President Gibbs Asks for $1,434,125.00 for Improvement

Ghana Ambassador Speaks at A&T 60th Commencement

484 Students Receive Degrees

Africa is in the midst of its commercial and social development, and the freedom of all its peoples is achieved in good part through the efforts of the United Nations and the World Community. He also addressed the 60th graduation exercises of The Agricultural and Technical College of Greensboro, N. C.

"We in Africa are proud of you and of what you have accomplished as you address the 60th graduation exercises of The Agricultural and Technical College of Greensboro, N. C.

These years will cover the period being geographical during the 15th, 16th and 17th centuries. The 'call of the last frontier,' he said, is the call of the last frontier, they are to be faced.

Continued: Colonialism divided Africa in their homeland. Africans were denied human worth and dignity. This was a violation of human rights and the right to national independence. The colonizer himself was a violation of human rights.

American Negroes, who have had greater advantages over the African brothers, he said, have greater responsibilities to help Africa. He said:

In a vital way, mayyday as teachers, social workers, service workers, sales workers, in industry, engineering, ministers of the gospel, doctors or practitioners of law and medicine, and of course, trades and occupations of all kinds. The community is a unit, and in this great institution, you can contribute much to the advancement of the brothers and sisters in Africa.

He concluded: "We are confident that the years of freedom during the current period of Africa will increase with the passing years. For this we must emphasize the importance of the concept of colonies.

We are privileged to have as an emblem in our minds the picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people. We are privileged to be able to see a picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people.

THE CALL OF THE LAST FRONTIER:

"The Call of the Last Frontier," he de­

The call of the last frontier, he said, is the call of the last frontier, they are to be faced.

Continued: Colonialism divided Africa in their homeland. Africans were denied human worth and dignity. This was a violation of human rights and the right to national independence. The colonizer himself was a violation of human rights.

American Negroes, who have had greater advantages over the African brothers, he said, have greater responsibilities to help Africa. He said:

In a vital way, mayyday as teachers, social workers, service workers, sales workers, in industry, engineering, ministers of the gospel, doctors or practitioners of law and medicine, and of course, trades and occupations of all kinds. The community is a unit, and in this great institution, you can contribute much to the advancement of the brothers and sisters in Africa.

He concluded: "We are confident that the years of freedom during the current period of Africa will increase with the passing years. For this we must emphasize the importance of the concept of colonies.

We are privileged to have as an emblem in our minds the picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people. We are privileged to be able to see a picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people.

THE CALL OF THE LAST FRONTIER:

"The Call of the Last Frontier," he de­

The call of the last frontier, he said, is the call of the last frontier, they are to be faced.

Continued: Colonialism divided Africa in their homeland. Africans were denied human worth and dignity. This was a violation of human rights and the right to national independence. The colonizer himself was a violation of human rights.

American Negroes, who have had greater advantages over the African brothers, he said, have greater responsibilities to help Africa. He said:

In a vital way, mayyday as teachers, social workers, service workers, sales workers, in industry, engineering, ministers of the gospel, doctors or practitioners of law and medicine, and of course, trades and occupations of all kinds. The community is a unit, and in this great institution, you can contribute much to the advancement of the brothers and sisters in Africa.

He concluded: "We are confident that the years of freedom during the current period of Africa will increase with the passing years. For this we must emphasize the importance of the concept of colonies.

We are privileged to have as an emblem in our minds the picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people. We are privileged to be able to see a picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people.

THE CALL OF THE LAST FRONTIER:

"The Call of the Last Frontier," he de­

The call of the last frontier, he said, is the call of the last frontier, they are to be faced.

Continued: Colonialism divided Africa in their homeland. Africans were denied human worth and dignity. This was a violation of human rights and the right to national independence. The colonizer himself was a violation of human rights.

American Negroes, who have had greater advantages over the African brothers, he said, have greater responsibilities to help Africa. He said:

In a vital way, mayyday as teachers, social workers, service workers, sales workers, in industry, engineering, ministers of the gospel, doctors or practitioners of law and medicine, and of course, trades and occupations of all kinds. The community is a unit, and in this great institution, you can contribute much to the advancement of the brothers and sisters in Africa.

