A. & T. Host to High School Seniors

1,644 Attend
First All-State
Students Meet

On Saturday, November 28, under the pitch-black of a dark night, all the cars from all the schools throughout the state. An invitation was extended to the principal of each high school in the state along with the respective school's chairman.

The activities of the day were well scheduled and conducted. They consisted of Registration at the college gymnasium upon arrival, a social followed registration and after the social all the guests for the day were carried on an inspection tour of the campus buildings and grounds. Students of the student body helped very efficiently in "guiding" for particular high schools.

Dinner was served to the visitors in the college dining hall. At one o'clock in the afternoon all school seniors gathered in front of Dudley Hall, the administration

Over The Top
With The Red Cross

In behalf of the director and chairman of the Red Cross Com­mittee of A. and T. College, I wish to express my appreciation for those who joined the Red Cross for last year, 1938-39 $56.40.

We hope you have enjoyed The Register and we wish to thank all who have contributed articles and hope that you and others will continue to do so. It is our aim to serve you and aim to better during the New Year.

THE REGISTER STAFF.

CIAA Meet At
A. & T. College

Twenty-Sixth Annual Meeting
Organization Convenes Friday,
December 15, 150 Delegates Present

Establish Loan
Fund at A. and T.

Istructor of Business Administration
Heads Student Aid

The annual handshaking among students at A. and T. Col­lege caused by financial difficul­ties. This drive was spearheaded by Miss Esther Hicks, Assistant Secretary of Business Administra­tion, to organize the fund which was to be used for the betterment of Negro Education.

The fund is available to those who have promise and are worthy of such help. Students who will be granted two hundred dollars will be able to repay the loan within a reasonable time, during their college course of study.

We are sure that the fund will be well used and that the student will be a credit to A. and T. College.

Dean Tilley
Speaks At
Vesper Service

Points To Difficulties
and Problems of Present Day

Rev. J. L. Tilley, Dean of the School of Religion, Shaw Universi­ty, was the guest speaker for the vesper service on Sunday, No­vember 28. He discussed what he thought of as a thought which is of very vital interest. "How fortu­nate we are to be privileged to think, express our thoughts, and opinions in a world which is not of totalitarian form." Dean Tilley pointed out that in a world where we are surrounded by the numerous difficulties, problems and struggles of our unbelonged as well as desirable heritage, in a
Three Things To Think About

Paragaphs

If a man does not make new acquaintance as he advances through life, he does not share the mind of self left alone. A man, sir, should keep his friendship in a constant state.

A President must be always talking, whether he knows anything or not, as the Englishman is content to say nothing, when he has nothing to say.

The word "only" is handy, only you must be careful to use it only where it will say only what you mean.

To live and let live, without change for distinction or recognition; to wait on divine laws, to write truth first on the heart of your own heart, this is the sacred and permanent form of living, and my human ideal.

In life there is nothing we expect and surprising than the early times of the world, and the heartbreak of man, which causes were monuments, things, and a full meal was something more than a common blessing.

No great thing is created suddenly, any more than a bunch of grapes or a fig. If you tell me that you desire to see a great man, I ask you that you must be wise. Let me first blossom, then bear fruit, then ripen.

Thrift is a virtue, ladies, but you never see a man proudly showing off his wife because she saves money.

The Certainty of Uncertainty

One probably never seriously thinks over the danger of crime, will going to be the government of the people, or the government of their own wills. One is often a hopeful and brilliant future. We often raise our children in the hope that we will get wise due to the fact that we feel that we have all of our forces that can control every day. And, therefore, we are uncertain of any thing to do. We are the masters of our own fortunes and our own disasters. In so weak a way or to so low extent, we just put ourselves on the world. In our own way, the actions of which are always the fruit of very well thinking that is scattered with more logic than all of the doctrine of Plato, Aristotle, Millikan, Newton and Comstock, are in the art of living, and the insane ones.

Our reasoning teaches us that the man is to be despised and the woman is to be despised and the woman is to be despised. We, as parents, should strive for the sake of our children. Do they follow in the footsteps of their parents? In what way? Multitudes of these is what kind of children that are. In the world of class,-and the kind of person we are, should not be any uncertainty as to what kind of children that are.

Deterioration? What significant conception may we derive from this world? Does it imply an increase of quality of good, or evil both?

According to authorization into the formation of the world is as clear as the death of our own blood. We would abolish our women in business that they have a duty to perform toward their own. When we grasp the knowledge and the power of the word, with the conclusion that it is not the basis of human endeavor. It is clear cut now. To exert every possible force in the construction of the world.

Behind the brave, squanders its wealth on money. We, as the people of the world, have not to do as we wish. We, the people of today, do not own their homes nor our stream of reason tell us that the Government of the people are uncertain traitors in our judge.

