TYPICAL CO-ED

MISS EVA BLUFORD

Miss Eva Bluford, junior, Philadelphia, Pa., was recently voted the typical co-ed of the institution in an enthusiastic contest conducted by the entire student body of nearly a thousand.

The effort to select Miss Co-ed was sponsored by the YWCA as a part of its contribution towards securing funds with which to construct a "Y" hut on the campus of the college in the memory of its students, who as members of the armed forces are giving their all in the defense of God, justice and humanity.

"Miss Co-Ed" Campaign Successful Event

The campaign for the selection of "Miss Co-Ed" was sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. on January 27. The funds raised by selling votes went directly into the 'Y Hut Fund.' Some of the young ladies were supported by an organization while others were not.

The following were contestants:

Phyllis Holland of Birmingham, Ala, sponsored by the "Bama" Collegians and the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity;

Eva Bluford of Philadelphia, Pa., sponsored by the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority;

Jeanette Bass of Spartanburg, S. C., sponsored by the Choir;

Nettie McGimpsey of Morgantown, N. C., sponsored by the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority;

Carolyn Holt of Greensboro,

N. C., sponsored by the "Bi Yum Phi Bi Yum" Club;

Mary Frances Davis of Gastonia, N. C., sponsored by the Dramatic Club;

Her Tenth Triumphant Concert Tour

Only Performance In State During 1945 Tour

Marion Anderson, America's great lady of song, sets forth this year on her tenth concert tour of the United States under the triumphant banner of ace impresario S. Hurok, who brought her home in 1935 to conquer her native land from a Europe which was already at her feet. The famous contralto will arrive in Greensboro, N. C., for a gala performance of this gala season on March 29, 1945 at Agricultural and Technical College.

The inspiring progress of Philadelphia's "our Marian," the little girl who washed doorsteps to earn money for her first musical instrument, whose first music lessons were paid for in the nickels and dimes of her adoring church congregation, whose glorious voice has since thrilled more than 3,000,000 hearers, among them the King and Queen of England and the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, and earned her the greatest of musical tributes from the greatest musicians of her time, has become one of the most moving success stories in America.

The past year has brought new laurels to Miss Anderson's serene brow. In June, Smith College conferred on her an honorary Doctorate of Music to add to those she already holds from Temple and Howard Universities. Earlier in the concert year, the winner of the $10,000 Bok Award and the Spingarn Medal was presented by the Republic of Liberia with its highest honor, the Order of African Redemption. A mural painting, dedicated to her, adorns a wall in the Department of Interior Building in Washington, commemorating her historic Easter Sunday concert at the Lincoln Memorial in 1939 when

Frosh Challenge Sophs To Debate

Dear Sophomores:

Upon arriving here last quarter we, the freshmen, learned that it has been an annual tradition here at A. and T. for the Freshmen versus Sophomores to stage a debate.

We have been looking forward to a notice from you relative to the date for the debate. Having received no such notice has made us begin to wonder. Are you afraid? Can there be any doubt in your minds as to whom would win? Come now, we aren't Big Bad Wolves, Meek Lambs is the more appropriate word. What have you to lose, the odds are against us, not you.

The unkeen competition which we offer will be no obstacle. Are you kidding? Don't trust that statement—come prepared. We challenge you.

Yours 'til we win over you,
THE FRESHMEN

RULES FOR ART CONTEST

1. Every regular student of the college, except members of the "Register Staff" is eligible to submit a drawing, cartoon, or sketch, in competition for the honor of becoming the campus' best artist for the college year.
2. Every drawing submitted must be an original work of the person submitting same.
3. Drawing must be done in drawing ink, on regular artist drawing paper.
4. All drawing for the contest must be on file in the office of Dean Gibbs not later than March 10.
5. A committee of judges will make the selection and their finding will be final.
6. The subject of the drawing may be selected by the contestant.

1945

A new year has dawned and though it finds the world still in turmoil and strife, we have hopes for a brighter future. During the past year each and every one of you has no doubt felt, and is continuing to feel, the effects of the war in one way or another. If it is not through sorrow or loneliness, it may be due to some trying inconvenience or sacrifice.

Now a new quarter of work has begun. We can look back upon the mistakes of last quarter as something in the past. Whether or not we made a success of it depended on our native ability and our willingness to cooperate with those who were trying to help us.

When evaluating the work of last quarter, we must not fail to consider that beside grade points and hours, there are other qualities upon which the success of our college careers depend. Have you, during the past quarter of school work, become a better person? Better I mean not only in the sight of your fellow students, but also in the sight of God. Have you become more honest and reliable? You know that reliability, like honesty, is an indispensable quality towards success. An irresponsible person has no place in this world.

Our previous holidays presented an interval in which we could set aside our burdens and relax our bodies and minds; and seemed to have injected something into our spirits that gave us hope and prospective to see the brighter side of life.

This year we may feel that peace will soon come, in fact, sooner than we had expected. Is this not the greatest New Year's gift one could wish for?

WE ARE ICEBERGS

Illustrated by Holloway, Reproduced by Martha Carter

Everybody knows that Most of an iceberg is under water, with only a small portion of it visible. For this reason icebergs are Dangerous to shipping because a steamer cannot See that portion which is under water.

What is not Generally realized is that human beings are very much like icebergs in this regard.

Not that human beings are frigid like an iceberg, but there is so much of us that is not Visible on the surface.

We are prone to Judge each other by the way we look, the way we act and what we say.

But these are only surface manifestations that are little or no indication of what is Underneath.

And yet that portion which Is underneath is the most important and significant part of us.

It is important and significant because it determines Why we look as we do, act as we do, and say what we say.

Like icebergs, we conceal the larger part of our selves from public gaze, placing in view only that part which we Want to exhibit, or cannot help from showing.

That is why we cannot Understand what motivates ourselves and others unless we understand what is underneath.

Just as a Ship is wrecked because the master supposes that the entire iceberg is what he sees above the water, so many Lives are wrecked for the same reason.

That is what causes people to Misinterpret the actions of others.

It is the cause of incompatibility in Marriage.

Because we fail to probe deep enough into the consciousness of those about us, we regard them Superficially and without real comprehension.

In order to understand man, it is essential that we study man—not only his appearance, speech and actions, but the deeper motivating forces within man.

Study always takes Time and intelligence.

We Cannot understand man by hurried appraisal or a quick glance.

To really Know man, it is necessary to know him: that is to say, to watch his reaction to numerous stimuli over a considerable period of time.

This cannot be done in a few minutes, a day, a week, or a month.

Understanding requires Long periods of careful appraisal.

Far too many people make the mistake of committing themselves to close Friendships on the basis of superficial appearance.

They act without knowing the other person's background from earliest times.

New Members Accepted For Staff

Three new persons have been accepted for membership to the staff of the College Register for the school year, and have already started working on assignments, and helped to prepare material for the current issue.

The new members were selected on the basis of previous experience in newspaper work, their interest and amount of time they will have available for the work and their ability to exercise good judgment.

The new members who have been given probation assignments are as follows: Edward Lacy, of Oklahoma City, Okla.; Gladys Ruffin of Windsor and Edythe L. Lomax of Iron Station, N. C.

It May Surprise You—But

Certain definite care of one's clothes saves time and expense. It is not degrading to press your clothes or sew on a button.

It does not lower one's repu-

Then they are surprised and Hurt when they discover what is actually underneath and behind that person's actions.

Many Marriages go on the rocks because they have been hastily consummated without a Full knowledge of the character of the marriage partner.

Disillusionment Inevitably follows discovery, which is itself a foregone conclusion, because no one for long conceals his real nature.

The Wise man or woman hesitates to make hasty friendships and marriages, preferring to take time and Thought before acting, realizing that it is impossible to really know a person on short notice.

Happiness in human relations flow from an understanding of this truth.

tation to shine his own shoes or to iron his own garments.