He concluded: "We are confident that the years of freedom during the current period of Africa will increase with the passing years. For this we must emphasize the importance of the concept of colonies.

We are privileged to have as an emblem in our minds the picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people. We are privileged to be able to see a picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people.

THE CALL OF THE LAST FRONTIER:

"The Call of the Last Frontier," he de­

The call of the last frontier, he said, is the call of the last frontier, they are to be faced.

Continued: Colonialism divided Africa in their homeland. Africans were denied human worth and dignity. This was a violation of human rights and the right to national independence. The colonizer himself was a violation of human rights.

American Negroes, who have had greater advantages over the African brothers, he said, have greater responsibilities to help Africa. He said:

In a vital way, mayyday as teachers, social workers, service workers, sales workers, in industry, engineering, ministers of the gospel, doctors or practitioners of law and medicine, and of course, trades and occupations of all kinds. The community is a unit, and in this great institution, you can contribute much to the advancement of the brothers and sisters in Africa.

He concluded: "We are confident that the years of freedom during the current period of Africa will increase with the passing years. For this we must emphasize the importance of the concept of colonies.

We are privileged to have as an emblem in our minds the picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people. We are privileged to be able to see a picture of an African who has been trained to be the leader of his people.
The Supreme Court's Dilemma

By RAYMOND L. CRUMP

The present controversy surrounding the Supreme Court seems at first glance to be leading to an inevitably explosive conflict between it and a majority of the Congress. The Court has weathered some stormy times before, but each time has emerged with its basic authority, dignity and respectability intact. And there is little reason to believe it will not again be able to survive such an onslaught. Stiff, there is no other institution of our government that is held in higher esteem by the general public, and it is inconceivable that the overwhelming majorities of Americans will not rally to its defense in the event of any major attacks on its authority.

The present controversy, however, lies not in a major attack on it, but in a series of peripheral actions now before the Congress. The final results, if they are passed, cannot but lead eventually to a reduction in the authority of the Court by depriving it of the power to decide the segregation issue. The trend of recent Supreme Court decisions lends support to the rejection of an amendment to the constitutional ban on segregation in the public schools.

Many people criticizing the Court have shown little understanding of the nature of many precedents confronting the Court in its decisions. Until the death of Chief Justice Vinson, the majority of the Court's decisions dealt either with abstract procedure or cases of limited application (the steel strike cases being an outstanding exception). However, the last six years have seen a tremendous increase in the Court's power, because its decisions dealt either with abstract procedure or cases of limited application (the steel strike cases being an outstanding exception).

Many people criticizing the Court have shown little understanding of the nature of many precedents confronting the Court in its decisions.

Now, I do not think a student actually loses much during a summer quarter as compared to the regular quarter, but the student must adjust his study method. He must be alert and in the summer session or the regular

Orchids and Onions

By GLORIA DUNLAP

ORCHIDS to the summer school student for their willing advice and the time cooperation they give the students who come to them over the summer hour on the school day.

ONIONS to all students who did not attend the summer school classes.

ORCHIDS to the library staff for their new convenient system and their helpful way in helping students find materials.

ONIONS to those students who leave the library without having checked out any books.

ORCHIDS to the program committee for the wonderful lyceum programs this summer.

ONIONS to the campus vending machines for failing to give service on the hottest days.

ORCHIDS to the administration for their wonderful lyceum programs director. Dr. Daniel A. Chapman, a fine choice for a person to have in a position of human relationship at its highest level.

ONIONS to those telephones on campus with a week's and nine months' service.

ORCHIDS to the 1134 students who make A&T College their summer school choice.

ONIONS to the chronically ill who some seasons could do better than

A Thought For Today

By JAMES J. METCALFE

That time is never wasted in — Scholastic atmosphere.

The church is an established and powerful force in community life, and it is the church that can play a major role in helping to control and prevent delinquency. Youthful energies must be channeled into wholesome channels; if children do not have satisfying and constructive outlets for their energies, they may seek satisfaction in destructive activities.

