features of commencement were the Band Concert, which was held on the campus, and a recital given by other musical organizations.

Agricultural News

Grain Threshing Time

The college farm crew is now in the midst of its busiest time threshing grain. The grain is being handled in the most approved manner. As the threshed grain passes through the thrasher it is deposited in bags ready for use, while the straw is passed over to a baler which compresses and binds it in small units ready for winter storage.

Abattoir Being Built

A long-felt need of the college farm is now being met with the construction of an abattoir near the dairy barn. In this building all the animals slaughtered on the farm will be handled. The building is a brick structure 14x14 feet. Besides being a sanitary place for killing animals, it can be used for canning fruits and vegetables. It is being built by CWA labor and will be completed about July 20.

Milk Goats and Sheep

The college farm now is stocked with the nucleus of a fine herd of milk goats. Prof. C. R. A. Cunningham, college dairyman, reports that goats' milk is superior to cow's milk for some purposes.

Goats as milk animals have many advantages of which the layman should be advised. They are more economical to purchase, consume less feed, will survive where cows would starve, give milk which ranks favorably with that of cows.

Beef cattle

In attempting to produce the requirements of the college dining hall, the college recently purchased a number of grade beef calves and four pure-bred mature beef animals. The grade calves will be killed as and when occasion demands, while the mature animals will be used as breeders in a foundation beef herd for the college. These cattle belong to the shorthorn breed. Mr. Cunningham is in charge of this work.

New Poultry Equipment

The college poultry plant has recently installed some of the latest equipment for handling and rearing chicks. The new equipment consists of one starting battery for bay chicks and one finishing battery for intermediate sized growing stock. With this equipment the poultry plant hopes to be able to furnish the college dining hall with poultry meat the year round.

Agricultural Men Act

On July 11 the agricultural teachers of the summer school were given a demonstration and some actual practice in caponizing chickens. The operation of caponizing chicken is performed on one-and-a-half-pound male birds. It consists in removing the sex organs. The sex organs control the reproductive possibilities, the appearance and development of the secondary characteristics as spurs, large comb, long wattles and the ability to crow. This work was supervised by C. J. Spellman, poultryman.

Mrs. I. B. Hendrix is a history teacher in Washington, Ga., and a graduate of Ohio University, Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. John Webster Smith of Danville, Va., is a elementary teacher in Danville, Va., and a graduate of Ohio University, Atlanta, Ga.

1935 COMMENCEMENT PROCESSION

Procession led by Miss Minnie D. Brown, '36, "Miss A. & T.," and Edward Simmons, '36, president of the Student Council for next year, President Bluford and Dr. C. A. Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, may be seen next in line.

Sports

The Recreational Tennis League, organized recently in Greensboro, seems to be getting results. There are five teams in the league, two of which feature the A. & T. Faculty members. The Schoolmasters team is composed entirely of faculty members. They are Coach Breaux, Profs. Green, Daniels and Bowling. Profs. Mayfield and Wise are two of the mainstays of the Nocho team.

The Schedule

June 27—Nocho vs. Central—Bennett Courts. Y. M. C. A. vs. Schoolmasters—A. & T. Courts. July 4—Central vs. Schoolmasters—A. & T. Courts. Y. M. C. A. vs. Price—Washington Street Courts. July 11—Nocho vs. Schoolmasters—Nocho Courts. Price vs. Central—Price Courts. Y. M. C. A. vs. Central—Bennett Courts. July 18—Nocho vs. Price—Price Courts. Y. M. C. A. vs. Central—Bennett Courts. July 25—Price vs. Schoolmasters—Price Courts. Y. M. C. A. vs. Nocho—Nocho Courts.

Watch these teams battle for supremacy.

During the week of July 8, an all-campus tennis tournament will be held on the A. & T. courts. This promises to be one of the high lights on the A. & T. extra-curricula program. We regret we will be unable to give you the results of this tournament.

Baseball seems to have the interest of some of the Summer School students. We see that Samuel Kennedy, Stanford Ward and Charlie DeBerry are leading their talents to the Black Patriots. Greenboro's place in the baseball realm. Kennedy does the pitching. Ward and DeBerry are batters and utility pitchers. The services of these three men with the Black Patriots can hardly be overestimated.

Press Comment

The Greensboro Daily News says that Dusky Athletes are slated to copy major honors in 1936 Olympic Games. Peacock of Temple U. is the Negro's latest contribution to the cinder path. Reading further: "Dusky shadows are being cast athwart the coming Olympic games by the greatest crop of Negro track and field athletes ever developed in the U. S. or, for that matter, anywhere else in the realm of competitive sport."

"On the basis of a display of speed"

Dear Old A. & T.

A. & T. is well represented by former students and graduates; many of whom are occupying important places in the educational program in the state.