Freshness, daintiness and being well-groomed have as their foundation, cleanliness.

Soap is an antiseptic as well as a cleanser. One of the best ways to prevent skin infection is to indulge in frequent soap and water washings.

You can make your hands seem softer and smoother with a single application of hand cream.

One toothbrush is not enough. For correct cleansing, your brush must be firm and dry. That means a sufficient supply to allow hours between every use of each brush.

Good posture is the greatest single contribution to a good figure or physique. The ability to sit, stand and walk erectly gives an illusion of fewer pounds and added inches.

A man thinks that "because I'm a man, I can get by," but this isn't true on A. and T.'s campus. The men are observant and critical about the women's appearance and the women are the same way about the men.

A Better World

(Submitted by Nelda Scott)

Wouldn't this old world be better,
If the folks we meet would say
I know something good about you
And then treat us just that way?

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy,
If each handclasp was warm and true,
Carried with it assurance,
"I know something good about you?"

Wouldn't life be more happy
If the good that's in all,
Were the only thing about us
That folks bother to recall?

Wouldn't life be more happy
If we praised the good we see
For there's such a lot of goodness.

In the worst of you and me,
Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking, too?
You know something good about me,
And I know something good about you

Alexander Montgomery

Alexander Montgomery is an honorably discharged Veteran of World War II. He writes novels, short stories, song lyrics, plays, poetry and motion picture scripts. His play, "Dying Patient," was produced by the American Red Cross. Among his works ready for publication are "Dying Comes Hard" and "Mine Eyes Have Seen The Glory." Literary works in progress includes "The 13th Steps" and Paradise on the Mourn."

"A Letter of the First Born Dead" is one of his most recent works.

LETTER OF FIRST BORN DEAD
She wrote a letter of the first born dead
To her husband overseas, to God overhead,

To both she cried in regretful anguish
That she just bore a child—
A first born dead.

To her soldier over there, pity and consolation,
For herself over here, hell and damnation,

For all the bood they both had shed
All she could offer was,
A first born dead.

To him it would have meant courage and wealth;
He gave life,
She gave death
That she bore a first born dead.

Then one day as she sat in remorseful sorrow,
There came a letter from across the water,
In it he said he felt no sorrow
That she bore a first born dead.

A first born daughter
But instead it strengthened him, he said,

The heart felt regret, the courage of the letter read,
Not in vain the blood they both had shed,
That she just bore a first born dead.

For in the letter was enough for him
Relishing the promise she had tried to fulfil.

The pain the disappointment of the letter read,
A letter of the first born dead.

I'll Never Forget You

I'll never forget you, no matter how far
Fate may take us apart.

The warm affection that we once knew,
Will always remain in my heart.

The days of spring with its new life begun
And the breath of spring's romantic perfume,
Will make me lonely and blue.

Summer in her dress so gay,
That glitters by the light of the moon,
And stars so bright seem to twinkle
and say,
"Will he be back soon?"

When after summer has made her bow,
And autumn with her changing skies
Makes no debut to happiness and love,
That's when romance seemingly dies.

But Darling the seasons never change
my love,
For in winters bleakest day,
When the world is frozen and snowflakes fall

Warm affection, in my heart will stay.

CIAA Regulations On Eligibility

by Edward Lacy, '46

You have wondered why certain fellows on the campus who can really play a lot of basketball are not playing basketball. You probably have heard a few remarks about this, but you are still in the dark about the whole thing. The Colored Intercollegiate Athletic Association, of which A. and T. is a member is a member, has certain regulations which each member institution must follow. The regulations which we are chiefly concerned with are pertaining to the rules regarding eligibility. Below are a few of the rules of eligibility.

Article VII (Eligibility)

Section 2. The following regulations shall govern eligibility of players to compete in intercollegiate athletics under this Association.

(a) Any student who participates in any part of an intercollegiate contest in any year shall be credited with a year in that particular sport.

(b) No student shall participate in intercollegiate athletics more than four years in the aggregate in any branch of sport in any institution in the association.

(c) No student shall be allowed to represent his institution or take part in any intercollegiate contest who has a year in more than one college.

(This is the one which has kept these fellows from playing basketball.)

Section 4. Member institutions shall send to the chairman of the Eligibility Committee 18 copies of their lists of athletes for each sport. The lists shall reach the chairman in time for him to send copies to member institutions in order that they (the member institutions) may have opportunity to challenge the eligibility of any athlete before the beginning of or before he participates in the sport for which his institution has certified him. Should additional names be added member institutions shall follow the prescribed procedure. All protests must be made to the Secretary-Treasurer and be sent by registered mail. These protests shall be forwarded immediately to the chairman of the Eligibility Committee.

Beginning with the war the Association adopted the following proposal in the hope that such a temporary flexible change in its eligibility rules would make it possible for the member colleges to continue intercollegiate sports under the Association's war emergency "carry on" policy: That all C. I. A. A. eligibility rules be and are hereby modified for the duration of the war, so that all available students shall be eligible to participate in intercollegiate athletics. During the annual meeting of the association last December the eligibility regulations were reinstated and beginning with this quarter were to be enforced.

The following By-laws explains about keeping these regulations:

Article VI (Athletic Contests)

Section 1. (a) All athletic games or meets between members of the association shall be subject to the regulations of the association as hereafter stated. Failure to comply with these regulations shall be considered cause for discipline on recommendations of the Executive Council as follows: (1) Forfeiture of contest, (2) Refusal to sanction further contests, (3) Exclusion from membership in the association.

I have written a few facts which I sincerely hope has cleared up matters for you. The members of the team, the coach and ye scribe want you to know that we do have a winning combination here on the campus, although we have lost several players through these regulations. If the team has your moral support, I am sure they can not lose, so why not show them that you are all for them.

The Raleigh Boys

Well, it is supposed to happen October 6, 1945: A. and T. plays Shaw University for the first time in 22 years in a football game, in Raleigh.

The Aggies have done it before, so they can do it again. Prepare now and let's go to Raleigh and take that game with a "bang."

Aggies Brilliant In Triumph Over Golden Bulls

On the night of January 20, 1945, before a cheering capacity crowd the valiant A. and T. Aggies met and decisively defeated the Golden Bulls of J. S. Smith University behind the stellar and outstanding play of Cunningham, Hapgood and Elebe.

The Aggies led the game throughout and as another basket was scored the students went into uproars that rocked the foundations of our gym. The Aggies were never in danger and the highly touted Smith quintet failed to click as they miserably missed shot after shot. A. and T., however, behind the relentless, aggressive, and inspiring play of our cagers, piled up point after point to deepen the wound that had already been inflicted upon the arrogance and pride of the Golden Bulls. At the half the score stood at 20-10 in favor of the Aggies and all the inhabitants of Aggieville were happy with the expectations of victory.

The second half saw the Aggies make use of fine coordination and coolness to widen the gap between the score. The Aggies used a fine passing offense and a great backboard defense that had Smith befuddled and outplayed. It was during this half that the Smith Team displayed some of the most unsportsmanlike conduct that I've witnessed in a long time. A. and T., however, took this in its stride and went on to win the ball game 35-25 and to give Smith its worst pummeling in years. Cunningham was high scorer with 18 points, and to "Turk" Wright, Edward Lacey, "Dick" Praylor Arledge, "Hap" Hapgood and Johnny Elebe and Cunningham, the student body says, "Thanks fellows and keep it up."

Sidelights of the Game

Josh Brewer escorting a Bennett Chick into the gym, was it "the one" or was it because "Red" was in the infirmary? "Reg" Reeves' face was red when Gwen walked by him, well they say an old love never dies. The singing of the Alma Mater brought all the loyal Aggies to their feet in fine school spirit. Johnny Elebe, as predicted, proved himself a hustling ball player and was instrumental in our victory. The Bennett Chick rooting for Smith should show you Aggie men who traverse the tracks where you stand, but definitely. All that was needed to make a truly gala evening would have been a number by Billy Tolles and his musical cohorts. Bette Simmons had to tell a Bull to take off his hat, but I guess we all know Bulls aren't used to gyms. "All's well that ends well."

