1-16-1963

The Register, 1963-01-16

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister

Recommended Citation
https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister/203

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Digital Collections at Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in NCAT Student Newspapers by an authorized administrator of Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. For more information, please contact iyanna@ncat.edu.
Army ROTC Reorganizes Battle Group

To start the new year, the Army ROTC Battalion has been reorganized and reclassified. The reorganization is designed to give the students a chance to display their capabilities in varied positions; this is hoped, will result in the realization of their full potential.

Only senior cadets were affected by the recent changes. Under the new chain of command, James Davis, has been assigned as corps commander. Davis, a senior from Alexandria, Va., who has been reassigned to the position of battalion executive officer. Davis, who is composed of James Brisbane, staff officer, James H. Garrett, co. B; Sandy Royster, co. C; and Clyde White, co. A.

Other reassignments include: Wylie Harris, commander of co. A; and Walter Westerman, commander of co. B; Rodney Davi, commander of co. C; and Clyde Taylor, commander of HQ, and HQ Co.

Also, Carroll Sikes, co. C; James Garrett, co. A; James Goode, co. C; and Frank Bottom, co. A; Lloyd Smith, co. C; Bobby Lindsey, co. C; W. Brown, co. A; Lloyd Smith, co. C; David Holdway, co. C, and Ralph Hunt, co. C.

The new command structure is designed to give the students a chance to display their capabilities in varied positions, as is hoped, will result in the realization of their full potential.

Chapel Address Is Delivered By Alumnus Of A&T College

If the Supreme Court renders a decision favorable to defendants in the famous "dairy cases," it will be most for reaching civil rights de-

Chapel Loris E. Harris was recently selected as the Air Force Cadet of the Week. This cadet was chosen from a list of 40 candidates in the military bearing qualified him for during the recruiting season, in demand in the armed forces.

Harris is a photography student from Trenton.

Army ROTC Reorganizes Battle Group

To start the new year, the Army ROTC Battalion has been reorganized and reclassified. The reorganization is designed to give the students a chance to display their capabilities in varied positions; this is hoped, will result in the realization of their full potential.

Only senior cadets were affected by the recent changes. Under the new chain of command, James Davis, has been assigned as corps commander. Davis, a senior from Alexandria, Va., who has been reassigned to the position of battalion executive officer. Davis, who is composed of James Brisbane, staff officer, James H. Garrett, co. B; Sandy Royster, co. C; and Clyde White, co. A.

Other reassignments include: Wylie Harris, commander of co. A; and Walter Westerman, commander of co. B; Rodney Davi, commander of co. C; and Clyde Taylor, commander of HQ, and HQ Co.

Also, Carroll Sikes, co. C; James Garrett, co. A; James Goode, co. C; and Frank Bottom, co. A; Lloyd Smith, co. C; Bobby Lindsey, co. C; W. Brown, co. A; Lloyd Smith, co. C; David Holdway, co. C, and Ralph Hunt, co. C.

The new command structure is designed to give the students a chance to display their capabilities in varied positions, as is hoped, will result in the realization of their full potential.

Chapel Address Is Delivered By Alumnus Of A&T College

If the Supreme Court renders a decision favorable to defendants in the famous "dairy cases," it will be most for reaching civil rights de-

Chapel Loris E. Harris was recently selected as the Air Force Cadet of the Week. This cadet was chosen from a list of 40 candidates in the military bearing qualified him for during the recruiting season, in

demand in the armed forces.

Harris is a photography student from Trenton.

Board Member's Body Found In Lake

The body of Dr. Murray Brooks Davis, member of the A&T College Board of Trustees, was found floating in Lake Norman, near Concord, N.C., last November to collaborate with the National Dairy Council.

The three-day event will comprise lectures and demonstrations on the care, feeding and maintenance of dairy cattle and modern methods in milk production.

Among those appearing on the program will be A. S. Bacon, Federal Extension Service, Washington; B. W. Warren, producer of dairy husbandry, College Station, Texas; and E. G. Parsons, Extension dairy specialist and A. E. wspenden, in charge of Dairy Extension, all of the State College of Agriculture, and A. C. W. Web, dean, School of Agriculture; A. W. Kellogg, head, Department of Animal Industries, and W. R. Keeney, assistant professor, dairy manufacturing, all of A&T College.

The visiting dairymen will be guest at a banquet on Thursday evening.

Secretary Of Labor Announces Essay Contest For Students

Secretary of Labor, W. Willard Wirtz has announced that a 1963 essay contest for college students who will be tied to the U.S. Department of Labor's 50th anniversary year.

The contest was announced following a meeting with Robert Pauley, President of the American Federation of Government White Collar Workers, Dr. Edgar M. Morgan, Labor economist, and the Secretary, Edward P. Morgan, President of Morgan's broadcast which is concerned with labor-management relations on the radio network.

The 1963 essay topic will be "Youth's Challenge in the Labor Market." The contest is open to all undergraduate college students, provided, contest rules and judges' names will be announced.

In reference to this contest the Emancipation Proclamation

Is Observed

"The Negro, brought to those shores 300 years ago to help solve the problem of an overpopulation of white and Negro, was in Washington, D.C., yesterday — six hours after his car had plunged into an arm of High Point Lake.

Dr. Davis had spent Sunday night in Durham following a meeting and was on his way home when the accident occurred. The physician had a heart history and had been a hospital patient last year because of a cardiac condition.

AUBERTY

Exact cause of death had not been determined tonight. An autolomy will be held sometime today at the Crawford Funeral Home.