Listen to the roll call: Principals: J. T. Daniel of Pender County Training School, H. C. Goore of Anson county Training School, L. H. Smith, of Greene County Training School, C. H. DeBerry of Madison High School, J. R. Thomas of Person County Training School, William P. Anderson of Connelly Springs, C. H. McLendon of Onslow County Training School, J. W. Broadhurst of Jones County Training School, George B. McCallum at Mocksville High School and K. A. Williams of the High School at Windfall, N. C. Teachers of vocational agriculture: C. H. Couch of Yanceyville, Alexander Blain at Edenton High School, J. L. Bolden at Warren County Training School, G. E. Crenshaw in Columbus County, Edward Draughn at Kings Mountain Academy, H. J. Hayes at Columbus County Training School, W. T. Johnson at Spring Hope, J. J. Mitchell in Pasquotank County, James Link Moffitt in Durham County, W. H. Slade at Martin County Training School and Fred Allen Williams at Henderson Institute.

Other students and graduates: E. L. Fair, C. O. Howell, Mrs. M. C. Hughes, W. H. Jones, Hazel Jordan at Pitt County Training School, Mable and Margaret Hazel at Alamance County Training School, W. R. Hooper at Martin County Training School, A. A. Lane at Vance County Training School, Bessie Lee Ledbetter at Richmond County Training School, Dorothy M. Walker in Northampton County and Emma Lona Miller in Rutherford County.

Alonzo Douglass of Baltimore is here in the Summer School.

Great opportunity for young men and young women. Maco Beauty College. Offers courses for young men and young women that will enable them to pass all state boards. Under the management of Mme. E. D. London. 505 E. Market St.

Williams Cleaning & Tailoring. Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing. Hats Cleaned and Blocked. We call for and deliver. Shoes Dyed and Shined. 602 E. Market St. Phone 9277. GREENSBORO, N. C.

The Palace. Welcomes A. & T. Students and Their Friends. Always a good show. First floor.

The NORTH STATE ENGRAVING CO. Photo Engravers. ZINC LINE & HALFTONE ETCHINGS. ART SERVICE. TELEPHONE 2-3131. COPPER FINE SCREEN ETCHINGS. DAILY NEWS BUILDING, GREENSBORO, N. C.

Letters to Aunt Jenny

Dear Aunt Jenny: I am a teacher in the Danville Public school system, and since June 10th, have met a nice fellow who is a junior at Johnson C. Smith. He carries me out to the movies every Friday night and calls to see me on Wednesdays and Sundays. The girls call me foolish, and say that he is playing me for my money. Do you think it is wise for me to waste my time with him.

C. M. H.

Dear C. M. H.: You are old enough to choose your associates and should not worry about the things your girl friends say. Maybe if you turn him loose one of them will pick him up. If both of you are satisfied then take life easy.

AUNT JENNY.

Dear Aunt Jenny: I am a high school principal and am made in love with a little 16-year old girl. She really loves me and her parents are very fond of me also. I would like to continue our courtship but she might want to get married very soon and I am not in the position to get married just yet, because of financial conditions. I have only worked two years and haven't saved very much money. What must I do, now that I have fallen in love with this girl and she really loves me?

F. A. W. A.

Dear F. A. W. A.: You might be old enough to realize what love really is, but I don't think this little 16 year old girl is in love. To her it is just a passion. When she sees some one else she will fall just as hard as she fell for you. Every time a woman tells you that she loves you, she does not mean it some times, it is just another one of her sweet little "lies."

AUNT JENNY.

Dear Aunt Jenny: I am 24 years old and am engaged to a very nice young man, who just received his Master's degree in science. He is a teacher in the State College at Durham and draws a good salary. We want to get married, but my parents don't like him because of his color. They never intend to speak to me any more if we get married. Please tell me what to do.

"DISGUSTED."

Dear "Disgusted": You are not a three year old baby. You have become old enough to decide for yourself. If you marry the man, your mother does not have to live with him. And as far as his color is concerned, if you like it, let your mother do what ever she likes. Her speaking to you will not purchase a home of your own, neither will it put food in your pantry when you are in need. She has lived her life, now it is up to you to choose your life's companion and prepare to live.

AUNT JENNY.

Second session of Summer School A. & T. College. Opens July 20, 1935. Offering Regular College and Teachers Certificate Credit. For further information, write WARROTH T. GIBBS, Director.

Letters to Aunt Jenny

Dear Aunt Jenny: I am a teacher in the Danville Public school system, and since June 10th, have met a nice fellow who is a junior at Johnson C. Smith. He carries me out to the movies every Friday night and calls to see me on Wednesdays and Sundays. The girls call me foolish, and say that he is playing me for my money. Do you think it is wise for me to waste my time with him.

C. M. H.

Dear C. M. H.: You are old enough to choose your associates and should not worry about the things your girl friends say. Maybe if you turn him loose one of them will pick him up. If both of you are satisfied then take life easy.