My First Week at A. & T.

When I first entered A. and T. in nineteen forty-four, Everything was in the swing, they welcomed me adore.

One night while I was sleeping, reviewing their appreciation, I heard a voice roaring, "Get up, Boy And get your initiation."

I turned the key, but the door didn't lock, So my opponents entered. I glimpsed a pair of clippers, and you may guess the end.

SPORTING SCOOP

by Edward Lacy, '46

Well the basketball season has come around again and I am sure you fans are wondering what this hardwood session has in store for you. Some of you appear optimistic, although not too much so over prospects for the forthcoming hardwood session in the C. I. A. A. conference, of which A. and T. is a member.

Though it is too early to state just how A. and T. will make out in this session, one thing is sure—that the Aggies will be in the thick of the fight. The Aggies finished right in the top bracket last season and they have seven lettermen returning from that fine team.

The Aggies were late in starting their basketball practice because of a lengthened football season which saw them play the Texas Steers of Tyler, Texas on New Year's Day, but they have been practicing hard and the practice sessions have found several newcomers giving the lettermen a "run for their money" at most all positions. If the Aggies lose a few games at the beginning of this season, fans don't drop them down, because every team they will play this year has been practicing since the first of December and some (Virginia Union, North Carolina State) have been practicing since September; so fans when this session opens show the Aggies that good "ole school spirit" and give them your loyal support and I know when this season is over the Aggies will be up in the money. What about it students?

The captaincy of this year's team has been placed on the brilliant shoulders of Leslie "Turk" Wright, 6-2, 190 pounds, center, from Raleigh, N. C., an excellent player and leader.

Freshmen Crush Sophomores, 13-6

Saturday, December 2 was a day of triumph for the freshman class of A. and T. College when they defeated the sophomore class in a game of football, 13-6.

The kickoff was at 1:00 p. m. before a host of football fans on the A. and T. athletic field. The first quarter was a hard battle for the freshmen to break through the sophomore wall of steel. But finally Jiggetts, the full back for the freshmen, carried the ball for a first down on the sophomore's six-yard line.

Early in the second quarter, Jiggetts carried the ball over the goal line for a touchdown, but there was a penalty on the play which turned the ball over to the sophomores on their own eleven yard line and was kicked to the thirty-five yard line. With only ten seconds remaining in the second quarter, Robinson completed a fifteen yard pass to Setzer who carried the ball over

Bluefield Tops A. & T. 35-27

On January 15, 1945 in their opening game of the 1944-45 season, the A. and T. Aggies met the Bluefield Blues and suffered their first set-back of the season by a 35-27 margin.

The game itself was an exciting one that held the interest of the spectators, particularly the hectic finale which saw the Aggies bid desperately for victory. The Aggies, behind the stellar and flashy play of Praylor Arledge, tied the score at 27 after all the game had almost been completely dominated by the aggressive Blues led by Walker who was the high scorer of the game with 14 points.

"Dick" Praylor ran hot and scored 8 points and the Aggies looked as if we were on the way to winning the ball game, but the Blue team in the final fading moments of the game tallied 9 points and commenced to freeze the ball to win the game and to give us our first taste of defeat. Praylor Arledge was the stand-out for A. and T. and personally accounted for 11 points; Cunningham was runner up with 9 points. A newcomer to the ranks of the blue and gold, Johnny Elebe, shows great promise and if he is given a chance should prove a great factor in determining our team's chances for the season.

On the whole the team that played Bluefield lacked the finesse, plays, and polish that characterized the Aggie hoopsters of the past season, but as the season gets under way the team will show improvement.

Sidelights of the Game

Billy Toles, George "Gremlin" Fisher, Phillip Ford, Robert Lee, Louis "Benny" Donaldson, and Irvin Stokes thrilled the crowd with their rendition of "Flying Home." It was a new innovation that brought a huge ovation, so let's make it often, fellows. The freshmen don't seem to realize that, we, the student

Whiskies No. 1 Subdues Whiskies No. 2, 22-14

In the preliminary game of the J. C. Smith and A. and T. encounter, the Whiskey Five (a new campus team composed of some of the finest cage men on A. and T.'s campus) thrilled the students with an exhibition game. The Whiskey Five was originally scheduled to play the Community Center, but upon the failure of the aforementioned team to appear they made two teams and put on an exhibition of basketball skill.

The first team was composed of "Cub All World" Stanley, "Red" Woods, "Jinxie Red," Theodore Neal, and Waddell Hinnant. The second team consisted of "Boston" Willis, "P-38" Haywood, Gene Woods, Bucky

AMONG THE GREEKS AND OTHERS

R. B. Harrison Players

The Richard B. Harrison Players are planning quite a few pleasant activities in the near future. Parts for the re-presentation of the well-known Sun-Up are now being distributed and from all indications this play will be one to be long remembered.

The February 2 chapel program was also very unique inasmuch as it was composed of a skit portraying what happens in a young girl's home when dignified Mom and Pop leave for the evening. The strained and classical atmosphere immediately becomes a bedlam of "boogie-woogie," jive and "camel-walk." Of course, the audience, too, is caught up in this web of swing and Mom returns only to be tricked into enjoying it just as everyone else does.

Among the participants included in this skit are: Bill Saunders, Jacqueline Lyles, Cassie Martin, Charles Wallace, Ruth Bancroft, Fannie Wilson, Benjamin Gaston, Angeline Tynes, Eva Foster, Ohrea Bagwell, Sarah Norcum and James D. Saddler.

The dramatics club holds its very entertaining and constructive meetings every Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. in the Stage Laboratory. New members equipped with the minimum registration fee of 25 cents are always welcome. We'll be looking for you.

Sphinx Club News

Hello Everyone:

Again we extend greetings to you and all the best wishes for another fruitful and successful quarter of work. May this be one of the most progressive ones attainable.

We are proud to announce the membership of our new brothers who are Bros. Calvin Weaver, Mack Hicks, Vincent Barnes and Edward Lamar. Brother Bradshaw White who departed from us last spring to be inducted into the Armed Forces has returned as an active member in our fold.

In one of our recent meetings we elected permanent officers for the year which are as follows: Brothers James Russell, president; Bradshaw White, vice-president; Mack Hicks, secretary; Edward Lamar, assistant secretary; Sherman Williamson, treasurer; and Theodore Green, reporter.

Under the efficient leadership of our dean of pledges, Big Brother Charles Wallace, we played an active role in helping the fraternity to sponsor a smoker very recently. Several male students were invited as our guests, and we spent a few hours of wholesome and enjoyable entertainment.

Until the next publication, the Sphinx Club says cherio.

The Gamma Tau chapter of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society has for its president this year Miss Bessie E. Derr of Hickory, North Carolina. Other officers are: vice president and dean of pledges, Miss Anna Henderson; secretary, Miss Mary

REGISTER STAFF 1944-1945

Reading left to right first row—Edna E. Moore, Clinton; Ohrea L. Bagwell, Editor-in Chief, Charlotte; Fannie E. Simons, Wadesboro; second row—Clarine Reid, Hertford; Gladys Ruffin, Windsor; Kertrina O. Grandy, Windsor; Connie Bass, Inman, S. C.; Nelda Scott, Florence, S. C.; Annie E. Young, Spartanburg, S. C. Third row—Edythe Lomax, Iron Station; Wilhelmina McDonald, Wilmington; Herman Stanback, Ruffin; Alma M. McIntyre, Goldsboro; James Saddler, Asheville; Josie M. Edwards, Lackawanna, N. Y.; Edward Lacy, Oklahoma City, Okla. Not shown, Eremnise Smith, New York, N. Y.