As a farmer, a businessman, or professional man, I can organize, I can teach, I can respect the respect of the nation, and I must do my part to respect the cause of the common right and social for which it stands.

One probably never seriously thinks over the danger of crime, will going to be the government of the people, or the government of their own wills. One is often a hopeful and brilliant future.
Is Prejudice Justified?

According to the dictionary, prejudice means a favoring or a disfavoring of one side of a question for or against a person or thing. It is a kind of discrimination and is based on an unfounded opinion or suspicion. Prejudice is not always justifiable, and it is often harmful to society. Prejudice can be caused by various factors such as lack of education, ignorance, or bias. It can also be passed down from generation to generation.

College students are often exposed to different cultures and backgrounds, which can help to reduce prejudice. However, it is up to each individual to make the choice to overcome prejudice and work towards understanding and acceptance.

Superstitions of College Students

Are you very superstitious?

There are many college students who are very superstitious. Some of them believe in the power of numbers, others in the power of colors, and some in the power of certain objects or actions. However, these beliefs are not grounded in scientific evidence and are therefore considered superstitions.

For example, some students believe that it is unlucky to break a mirror, that the number 13 is unlucky, or that wearing black on Friday the 13th is unlucky. These beliefs are often passed down from generation to generation and are based on fear or superstition.

Alumni News

There were herbs of graduation at the college last spring, and if there were ever before, members representing class 1920 are happy to celebrate.

The following is a partial list:

Quite a number of things have happened since we went to press a year ago. Happier times have come to the CIAA crows but you will hear from us in the year ahead. We are proud of our team and our country. We truthfully say that our team has not been as successful as in the past, but the boys and girls who have been in our team have been a great success. Our boys can hang up their tags for the season with the thought that they have played for us a good fight.

It happened that the first real game was played as a result of the game we were scheduled to play in Hampton. It was a good game, but it was only a small step in the right direction. It was a good game, but it was only a small step in the right direction.
POET'S CORNER

A Prayer for Christmas

The story I am about to write is not entirely mine, but it expresses so adequately an idea which I have been thinking about recently that I feel I must now try to convey it to you. Christmas is a time of giving and, incidentally, of giving generously. Christmas gives us the opportunity to give the people around us and to spread a little cheer. We are to be generous, I feel, and to try to do something that will make them feel happy and contented. This year, let us all make an effort to give generously, even if it is just a small gift. Let us try to make others feel happy and give them a special feeling of warmth and joy. Christmas is a time of giving, and we should all try to give as much as we can.
For 177 years since it was founded at St. Mary's, Kentucky, African American students have beamed and sat in their office, and with the aid of a loud speaking unit give the impression of being much more than a loud speaking unit. As a matter of fact, a loud speaking unit can often be more acceptable than the absence of one. When we take care to act in certain ways, it is often a great comfort to our students.

Personal prejudices often cause us to overlook people who might have been invaluable friends. We cannot always decide that we like a person because they improved from the first meeting or because of personal appearance. The real person is to be studied before we arrive at a fair estimate of his qualities. If we have no doubt largely recognized by many of the hasty and ill-informed judges for their open presence. Thus we classify the folk who are seen only slightly and are tempted to judge them at first impression as though they were seen. In such a case, should we judge at all?

In the sight of those facts we must ask: What do we mean by prejudice? If you are going to classify people within prejudice that you will not keep you from doing the best that you can in life.

PANNE NICHOLSON, 49

American Democracy

(Continued from Page 2)

In a country where men can grow to be the men that they were born to be, we sometimes forget that the wrongs against many of the people, the damages that are being done to the American people, are the triumph of false democracy. That is why we are working for in America—universal respect for the rights of men, universal individuality and brute forces rise up in others to harm so to help us. But we are working to force men, for our own country. True scholarship is not merely the social heritage and environment. The price of a man's life is worth the pains of the student to make a better world in which to live.

—JAMES KAMBLE, 24

Establishment Loan Fund at A & T.

(Continued from Page 3)

...The A. and T. of tomorrow will boast of a much stronger faculty; every Professor and Dean of the departments will rate a Ph. D. degree and other instructors will also hold a B. A. degree or its equivalent.

—W. L. TERRY, 70

AT OTHER COLLEGES

Florida A. and M.—Defeated S. C. State College, 35 to 0; N. C. State, 20 to 7. Bestowed on the intramural powerhouse, Lawrence, General Council of the Afro Instructors. In the Sigma Alpha Iota, Haggard appointed personal consultant.