AUNT JENNY.

Dear Aunt Jenny: I am a high school principal and am made in love with a little 16-year old girl. She really loves me and her parents are very fond of me also. I would like to continue our courtship but she might want to get married very soon and I am not in the position to get married just yet, because of financial conditions. I have only worked two years and haven't saved very much money. What must I do, now that I have fallen in love with this girl and she really loves me?

F. A. W. A.

Dear F. A. W. A.: You might be old enough to realize what love really is, but I don't think this little 16 year old girl is in love. To her it is just a passion. When she sees some one else she will fall just as hard as she fell for you. Every time a woman tells you that she loves you, she does not mean it some times, it is just another one of her sweet little "lies."

AUNT JENNY.

Dear Aunt Jenny: I am 24 years old and am engaged to a very nice young man, who just received his Master's degree in science. He is a teacher in the State College at Durham and draws a good salary. We want to get married, but my parents don't like him because of his color. They never intend to speak to me any more if we get married. Please tell me what to do.

"DISGUSTED."

Dear "Disgusted": You are not a three year old baby. You have become old enough to decide for yourself. If you marry the man, your mother does not have to live with him. And as far as his color is concerned, if you like it, let your mother do what ever she likes. Her speaking to you will not purchase a home of your own, neither will it put food in your pantry when you are in need. She has lived her life, now it is up to you to choose your life's companion and prepare to live.

AUNT JENNY.

THREE INTERESTING ADDRESSES HEARD

Representative of Federal Farm Credit Administration Visits College; Johnson and Carroll Speak.

On July 4 Mr. Henry A. Hunt, president of the Fort Valley School in Georgia, who is at the present time connected with the Federal Farm Credit Administration in Washington, addressed the summer school at the regular chapel hour.

The subject of his discourse was the value of credit unions, and pointed out how these unions, under the supervision of the federal government, would benefit teachers as well as others who might want to become affiliated with one. He urged the teachers to lead in forming a credit union in their several communities when they returned to their work this fall.

Mr. Hunt is very anxious to have teachers and others to write him in Washington relative to any farm or rural problem they are confronting to the attention of the government. He gave his assurance that he would do that any request they make would be given prompt and careful attention. And on July 5 the lecture series continued, this time by Mr. William H. Johnson, of the state department of public welfare. Mr. Johnson is always an interesting speaker. He did not speak in detail about the work of his department, but in general terms on the importance of economic security. Like Mr. Hunt, he emphasized the importance of a firm economic foundation as a prerequisite for educational and cultural advancement.

Mr. Johnson made a molding stamp in the minds of the summer school teachers, both because he brought an interesting and timely message, and also because he said it in a short time.

At the regular chapel hour Wednesday, July 10, Mr. Seymour Carroll, field representative of the American Humane Education Society, with headquarters in Boston, Mass., was presented to the summer school by Dean W. T. Gibbs, and one of the most eloquent pleas that the summer school has heard was made.

Mr. Carroll's topic was on humane education, which meant, as he said, not merely being kind to cats and dogs, but developing an attitude of tolerance, kindness, justice and mercy to every living creature. The writer believes that everyone has a better conception about humane education after hearing this address than before.

The speaker showed that he was thoroughly interested in his subject and was successful in making a fine impression on his audience.

Features

On looking through the roster for the Summer School, the reporter finds that there are quite a number of interesting names that present a variety of superlatives in one way or another. Some are suggested in the list below. If anyone has a better list please copy it 100 times and send the 101st copy to me.

Some of the colorful characters in the Summer School are: Miss Allard, Miss Black, Mr. and Mrs. Blue, Miss Brown and Mrs. White.

The wisest persons—Miss Lena Couper and Mr. P. Wise.

The opposite—Mr. John Smith and Mr. W. E. Sapp.

The best note—Miss Chung.

Most partial—Mr. J. C. Higgins.

The opposite—Mr. E. C. King.

Most cunning—Mrs. Louise Fox.

Twins—Mrs. Fish and Miss Herring.

Best workers—Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Diggs.

Wealthiest—Miss F. Banks.

Smartest—Mrs. Sharp.

One cardinal—Mr. I. North.

Trapper—Miss Webber.

Superior—Miss M. Bridges over Miss Brooks.

Ornaments—Miss Flowers, Mrs. C. P. Tilly.

Biggest blower—Miss Wynn.

Best flyer—Miss E. Banner.

WALDEN.

Rev. Walter G. Anderson of Oxford, N. C. is teacher of Latin and boy's athletics at Mary Potter School. He is a graduate from Lincoln University and a member of the Presbyterian church and the Omega Fraternity.

Mrs. Margaret May Fisher is a primary teacher in Kinston, N. C., and a graduate of Barber, Scott College.

Office Phone Res. Phone

Visit the PARAMOUNT GRILL For Delightful Meals at Reasonable Rates.