Louise Plummer, and treasurer, Mr. James Hill.

Other members include Lucinda Dean, Louise Nixon, Gwendolyn Rogers, Wendell Jones, Robert Holt, Geraldine Powell and Josie Edwards.

Misses Bessie Derr and Josie Edwards have been chosen to attend the Alpha Kappa Mu annual conference which is being held at Hampton, Virginia on February 8 and 9. They are to give a brief report of this conference in a February chapel program. At this time the minimum requirements for admission into this organization are also to be explained.

The honor roll students are all invited to the tea in Holland Hall the Sunday following the program in order to become thoroughly acquainted with all campus members of Gamma Tau in an informal manner.

We are expecting to find quite a number of students eligible for admission in the spring—so keep that scholastic rating high and join us then.

Deltas Entertain

The members of Alpha Mu Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority celebrated Founders Day on Saturday night, January 13, by entertaining their little sisters with a party in the social room of Anne Holland Hall.

Games, such as pokeno, pinochle were played. Dancing to the latest swing records was also another feature of the evening. Refreshments were served during the latter half of the entertainment.

We are looking forward to our annual formal tea given for freshmen girls and transfer students.

Beta Epsilon

Beta Epsilon Chapter, Alpha Kappa Mu Fraternity, Inc., under the able leadership of William Cohen are formulating plans for a very active year.

On December 28, Brother Cohen attended the Alpha's general convention held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, where Brothers from all over the country gathered.

On the first Tuesday in January the following Brothers took their respective positions: President, William Cohen; Vice President, Ernest Olds; Secretary, Wilson York; Assistant Secretary, Herman Standback; Dean of Pledges, Charles Wallace; Treasurer, George Haith, and Yours Truly, reporter.

We regret very much the loss of our dear Brother Wendell Jones, who departed for the army the first of the month, but we are sure that he will keep the Alpha light burning. We are also glad to welcome Brother Harold Hooper who is back from the big city.

Our basketball coach, "Papa" Haith, has promised us a championship team. We boast of such players as "Flash" Weaver, "Kid" Skelton, "Speed" Olds, "Smooth" Barnes and Capt. Cohen. Harold Hooper and Ike Olds are the trainers.

We wish all of the new students a successful college career, and until the next issue, I'll be seeing you.

Lonely Hearts Club

The Lonely Hearts Club held its first meeting January 10, 1945. In this meeting we had three lonely heart-brothers. The meeting began by singing the lonely heart's sweetheart song. The prayer was led by heartbroken C. P. Watson. Heart-broken A. Merriweather was presiding president, until officers were elected as follows: Cornelius Wood, president; Arthur Merriweather, vice president; C. P. Watson, treasurer; John J. Anthony.

Then the meeting proceeded: Brother heartbroken A. Merriweather stood crying and asked him how could he win Lucille back from Brother (Charles Boyer) Wallace. Brother Heart-broken Woods bowed on his knees and asked if an Omega could out talk a Kappa. (Juanita). Brother C. P. Watson had heard that Alice Perry made plenty dates in Alabama and he fainted. The boys bowed on their knees crying and thanking Prof. Bell. Then the meeting was adjourned. Brother Woods prayed the closing prayer.

By the way, such students as Frank Sumners, R. R. Reeves, E. Haywood and a few more students are expected to join very soon.

Electrical Engineers Club News

Robert Brown, the president for the 1944-45, has been inducted into the Navy. He is now undergoing his basic training at Great Lakes Training Station. James Bright, the first vice president is his successor.

F/o William (Bill) Hill of the 99th Squadron, former student, and member of the E. E. club, has been wounded in action, and was awarded the Purple Heart.

Hargett Fredrick, Kenneth Lee, Howard Daniel, Claude Daniel, former members of the E. E. club, have been inducted into the services.

The Lampodas Club

The members of the Lampodas Club of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity wish to express their gratefulness for the splendid cooperation of our Big Brothers and their timely and appreciative suggestion in helping us sponsor our smoker on Saturday night, January 13, 1945. The smoker was a big success.

The Lampodas Club has many things for which to be thankful, including the enormous numerical growth of its club. It also had the pleasant surprise of having as our guest, Warrant Officer Linwood McDaniel, who is now not only a member of the Lampodas Club, but a member of the armed forces as well.

The members of this club extend their cordial invitation to the young men of this campus who are contemplating the development of their personal qualities as well as academic attainment to exogitate upon the wonderful and untold possibilities that this club can impart to the refinement and adjustment, both in college and in our professional career. It is society that judges us in both our academic work and society that makes us. It is our aim to reach that goal.

I am very happy to be back in school after being away for a quarter and I would like to congratulate my newly made Big Brothers personally who have reached that high and noble goal which I am striving to reach.

Until next time, we will say "So Long."

Junior Class News

On Wednesday, January 17, the Junior Class met in Dudley Auditorium to discuss business of vital importance. Our President, Mr. Herman Standback, presided.

The Junior Class is making plans for a Quiz Program to be given during Negro History Week. So sharpen your wits, not with an Eversharp, but with knowledge about outstanding achievements made by Negroes.

We are also looking forward to great things this quarter, so listen to hear from us.

Until the next time,

Your Reporter,
LOUISE NIXON

Ivy Leaf News

Again the Ivies in pink and green are returning to greet you.

Since our last appearance, we have happily welcomed into our fold the following new Ivies: Julia Adams, Edna Moore, Fannie Simons, Minnie Sutton, Elnora Fawcett, Evelyn Harriston, Myrtle Oliver, Naomi Ramseur, and Altheria Smith.

The Ivy Leaves have organized for the new year with the following officers: President, Jacqueline Lyles; Vice President, Althea Watkins; Secretary, Marguerite Murrill; Assistant Secretary, Sara Norcum; Treasurer, Grace Jennings; Reporter, Alma L. McIntyre.

We are planning many exciting things in the near future, so stay on the look-out.

Until then . . . Cheerio!

Ex-Service Man Speaks

Information gathered by
NELDA SCOTT, '45

My name is Sherman U. Williamson. My home is Greensboro, North Carolina. I served in the Navy Band for two years at the following places: Pre-Flight School at U. N. C. at Chapel Hill; U. S. N. Receiving Barracks, Shoemaker, Calif.; Bainbridge, Md., Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

After being away from dear ole A. and T. for so long, I'm even more than happy to be back again.

My most interesting experience happened in a U. S. Naval Hospital at Oahu, Hawaii. I was put in a ward that kept psycho-neurosis patients. All of us were locked in small rooms until our conditions improved. When I was released from my room, I would go around from room to room and peek through the port holes of the other rooms. I saw Marines and Sailors who were suffering not from physical wounds inflicted by the Japs but from the pressure put on their minds and never by the horrible experiences met at Tarawa, Guadalcanal and Saipan. Some of these veterans of the Pacific war would stare into space for hours. One thought he was Superman. Another could not bear to see cloth. A young sailor talked to his mother as if she were present. It was a very interesting experience to live with these very psycho-neurotic patients and watch their actions.

My hobbies are painting pictures, and composing music and poetry.

Alexander Montgomery

My name is Alexander Montgomery. I was born on June 13, 1923, at Lancaster, South Carolina. However, a greater part of my life was spent in North Carolina.

I entered the service in July 1942, and was discharged November, 1943. I received an honorable disability discharge.

I will say of my army life, a part of my life well spent. There is no regret on my part of having served in the armed forces. I feel that I shall never again witness a life so full of experience, excitement and emotion.

I was stationed for a short while at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Later I was sent to Fort Riley, Kans. This is a division of the horse and Mechanized Cavalry. This trip alone would compensate for any difficulties that may have been imposed upon me while I was in the Service. On our way to Kansas, we made many stops for observation. We were in Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Tennessee and Nebraska while. It is so educational to travel and to see how other people live, to learn their habits and to see what is going on in other parts of the world.