Missouri—Dean, Dr. Cullen B. Gourley, internationally famous political speaker, speaks on European social events. His lecture is comprised of life, thought, and art. Scorsys, who is a popular speaker, receives dramatic concert.

CIAA Meet at A. & T. College

(Continued from Page 1)

...The A. and T. College football team faced the Smoothly functioning gridiron, which was possible to maintain a status in a town. Both behavior is in the basis of genuine scholarship. If the gifted student possesses a creative imagination, he must be able to overcome. If the a social pattern; He should be for himself. But we are obligated to contribute to society. The third, the idea of mass action must be much stronger, if we are to be able to think in a community, we cannot be creative for thinking. It is up to these persons to teach the girls to serve as a guide to reach our ultimate goals.

ALBERTA WHITSTITT, 46, Delegate.

THE REGISTER

December 1939

Page 5

Feature News—College Slants

(Continued from Page 1)

...The A. and T. College football team faced the Smoothly functioning gridiron, which was possible to maintain a status in a town. Both behavior is in the basis of genuine scholarship. If the gifted student possesses a creative imagination, he must be able to overcome. If the a social pattern; He should be for himself. But we are obligated to contribute to society. The third, the idea of mass action must be much stronger, if we are to be able to think in a community, we cannot be creative for thinking. It is up to these persons to teach the girls to serve as a guide to reach our ultimate goals.

ALBERTA WHITSTITT, 46, Delegate.

THE REGISTER

December 1939

Page 5
The Sphinx Club

When the beginning of the school year, the Sphinx Club of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, Inc., Beta Epsilon chapter of this college, had been carrying forward its program of the year. The members have been studying fraternity, world affairs and numerous other subjects with interest to the membership as a whole. A member was given to the members of the pledge class a little booklet entitled "What is a Sphinx?". At the homecoming of the Sphinx Club presented a short play based on a collection of topics familiar to its members.

During the course of the school year four students have been accepted as pledges to the fraternity. They are John Colson, William Harrison Poppell and Joseph Otto Rinnberg. I wish to welcome them into the club and extend my hand to them in true fraternal spirit as brothers.

The Christmas holidays are upon us and most of us will be going home to be with our families. Then start the new year with the best possible way to carry our program to its successful end.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We wish you all the best of the holidays. I am looking forward to seeing you in the new year. Remember: do not work too hard and enjoy yourself.

JAMES DICKERS, '41

New Vestments For Choral Society

Because of the success of the recent concert, the Choral Society will be receiving new vestments. The vestments were purchased from the school tailor, Mr. Wilson, and are made of a material that is fireproof and washable. The Choral Society will be wearing these vestments on December 5th, at the Christmas concert.

Art News

The students of the Art Department are looking forward to the next year with successful year under the leadership of the recently elected officers for the school year, who have been elected as follows:

President: Edna Watkins; Vice-President: E. Russell; Secretary: William Thompson; Treasurer: John Massey; associate art editor, C. A. Young; program committee, C. Thompson, Jr., R. Barnes, and Gladys Gorden.

It is expected that the art students will continue to visit The Register.

J. L. Faulcon, '39

Reports

An agricultural fair was sponsored by the North Carolina College in Durham, North Carolina, in October. Among the exhibits were vegetables, fruits, flowers and home crafts. The fair was attended by a large number of students from the college, and many of them were interested in the, exhibit of cheese boxes made from cheese boxes.

The following exhibits were on display: vegetables, fruits, flowers and home crafts. The outstanding exhibit of the fair was the cheese boxes that were made from cheese boxes. The aim of the fair was to show the importance of agriculture and to educate the public about the importance of agriculture.

Alpha Phi Alpha

Well, Alpha Phi Alpha is before you again in this December issue of the Register.

The Alpha and Omega chapter are working hard on plans for their own chapter. The chapter is planning to have a chapter banquet on the tenth of this month. The banquet will be held in the college auditorium. The chapter is planning to have a chapter banquet on the tenth of this month. The banquet will be held in the college auditorium. The chapter is planning to have a chapter banquet on the tenth of this month. The banquet will be held in the college auditorium.

Lampodas Club

We are proud to see such a complete adjustment on the part of our faculty and students to this new environment known as the Lampodas Club. We have a very active group here. Again, thank you for being "so good." Let's hope that things continue as they are through this phase of our college life.

Spirits and interest in running high among the Lampodas now, for they are coming out in full force and leader than ever. Plans have been made for two socials this month. Everyone is looking forward to the Christmas party for their part in this December issue of the Register.

The Rev. Mr. Knight, in discussing the achievement of Neumann, pointed out that there is a great deal of similarity in the achievements of this generation. "This shows responsibility on our part, and we must be prepared to answer the question: "What will you do with the opportunity that has been given to you?""