Now we that know the causes of juvenile delinquency and how we can control and prevent it, we must get together and see how we can do to make this a better world for the teen-agers and a more pleasant world for them to live in.
"Freedom Not Given"—Ghana Diplomat

"Freedom is never given,—it must be won," said the Hon. Dr. Joseph H. Meyers, U.S. Ambassador to Ghana, at the A&T College Calendar meeting on May 13. "We must already have the victory or we will have nothing to give."

He went on to describe Ghana as "a country of black millions who are making the world aware of a new nation, a new people." He said, "The history of Ghana is the history of its people."

"The history of Ghana is the history of its people," the ambassador continued. "It is the story of their struggle for freedom and independence, a struggle that has captured the imagination of the world."

He said that Ghana's independence was a "great victory for all who believe in the right of self-determination." He added, "This is not just a victory for the people of Ghana, but for all peoples everywhere."

"The people of Ghana," he concluded, "are a people of courage and determination. Their struggle is not over, but it is a struggle that we will not allow to fail."

The ambassador's remarks were met with applause from the audience. The meeting was held at the A&T College Calendar meeting on May 13. The meeting was open to the public and was attended by many students and faculty members.

The meeting was held in the College Calendar meeting room, which was filled to capacity. The meeting began with the national anthem, followed by the invocation by Dr. Joseph H. Meyers, U.S. Ambassador to Ghana.

The ambassador then gave a brief history of Ghana, including its independence in 1957 and its role in the struggle for African independence. He said, "The history of Ghana is the history of its people."

He went on to describe the country's rich culture and its people's determination to achieve their goals. He said, "The people of Ghana are a people of courage and determination. Their struggle is not over, but it is a struggle that we will not allow to fail."

The meeting ended with the pledge of allegiance and the national anthem. The audience then was dismissed.
Lieutenant Fitts
(AHTNC) — Second Lt. Spurgeon M. Fitts, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo R. Fitts, Sr., Route 3, Littleton, N. C, recently completed the 15-week infantry officer basic course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. The course is designed to acquaint the newly commissioned officer with the responsibilities and duties of an infantry unit commander. Lieutenant Fitts is a 1953 graduate of Warren County Training School in Wise, and a 1957 graduate of North Carolina A&T College. He is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. The lieutenant was formerly a naval architect at the Philadelphia (Pa.) Navy Shipyard. — (U. S. Army Photo).

Specialist Tuck
(AHTNC) — Specialist Second Class Richard Tuck, 34, son of Orange L. Tuck, Lawrenceville, Va., recently was assigned to the 267th Signal Company at Fort Riley, Kan. He entered the Army in 1954. A draftsman in the company, Specialist Tuck was last stationed in England. Tuck, who is a graduate of St. Paul's High School, was graduated in 1951 from North Carolina A&T College. — (U. S. Army Photo).

Delta and Omega Frolic

The members of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority attending the 1958 Summer Session gave the Summer School Student Body and Faculty an evening of entertainment on July 10 in the recreation room of "The A & T."

Miss A&T 1958-59

Student voters elected Felicia Black, pert biological science major of Greensboro, Miss A&T for the 1958-1959 school year. Black served a two year stint with the Wacs — a tour of service in San Francisco, Calif. Felicia is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Veterans' Association of which she is queen and treasurer, Usher Board, Westminster Foundation, and Richard B. Harrison Players.
HERE AND THERE AT THE GALA PICNIC

We are one big happy gang playing cards under the shady trees.

(Above photo) left to right: Ruby Davis, Bertha Greene, Yvonne Hawkins and Annie Lean take a stroll.

Enjoying the picnic are Johnnie Threap and Edna Johnson.

Taking time out to observe some of the beautiful scenery are Madge Atkinson, Priscilla Logan, Gloria Dunlap and James Brown.

Relaxing at the picnic are James Smith, Alex Simmons, Milton Pettig, Dorothy Harrison, William Gilmore and Doris Faircloth.

Studying the leaves on the picnic are Alga Swann, Arminia Gore, and Marion Jackson.