I cannot think of any part of my life in the army as being the most interesting part, for each part was crammed so full of excitement. However, I am glad that I did find out that there are some places in the world where a Negro can go and receive his due respect. All during my stay in the army, I was treated with the utmost skepticism and respect, so were all of the boys. We knew no color. It made all of us feel that at least we were a part of the Nation, and that is a great feeling.

I could write a book about my experiences, and I don't know of a single incident that I would care to express unless I did write a book. However, I shall make this statement about my whole experience. "There is no regret on my part."

Fletcher N. Johnson

I am Fletcher N. Johnson of Norfolk, Virginia. I was in the Army for seventeen months, with the 356th Engineers Regiment until the time of my discharge on October 30, 1943.

The states in which I was stationed were: Louisiana, Mississippi, California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas.

My hobbies are baseball, football, and skiing.

Aggies Spreading College Trophies

Aggies in the various theaters of war are spreading trophies of the college far beyond the borders of Dare and Cherokee, as an examination of records coming to the institution will indicate.

News has been received that T/Sgt. Earl "Dutch" Clarke, class of '42, is recuperating from an injury sustained while participating in the invasion of the Philippines. "Dutch" will be remembered as one of the all-time great athletes by those of his day who saw him in action on the basketball court, in the ring, on the gridiron and on the cinder path. Incidentally, before he was put out of action by Japanese bombs, he was successful in winning his Post boxing championship in the light-heavy-weight class, the Army Post and Service, the Central Pacific Area, and the All-Service crowns.

Marjorie Johnson, class of '42, is rendering splendid service with the American Red Cross in Calcutta, India. She is serving with Dr. Rodney Higgins, former professor of economics at the College.

One of the first things Lt. John Lovelle Withers, class of '36, did when he reached France was to visit some of the famous cathedrals he had read about in history. He's still expecting to return to the University of Chicago for his doctorate.

Sgt. Victor H. Tynes, class of '39, is brushing up on his languages somewhere in France or Italy. He says that there are so many A. and T. graduates and former students over there that they often hold alumni meetings in foxholes. Emmett George, his friends Cooper and Hölley, Earl Gordon and hosts of others attend them regularly. Gordon reports that between dips in the Mediterranean Sea he usually writes or revises a chapter on that book which he is writing.

Practically every army camp in the country has at least one Aggie among its personnel, as have navy bases and marine training centers. In rank and service they are still carrying on according to the finest traditions of the College and the service.

IN NEW GUINEA

JEAN M. BRIGHT, '39

Jean M. Bright, daughter of Mrs. Lollie Bright, 1116 Perkins Street, Greensboro, N. C., has arrived in New Guinea for further assignment in the Southwest Pacific as an American Red Cross staff assistant. Until her Red Cross appointment, she was director of social activities, Windsor Community Center, Greensboro, N. C. Miss Bright is one of 200 Negroes now serving overseas with the Red Cross. She is a graduate of Agricultural and Technical College, Greensboro, B. S. 1939, and attended Columbia University, Atlanta University, and Howard University.

Tidewater Cavaliers

The Tidewater Cavaliers are looking forward to a gala new year on A. and T.'s campus and shall strive to make itself felt through its accomplishments.

During the Xmas holidays Isaac Olds, president, conferred with representatives of Tidewater Clubs from Virginia State, West Virginia State, Virginia Union and Hampton Institute and plans were laid for a gala social early in the summer. The Tidewater Club of Virginia Union held its annual dance during the festive holiday period, and from all reports, colloquially, "It jumped like mad."

We were all glad to see a member from last year on the campus in the uniform of the United States Navy; he is Warrant Officer Linwood McDaniel, who had just completed Officer's Radio School and was enroute to New Orleans, Louisiana to board ship for ports unknown.

The Tidewater Cavaliers presented their annual chapel program February 9, which held a treat for all who attended.

Till the next time, I'm dropping anchor.

G. I.

Sitting on my G. I. bed,
My G. I. hat upon my head;
G. I. shoes and G. I. tie
G. I. money and nothing to buy.

G. I. socks and G. I. shoes
Everything jumping with the G. I. blues.

G. I. money must be spent,
But it goes back to the government.

G. I. busses take me home,
But the Jodies got my girl and gone,
Played a tune, Hip, Hip Hurray!
G. I. is living in the U. S. A.
(What has me puzzled is that no one knows what G. I. means, or do you?)

Marion J. Hilliard University of Penn School of Art

Mr. Marion J. Hilliard, of the class of '43, is the only Negro student enrolled in the School of Fine Arts at the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Maceo Patterson of 1010 Dar Avenue, Farrell, Pa., is the only Negro practicing physician in Farrell. He caters to both races. Dr. Patterson completed his pre-medical course at A. and T. and finished his work at Howard University.

Mrs. Minnie J. Mears, Box 406, Farrell, Pa., is now stationed in Phoenix, Arizona as personnel director with the Urban League. Mrs. Mears, nee Miss Minnie Johnson, was a member of the first graduating class of women. She had a major in the field of social science.

Wants Mail

Dear Dean and Schoolmates,

I must confess that watching the zig-zag of present events has forced me into somewhat of a pensive mood. I find that my heart and mind are caught on the breezes of the winds of memory and wafted across miles unknown to a rendezvous with you. I wonder if you mind my coming in just long enough to drop a little bouquet of "forget-me-nots."

Life here finds us in a melting pot of various activities where the experience is unbelievable. However, there is every hope that we shall emerge on V-Day none the worse from our experiences except for the loss of time.

I have explored (to a small degree) the Eternal City (Rome) and have also seen it from the air. I hope to further explore and inspect at first hand more of her historical treasures.

Pleading for lots of mail and at least a wee place on the outskirts of your memory, I am,

Andrew A. Best, 2nd Lt. Inf.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority

Well, friends, here we are again, just as full of vim and vigor as ever.

We were a small group, but no more, because we have increased from fourteen to thirty. We are pleased to have the following join us: Geneva Crawford, Eremnie Smith, Ruby Davis, Ann Collier, Carrie Mayo, Nettie McGimpsey, Ella Gamble, Bernice Mack, Cora Allen, Virginia Raleigh, Wilhelmenia McDonald, Clarice Peters, Evelyn Kemp, Delores Boone, Minnie Wilson, Betty B. Bell.

The members of the Alpha Phi Chapter are looking forward with much anticipation to the appearance of their Soror, Miss Marian Anderson, in a concert to be held in Hirsison Auditorium on March. We are sure that all music lovers will be present to witness the accomplishments of this great Negro singer. So long until next month.

Meet The Boys Over There

These letters are from A. and T. boys who are now serving overseas in various branches of the armed forces. They are eager to receive news of their Alma Mater, why not write to them.

Lt. Gerarde Gray, Co. "A" 1323 Engrs., A. P. O. 562, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.— "As an alumni of A. and T. College, serving in the armed forces somewhere in France, I am interested in the present events of my Alma Mater. Since I have been in the service, it has been my pleasure to contact several former Aggies, both at home and abroad. There are always stories of former school days to recall when the meetings occur. I trust that the 'Register' is continuing the good work it has so long done in the past."

S/Sgt. William Edwards, 669 Q. M. Trk. Co. A. P. O. 350, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.— "This leaves me doing fine and thinking of all of you back at school. I would like to receive the 'Register' every month. I have been receiving quite a bit of information about the school, such as games, etc. It was all very encouraging."

Pfc. Leo. S. Kimbrough, Co. "D" 317th Med. Bn., A. P. O. 92, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.— "After serving for two years in the armed service, I have been unable to receive a copy of the 'Register'. I would like for my name to be placed on the mailing list."