Dr. Davis was a member of the staff of High Point Memorial Hospital.

In 1933 he was appointed by Gov. J. C. Scott as the first Trustee of A&T College, a post which he held as the time of his death. He received his medical degree at Howard University in Washington.

In 1958 Gov. Luther Hodges nomed Dr. Davis to the State Police Commission. He was still a member and the only Negro to have been selected for that board.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Davis; his son, Murray Brooks Davis, Jr., and a daughter, Anne of the home, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Davis of High Point.

Secretary of Labor made the following statement:

"I am delighted that Mr. Pauley and Mr. Morgan have selected for the essay contest a topic so appropriate to the anniversary celebration of the United States Department of Labor. One of the deep-thoughts concerns here in the Department is for the proper development of American youth in an era of increasing technological change, occupational specialiation, scientific advancement, and a situation which makes it difficult for growth of our economy in the years ahead. Young people today are very , i.e., believe, of their responsibilities to youth, as the key that unlock the gates to growth of our economy in the years ahead.

Efforts like the Edward P. Morgan Essay Contest are making great steps forward for growth of our economy in the years ahead. Young people today are very, i.e., believe, of their responsibilities to youth, as the key that unlock the gates to growth of our economy in the years ahead.

Miss Mary Scott of the Department is for the proper development of American youth in an era of increasing technological change, occupational specialization, scientific advancements, and a situation which makes it difficult for growth of our economy in the years ahead.

Efforts like the Edward P. Morgan Essay Contest are making great steps forward for growth of our economy in the years ahead. Young people today are very, i.e., believe, of their responsibilities to youth, as the key that unlock the gates to growth of our economy in the years ahead.

Dental Care

Now Available To Veterans

A law, effective August 14, 1962, made provisions for dental treat-tment of members and their family if we are all wise.

The Department is celebrating an anniversary. The young people of America will, I am sure, be celebrating a brilliant future for themselves and their country if we are all wise.

The Department is celebrating an anniversary. The young people of America will, I am sure, be celebrating a brilliant future for themselves and their country if we are all wise.

The Department is celebrating an anniversary. The young people of America will, I am sure, be celebrating a brilliant future for themselves and their country if we are all wise.

The Department is celebrating an anniversary. The young people of America will, I am sure, be celebrating a brilliant future for themselves and their country if we are all wise.

Aggies Defeat Virginia State
To Gain First Place In CIAA

BY ERNEST GAINER

Over the past week, the A&T Aggies moved into first place in the CIAA by defeating procession favorites, Virginia State in a season thriller 76-71. This past weekend the Aggies placed a fiery backhand on first place by downing Fayetteville State for second time this season 96-80 and a stubborn team at Shaw 98-88.

James Jackson, 6' 5" Jukin from Charlottesville and leading scorer for the mighty Aggies, seems to be one of the main reasons why the Aggies are far undefeated in conference play.

Before an overflowed house of Aggies, Jackson, center for the mighty buildings hit a jump shot that left many fans holding their breath as the ball rolled lastly around the rim and finally dropped to give the Aggies one of their most important victories of the season.

Taking charge at the buzzer, the team scored 28 as compared to a mere 5 by the visitors. However at halftime the Aggies led was cut to 8.

Hugh Evans, Co-Captain was high scoring man for the game with 24 points, 18 of which came in the first half of play. Maurice McHartley scored 23 points to share honors with Evans 13, and Mulcare 10.

McHartley 16, Evans 13, and Mulcare 10.

In the double figures. Jackson 15, Dorcus Bradley, Tommy Gaddie, Lewis Brandon, Willie Stroud, William P. Jordan, W. H. McKnight, B. L. Delane, and 3 minutes left in the game and time and had a lead of 7 — 32-25. The Bears of Shaw played a pos tive game as they held the Aggies to a 10 points at halftime, and had a lead of 7 — 32-25. The Aggie flighters trailed most of the game and began their usual fancy ball handling and fast breaks with 5 minutes left in the game and scoring 6 points was enough for another Aggie victory.

Four of the starting five placed in the double figures. Jackson 17, McHartley 16, Evans 12, and Mulcare 12.

---

Bulldogs Top Fayetteville
By 26 Points

With the remarkable shooting of James Jackson and the rebounding efforts of Novil shred and Irving Mulcare, the big bulldogs leading Aggies placed Fayetteville State 96-80, in a CIAA contest held at Fayetteville.

Jackson and S. C. led the scoring by dumping 26 points together. Other members scoring were Evans 13, McHartley 16, Holliday 6, Allen 4, Powell and Skinner 6, Mullins 2, and Hor don 1.

The Bears of Shaw played a pos
tive game as they held the Aggies to 5 points at halftime and had a lead of 7 — 32-25. The Aggie flighters trailed most of the game and began their usual fancy ball handling and fast breaks with 5 minutes left in the game and scoring 6 points was enough for another Aggie victory.

Four of the starting five placed in the double figures. Jackson 17, McHartley 16, Evans 12, and Mulcare 12.

---

Atomic Energy

(Continued from Page 1)

taken positions in other U. S. Gov ernment agencies, private industry and professional and educational institutions.

Applications and transcripts of under-graduate and graduate records should be submitted to the ATO by March 1, 1963.

All applications for the attorney and paralegal training programs should be sent to the Director of Personnel, Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D. C. All other candidates should direct their applications or inquiries to the Director, Organization and Personnel Division, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, Post Office Box A, Aiken, South Carolina or Post Office Box E, Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Styling At The Slack Shop

301 South Elm St.