Dean Barber, Dean Phinmire and Mrs. McKinnis, Assistant Dietitian issue out the food.
Sports Corner

By Leon Dingle

It is always a sad and a thing to learn of our athletes who have rendered their four years of eligibility. In football this year we are losing the "all time halfback" Arthur Worley, who has done an outstanding job for the Aggie gridiron, and William Peters, who has been one of our best centers. On the diamond behind the plate we lose Karl Smith and center fielder will suffer the loss of Bob Bailey one of our top backs.

It is a fact that the above athletes are not eligible to participate in the sports events, but they will never be forgotten for the job they have done, and they will always be a part of A&T College History. "Once an AGIE always an AGIE" We will miss all of you.

July Yesturdays

LEON DINGLE JR.

July 4, 1877-New York legislature abolished slavery in state.

July 4, 1881-Nat Turner's insurrection against slavery began in Virginia.

July 6, 1864-Requisition Party organized a nameless and begins its Solomonic phase.

July 16, 1866—Maryland constitutional convention begins a program to abolish slavery.

July 26, 1904—Congressman Joe Cannon submits a bill to abolish slavery.

July 23, 1920—Federal Amendment to ratify defining citizenship for the first time in history, expected to newly freed Negroes.

July 19, 1920—Eddie Johnson won the world heavyweight title.

July 30, 1921—James J. Corbett at the age of 42 and 217 pounds was named to high post.

Claire Richards, Smithfield, is the new vice president and Gloria Price, Pfafftown, will serve as secretary of the organization. Other offices elected were LeVarne Robinson, Lexington treasurer, and Benjamin Ramsey, Richmond, historian.

The newly elected officers were installed at the outdoor candlelight services, a glowing feature of the weekend socialistic.

The staff of the event was under the supervision of Mrs. Anna D. Hunter and Superintendent C. Cooper, assisted all Club leaders with the A&T College Extension Service.

Rural Ministers Meet

The fifth annual Rural Life Ministers Meet was conducted here at A&T College for four days, June 16-18. Nearly 150 ministers, representing town, and country churches from throughout the State, participated in the event. The project started by the college in 1949 aims at presenting rural churchmen latest information on the problems of rural people and communities and means of solving them, to stimulate improved working relations between the churches and all agencies dedicated to improving rural life, and to focus the attention of church leaders upon some of the social problems which have grown out of recent cultural developments.

Reverend Kelly O. P. Goodwin, pastor of the Mount Zion Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, N. C., served as coordinator for the institute and as one of the principal lecturers. Keynote speaker was William Minyard, Chief, Poor Labor and Migrant, U. S. Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.

The group attended several joint sessions of the State Conference of Negro Farmers and Homemakers meeting here at the college. A project is sponsored by A&T College in cooperation with the State Extension Service. Reverend Clovis S. Mott, director of religious activities at the college was in charge of local arrangements.

Summer Lyceum

Other summer Lyceum Programs that merit to be given include:

- Wednesday, July 9, 10:00 a.m. BOSTON CONCERT ENSEMBLE. Monday, July 21, 1958, 8:00 p.m.
- DANCE FAIR

Something absolutely new and different in the buffet is the dinner dress FLOWER HUTS, huts of flowers, arrangements and choreographer extraordinary, assisted by three local dance from the finest ballet companies, television shows and Broad- way. A varied program developing choral themes as well as jazz Modern and Satire.

Dr. Wooden attends Conference

The Conference included a daily instructional period, a discussion and problem-study seminar; combination session; laboratory study of audio-visual techniques and methods; study of reference books, films, and exhibits; several field trips and journeys to museums, institutions, and documentary realia.

Visit Your College Barber Shop

Basement of Cooper Hall

Alexander Parker, Mgr.

Thrift Shop

354 S. ELM STREET — FACING UNDERPASS

CLOTHING FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

Farley's Sweet Shop & Grill

938 East Market Street

Phone E 3-6161 For Pick-Up Lunches

Greenboro, N. C.

Geo. H. Farley

Proprietor

Steaks — Ocean Fresh

Oysters and Shrimp