Sgt. Theodore E. Wells, Company "Z" E. T. O., 4353 Q. M. Bakery Co., Mobile Sp. A. P. O. 562 c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.— "The following was taken from 'The Stars and Stripes,' a magazine of the Armed forces overseas: "Sgt. Theodore E. Wells, our Mail orderly and Special Service N. C. O., is commonly known around the company area as the 'Body.' He tips the scales at a light 219½ lbs. Mrs. Elizabeth T. Wells of 834 Madison St., Wilmington, Del. wouldn't know her little boy now. The Sgt. is not classed as a chow hound, but at chow time a familiar expression is 'Where's the Body.' Sgt. Wells graduated from the Agricultural and Technical College in the class of '43 and received the B. S. degree in Fine Arts. On the campus the 'Body' was known as 'Jelly'; some of the seniors there should remember him. He is a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

"In his position as Special Service N. C. O. for the Company, Sgt. Wells has benefited the organization in more ways than one. He has secured movies, books and special service bands for the entertainment of the men. This has helped a great deal in keeping the excellent morale of the men as a whole."

Pfc. Benjamin W. Harris, 1914 Ord. Co. A. P. O. 86 c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.— "Christmas here was rather nice, although it could have been much worse, as well as much better. We had a turkey dinner on Christmas day. This was my first Christmas in a climate like this. One might pass a home and see a Christmas tree in the window and at the same time see flowers in bloom outside."

Students Urged To Enter Contest

Write an Essay about Race Relations—Win a prize: first prize, $25; second, $15; third, $10.

This contest is open to all college students in the Greensboro Area.

Subject: Any phase of interracial cooperation, racial relationships, or interracial tension in the present war period.

Length: The essays will be limited to approximately 3500 words.

General Directions: All papers should be typewritten, using double space, on 8½x11 paper.

Neither the name of the student nor his college should be mentioned on the manuscript, but both should be enclosed with the manuscript.

This contest is sponsored by and the prizes will be awarded by the Guilford County Interracial Committee.

Essays must be postmarked not later than April 15, 1945, and be mailed to A. D. Beittel, Guilford College, North Carolina.

It is hoped that the awards may be made before the end of this college year.

Consult the following members of the Faculty for details: Miss Margaret Simmons, Mrs. A. R. Brooks, Mr. B. N. Roberts, Mr. R. E. Martin.

Collegiate 4-H Club Chapter Organized

Students of A. and T. College with previous experiences as 4-H club members met Tuesday Night, November 21, for the purpose of organizing a Collegiate Chapter of the 4-H Club. Mr. R. E. Jones, Negro State Agent and 4-H Club specialist, was present and supervised the organization of the group.

Officers elected were: Gladys Ruffin, '45, of Windsor, president; Josephine Simmons, '47, Cleveland, vice president; Hetta Hood, '45, Gastonia, secretary; Lola Jones, '47, Murfreesboro, assistant secretary; William R. Moore, '46, treasurer, and Idell Jones, '48, Wilson, historian, reporter.

Some of the objectives of the organization include development of leadership training and organization abilities, and to make some definite contribution toward the improvement of campus life.

With the large number of former 4-H Club members enrolled here at the college, it is expected that the organization will accomplish more this year than at any time previously.

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity

Another year is upon us, and we are striving to carry out some constructive projects for the remainder of this year.

Since the last publication of "The Register," a district conference was held at Columbia, S. C., and Mu Psi Chapter was represented by our Basileus, Brother Whitted, and the KRS, Brother Gilliam. They brought back with them the ideas and highlights of the conference as they were discussed by hundreds

Novel Club Formed To Help Boys

The Bu-Yum Phi Bu-Yum Club was formed to help every boy that is interested in raising his scholarship and deportment standards around the campus and out in the city. This club was started on this campus by two energetic young men, namely: Bennie Henry Walls and Horace Dean, both former students of Atkins High School at Winston-Salem, N. C. The latter of the two is now in the Navy.

The club has a very peculiar name but it has a meaning. The first Bu-Yum means "I'll try to be perfect," and the second Bu-Yum means "I'll always do my best."

The young men should possess the following qualities to be eligible to become members of the club:

1. Must have at least an average of "C" (1.0).
2. Must have the approval of the club officials.
3. Must participate in one extra Curricula activity.

The officers of the club are: President, Ernest Williams; Vice President, Bennie H. Walls; Secretary, Gordon Smith; Assistant Secretary, Orlin Boone; Treasurer, John Patterson; Assistant Treasurer, Bennie H. Walls; Social Reporter, Howard Lowe; News Reporter, John Williams.

Members of the Bu-Yum Phi Bu-Yum Club are:

Horace Dean, who has gone to the Navy; Bennie H. Walls, '48; Lonnie Byarm, '46; Gordon Smith, '48; John C. Williams, '48; John Patterson, '48; Orlin Boone, '48; Howard Lowe, '48; Henry Eccels, '48; Ernest Williams, '48; Standley Gordon, '47.

Under consideration: Frank Stewart, '48; David Deaver, '48.

Dean Gamble will act as sponsor for the Club.

JOHN C. WILLIAMS

of Omega men of this district. The meeting was centered around the Cardinal Principles and living by these principles; we should think more of them as meaning service in behalf of the elevation of the fraternity, of the Negro race, and of society in general.

We feel that we benefited greatly by this conference, and Mu Psi is going to strive to follow closely the report presented to us by our representing Brothers. Until the next issue.

Art Students Capture 2 Prizes

The Register takes pride in announcing that in the recent Art Contest which was conducted by radio Station WBIG, that the second and third prizes were won by A. and T. students. Contestants were requested to submit original drawings or paintings suggested by the program entitled, "Neath the Southern Moon." The contestants were to put into the drawings the thoughts which the soothing music brought to their minds.

The first prize was a $50.00 war bond, second prize was a $25.00 war bond, and third prize was $10.00 in war stamps. According to a statement of the judges there were so many entries and the drawings were so good that they decided to give six prizes instead of three.

The winning students were Hugh Bullock, Junior, and an art major, and Sherman Williamson, Junior, and art major, who won second and third prizes respectively.

Sunday School

The members of Sunday School of the Agricultural and Technical College came back with new enthusiasm for the year 1945. We are glad to welcome the new students to come and join in our discussions and wish many more of the old students would attend. One of our plans for the future is the Sunday school annual picnic. In order to be eligible to attend it, you must attend Sunday school regularly.

Let's cooperate and make it a success.

Talent Show . . . "Miss Co-Ed" Report

The YMCA and the YWCA are very anxious for the student body to know how much their support in connection with the talent show and the "Miss Co-Ed" contest was appreciated. As a result of the two projects, the "Y" Hut Fund has grown to a total of over $600.00. The talent show had gross receipts of $137.25 with expenditures of $46.00, clearing $91.25. The "Miss Co-Ed" contest had gross receipts of $227.85 with expenditures of $59.28, clearing $168.57. The net amount credited to the Fund from the two projects was $259.82.

Though these figures are very encouraging indeed, we still have a long way to go if we are to erect a creditable memorial to the Aggies in service.

Again, thank you.

Battle of Swing Coming Event

A musical treat is in store for the inhabitants of Aggieville as there will be a gala battle of swing between the Olds Bros. Trio and "Billy" Tolles and his "Combo." This jam session shall be reminiscent of the Y. M. C. A. talent night presented in the fall quarter of 1943 when the two aforementioned organizations played "One o'Clock Jump" to the delight of those present. "Billy" Tolles is featured saxophonist with Max Westerband and his record speaks for itself. Ernest and Isaac Olds are best known for the music they provide in the various dormitories in which they reside, and also on the various programs they've appeared on in chapel. Louis Donaldson, who will be the third man on the Olds Brothers Trio, is the clarinet king of the campus and also plays a lot of alto saxophone. "Billy" hasn't announced his other two cohorts, but they'll probably be Robert Lee, George Fisher, both of Max Westerband's orchestra. Nevertheless, whoever they may be, keep on the lookout for this gala occasion for the "joint shall be jumping" when "Billy" Tolles and his "Combo" clash with the Olds Bros. Trio in a musical slug fest to determine who are the "jump kings" of the campus. The date and location will be announced, and the students will be the judges and everyone is invited with no admission charge, so come one, come all.

Chapel Programs

The faculty and students welcomed to the campus the Reverend G. Murray Branch, on January 9th and 10th. Rev. Branch is Secretary to the Southern Region of the National Council of Student Christian Association. He has been appointed for special work with students under the war-time emergency services of the student division of the Y. M. C. A.

In the plans for his visit to our campus was a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., on Tuesday night January 9. The next morning he addressed the student body at the regular weekly worship service.

Other Chapel programs for the month of January included the following: Miss Charlotte Moton, Federal Security Agency representative, who spoke to the student body on January 12.

On January 15, President Bluford addressed the students and presented those students who had achieved the "A" honor roll.

On January 22, Mr. E. Martin gave a lecture "How to Get Along in College."

The following Sunday the Vesper Services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Jones, Pastor of Providence Baptist Church.

On Monday, January 29, the Religious Department sponsored a program to dedicate the new hymn books which have been issued for use during chapel and vesper services. Mr. John Dove, student, delivered the address.

"Shut that door! Were you brought up in a barn?"

The man addressed complied gently, but the speaker, looking at him a few moments later, saw tears in his eyes. Going over to him, he apologized and said, "Don't take it to heart so much just because I asked you if you were reared in a barn."

"That's just it," sobbed the other man, "I was raised in a barn, and it makes me homesick everytime I hear a donkey bray."

"Billy" Tolles and "Little Stardust" Foremost Among Musicians

First and foremost among the musicians on the campus of this institution of higher learning is William R. Tolles, better known to us as "Billy" the star tenor saxophonist with Max Westerband's orchestra. Billy had had a long career in the realm of music and prior to his coming to A. and T. was the leader of his own band in Seattle, Washington. This band won the acclaim and plaudits of the lovers of dance music out on the West Coast, but due to the war and the Selective Service the band was forced to disband. "Billy's" musical talent came into the lime light promptly upon his arrival here, and his frantic riffs jollification night sent the crowd into a frenzy. It was not long before Max Westerband recognized the capabilities of this superb musician and "Billy" embarked upon his career as featured soloist with the aforementioned musical organization. However, "Billy" Tolles has not only played with local bands, but this past summer played with Billy Eckstein and last Christmas waxed a record with the mighty Lionel Hampton. "Billy's" ambition is to play with Illinois Jacquet of "Flying Home" fame or Don Byas of Count Basie's rhythm section. My one regret is that "Billy" isn't heard more often on our campus, but until another man comes along, "Billy" shall remain undisputed king of the tenor saxophone.

George "Little Stardust" Fisher, the shortest man on the campus, who can blow a groovy alto saxophone is my next musician of discussion. "Little Stardust" hails from Norfolk, Virginia and has had a wide and varied experience in the musical

ROTC Roundup

On Thursday, January 18, 1945 the R. O. T. C. went on its quarterly hike, and besides those who had sore feet a good time was had by all.

We left the campus at 9:45 a. m., with Reginald Reeves as Company Commander and William Smith and Charles Wallace as platoon leaders. Enroute the streets of Greensboro reverberated with the sound of our marching feet till we entered the rural districts. At approximately 12:15 p. m. we arrived at our pre-arranged destination and pitched tents and consumed some fine edibles which was the high point of the day. After a brief respite, we began our long trek back to A. and T. where a rest and some sleep were our immediate objects.

Enroute home we had many stragglers who under the weight of their full packs and the weary march couldn't maintain the pace. Among these were "Shor-y" Mitchell and numerous others. However, upon our reaching the campus we called upon our last bit of energy to give the freshmen class an example of how the sophomore class can perform.

Till next quarter, we the sophomore jodies shall "stay on the bal."

field. Strange as it may seem "Fish" started out on his musical career by playing the violin at teas and concerts, but upon his entrance into high school became engrossed in the alto saxophone which is the instrument with which he is so proficient now. "Little Stardust" began his musical career at A. and T. by appearing on the Alpha Talent Night and really came to the front when he played "Stardust" for six minutes on the Tidewater Cavalier program presented in chapel last winter quarter. "Fish" commenced playing with Max Westerband as an auxiliary alto man, but now he is first alto and the leader of Max's reed section. During the summer and when Fisher is home, he plays with Clint Turner and his Czars of Rhythm which is supposed to be the "jumpiest band in Tidewater." Fisher's ambition, strange as it may seem, is not to play but to arrange music for a big-time name band. Till he realizes his ambition, however, the students of A. and T. shall eagerly look forward to the "groovy" music of this versatile musician.

The Y. M. C. A.

With the advent of the new year many students, new and old, have increased our student population. The "Y" bids them a hearty welcome.

The "Y" talent night program, which was held on January 27, under the direction of Mr. Roberts and Miss Simmons, our able faculty advisors, exceeded all expectations both in patrons and contestants. Arthur Merriweather, the chairman, and James Saddler, the "Y. M." president, should be congratulated on their efforts to make this night, not only successful, but one that will be remembered in the annals of A. and T.'s history.

As the beautiful and talented young ladies on our campus vie for the honor of Miss Co-ed, your reported wishes Miss Ann Goldsmith and the other contestants all the success that is possible in their campaign.

Some of our young men, after joining the "Y," take no active part in the "Y." The "Y" is just as much yours as it is mine. Every member should take an active part. In the forthcoming tournaments and on our basketball team, let us have a team that has the best the "Y" has to offer. (For further tournament details see James Saddler, Thomas Penn or your reporter).

The students who have enjoyed their stay at A. and T. and have somehow benefited from this austere dwelling of learning, let us leave something beneficial to the future students—a "Y" hut. This project is not only a dedication to the honored dead of A. and T., but your contribution to the students of the future.

Remember your "Y" hut pledge. Is it asking too much? Lest you forget—Lt. Sam Bruce and others gave their lives. What is your contribution?

Chatterbox

-Juanita, did you hog when Cornelius was late in arriving after the Xmas holidays, maybe?

-Billy Tolles you've found a new flame now. "Why don't YOU Do Right?"

-Louis Donaldson and Mae Bradshaw have found each other again. Anna Jacobs that triangle has to be broken for two is a couple and three is a crowd.

-"Boston" Willis, maybe you are sad now that Aline has gone home.

-Ruth McDaniel what goes on between you and F. C.?

-Joe Rainey continued to be one of the smoothest men on the campus—one of the smoothest freshman boys, isn't he Nettie?

-Louise Plummer that freshman with the blow moss looks at you with a gleam in his eye. Could it be love?

-Betty Barbara Bell, aren't you sad now that F. A. has gone to Great Lakes, or will it be that familiar song, "Ain't no need of writing home, cause jody has your gal and gone."

-George Fisher, is Ann Jacobs using some roots on you? It seems as if you are attracted to her, but why?

-Gertrude Marsh, that Kappa man is OK, but you all are playing it mighty cool.

-W. Y., what happened between you and that freshman chick? Maybe you were giving her a little note; she needed it.

-R. alias "Seven-Up," why did you mess up like that with E.?

-"Muttie," maybe "At Last" would describe you and "Turk."

-John Chambers, you have straightened up and are flying right. Well "Tojo" stay on the ball.

-William Bell don't you know you can't take Weaver out; Josephine is his alone.

-L. B. is trying to dress like a Hawaiian girl? Please tell her not to use too much make up for it is not good for her.

-The B'ham girls don't have any way to fix their hair and they are loosing out with the boys.

-L. C. is in love with some one's lonesome soldier? I wonder is he married?

-R. A. has found a boy friend after waiting for such a long time.

-The B'ham boys trying to stay close to one another. They must be afraid. If they aren't they had better be.

-E. H. is in love with a Pvt. from O. R. D. He is about 10 ft. high, his head is large as a hog head, and he wears about a size 12 shoe. What about her sister, D. H., can't she find anyone?

-E. H. is trying to learn to sing. I hope that she will be successful.

-L. S. didn't see Santa Claus? Well, she has gone back to Spain without leaving her a new coat with fur.

-D. Y. is falling hard for A. K.

-M. H. has found herself a boy friend.

-Young "Prexy" is now playing the call of the love wolf. Don't take such things so hard "Prexy," and remember, if at first you don't succeed, try, try again. Of course, you will learn a lesson. Why don't you get some person and be "True to Them." I really thing that you would get along better.

-Dear F. S., who is it E. B. at B. C. or A. B. at A. and T. Straighten up, my son, don't try to jive too many at one time for you will find yourself losing them all.

-N. S. didn't waste much time because after the G. I. left, Dear Jody was right there.

-E. B. and C. L. are playing lone rangers. You don't see double anymore.

-Wonder why "Lena" is so quiet this quarter.

-L. C., have you forgotten "Jelly." He would love to hear from you.

-Say, she's a Tidewater lady. In other words, a Virginia beauty.

-Hope you have better luck next time B. S., from Baltimore. As you at least have three more years in Aggie Land. So take it easy with W. Y.

-They had a blackout over at Bennett, November 18, 1944, and R. R. R., Esq., was in the dark.

-Well, G. F. alias "Gremlin" has finally found him a companion at last.

-C. Brabble, is that Birmingham chick making a ham out of you? I wonder.

-C. L. and E. B. are really cooking with gas.

-Shakespeare is "on the ball" since Sig. blew back in town.

-V. B., who is it? B. C. or B. J.?

-C. Woods is that flame you tried to toss aside still burning in the form of B. Simmons?

-"Goo" certainly has Salters wrapped up. Could it be roots or love?

-Lola, remember it was Sgt. Stigger last year, or have you forgotten?

-"Piggie" and "All World" are in another world.

-What is J. W. H. doing now that M. A. M. is not available?

-Julia, J. has finally gotten "on the ball" with N. Childs "at Last."

-Betty B. and F. A. don't be foolish: "Straighten up and Fly Right."

-N. R. and P. F., that Birmingham Trombonist - What's cooking, kids?

-Herman W., we gave you two weeks but did last longer than that, didn't you?

-A. Merriweather and Lucille or as Lil Green would say, "Let's Be Friends."

-"Jinxie Red" is still note and glory but he's loud and cool.

-The clarinet king of the campus, L. D.—What kind of music do you play for V. B.?

-J. R., that frantic freshman, and N. M., sophomore, have started something.

Seen On The Campus

by NELDA SCOTT, '45

Nearly everyone has noticed that our campus is often visited by "ole" A. and T. students. Lately, the following young men who are now serving in the Armed Forces have been seen on the campus: Carl Manuel (Navy), Aris Covington (Army), Samuel Elliot (Navy), C. Russell Wyrick (Army), Milton Barnes (Army), John Millett (Army), Andrew Best (Army), Jon Massey (Army), Hubert D o u b (Army), Lonnie Burton (Army), James Miller (Marines), Linwood McDaniel (Navy), Hinton Jones (Army), and Kenneth Lee (Navy).

Marian Anderson Coming March 29

she sang to 75,000 listeners under the sky and uncounted thousands more on a national broadcast.
The sold-out houses across the country which have become a matter of course on Miss Anderson's tours were topped this year by her July appearance at the Hollywood Bowl, attendance at which broke a Bowl record which had stood for ten years, an appropriate opening gun for the inauguration of Miss Anderson's tenth American tour.
The voice which Maestro Arturo Toscanini said was "heard once in a hundred years" will be heard under the auspices of the Lyceum Committee.

Sensational Dancer Appears In Recital

the Radcliffe College Dance Group in appearances at Harvard University and other New England Colleges.
Subsequent study in dance at New York University, at Bennington Summer School of the Arts, and with Ethel Butler, has developed her talent and has won for her the acclaim of competent critics wherever she has appeared.
"This young talented artist has brought great depth and feeling to the stage through dance. Her dances of race protest are electrifying; her spirituals are extremely moving; her blues are magnificent; her jazz numbers are a joy to see."
Included on the program were the following numbers: Freedom Road, A Sunday Stroll, Little Ace of Spades, Jim Crow, Organ Grinders Swing, Arthur Murray's Dance Pupil, Brazilian Embolada, and City Called Heaven.

Miss Ray is a graduate of Palmer Memorial Institute at Sedalia, N. C. She dedicated her last number to Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, President of that Institution.

Charlotte, N. C., sponsored by the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority; Dorothy Wright of Churchland, Va., sponsored by the Freshman Class; Annie M. Foxworth of Marion, S. C., and New Rochelle, N. Y. (Not sponsored); Geraldine Montford, of Burgaw, N. C. (Not sponsored).
Miss Bluford received the highest number of votes numbering 460. Miss Foxworth followed closely with a total of 400 votes. She is to be particularly commended for the excellent showing which she made without being sponsored by any organization. These two young ladies were followed by Miss Williams who received 320 votes and Miss Holt who received 312 votes. On Saturday night following the Talent Night Program the contestants appeared on the stage in beautiful evening gowns and all witnessed the crowning of "Miss Co-Ed." The Y. W. C. A. sincerely appreciates the cooperation of the contestants, and the entire student body, and faculty.

for a touchdown for the freshmen. The half ended, Freshmen 6, Sophomores 0.

The third quarter showed new offenses for the sophomores as the freshmen fumbled and the sophomores received the ball on the freshmen eighteen yard line. Then the freshmen were penalized for fifteen yards thus placing the ball on their own three. The freshmen held the sophomores for no gain in a third down, after which Fultch carried the ball over the goal line for the sophomores touchdown. The third quarter ended, Freshmen 6, Sophomores 6.

The freshmen team began the fourth quarter with a wall of brick to the sophomores and put up a terrific battle. The freshmen team was stopped on their own 16 yd. line, the sophomores fumbled and the freshmen regained. With only two minutes in the fourth quarter, the freshmen carried the ball to the sophomore 30 yard line making a first down on every play. With 45 seconds left in the game Robinson completed a 20 yard pass to Setzer who carried the ball over the goal line for a second touchdown for the freshmen. The field was wrecked with cheers from the freshmen class. After all was clear, Jiggetts carried the ball over for the extra point. The game ended, Freshmen 13, Sophomores 6.
The coach for the freshmen was Cunningham. The coach for Sophomores was Weaver.

The Whiskey Five challenge any organization on the campus and in the city and from the looks of the material they have on hand they would make the varsity a formidable opponent. All of us remember the feats of "Cub All World" Stanley, veteran of last year's squad and "Papa" Haith, also a veteran from last year. "Red" Woods, a newcomer who plays a cool game of basketball is the man to watch, for it was he and "Cub" Stanley who defeated the ORD in the closing moments of a practice game January 17 in a hectic practice game.

The Root of Sorrow

Hitler is the root of sorrow
To scar the speckled bird,
Not only wasting blood of others
But the blood of his own, vicious herd.
He pushed the world into horrible grief
Killing some mother's child,
Because of his fiendish, insane belief
To rule tomorrow the world.
He tries to destroy what the world can produce
But he'll find, soon enough, that war is no use.
He builds young people with war in mind,
To happiness and nature they will be blind.
He causes each heart to pound to excess,
Praying and wishing to be out of this mess;
Oh God, please hasten that glorious day,
When this root of all sorrow will be wasted away.
