Freshmen, See Here!

By Eula M. Battle

"Too many freshmen enter college with only a vague sense of purpose and direction, with very little idea of what to expect of college and what their college expects of them," says Saul Orkin, admissions and guidance officer at Union Junior College, Cranford, New Jersey.

Similarly, Ralph Cooper Hutchison states in Work Your Way Through College that the average student enters college "Never having used the high school library in the final four years."

It is therefore the responsibility of the students to choose a college career for reasons other than learning, broadening their knowledge, expanding their interests and developing their personal goals. The college classes and the realities of college are suddenly all too evident.

The students of Brown Hall are new members of the Aggie Family. The incoming new member to the Aggie Family should hold a meeting for the purpose of letting the freshmen know how they are to present identification card to the entrance of the fall quarter of each year. The students should be given a warm welcome to the dormitories, and the community of Brown Hall can be made to show the students what the school and its activities are. Each student has the time to sit down and to discuss the situation in which freshmen could participate along with other up-perclassmen, so as to just get a feeling of brotherhood.

The Peaceful Warrior

"An honest portrait" is what Virginia Kirkus calls MARTIN LUTHER KING: The Peaceful Warrior, which President Hall recommended. Written by Ed Clayton, noted Negro author, the book is King's official biography for children, and is illustrated with full-page pictures by David Hodges. Recommended for high school and college students, this book describes the hardships and success of second-class citizenship in the ghettos of the South. It tells how Dr. King's words were inspired by the great Indian leader Mahatma Gandhi, and how the method of non-violent resistance is the civil rights movement. The book opens up the whole world to the reader, and it is a very informative book.

School Spirit

Editors of THE REGISTER:

The newspaper staff invites the students to submit book reviews in the college newspaper. While certainly each student has the time to read a paragraph or two concerning a particular book, THE REGISTER staff is interested in presenting book reviews in the college newspaper. Book Reviews

Editors of THE REGISTER:

I would like to commend the newspaper staff on presenting book reviews in the college newspaper. This is good. Not all students have the time to sit down and thoroughly read a book. Some books may not be of their interest. But certainly each student has time to read a paragraph or two concerning a particular book. THE REGISTER is available to all students and is an easy, convenient place to present book reviews in the college newspaper.

College Freshmen

Editors of THE REGISTER:

This year so far the upper-classmen have given the freshman class a hard way to go. Many students say the freshmen class is taking too much time, and they are making it impossible for some sophomores to eat and get to an early class. This may be true, but each year the freshmen class gets larger and larger. Our class was probably talked about in the same way.

So, students of the upper classes, be patient and try not to be too hard on the present freshman class. They only want an education and this is good.

Is World Government Possible?

Because of the situations and conditions prevalent throughout the world today, we are faced by the question of whether world government is a necessity. We need to consider the factors that make world government a necessity. We need to consider the factors that make world government a necessity.

Freddy V. Faulk '68

Prentice-Hall, Inc. will publish, in the spring of 1965, the first biography of Martin Luther King, Jr., which Prentice-Hall will publish.

The editors of THE REGISTER wish to congratulate the students who choose to write book reviews in the college newspaper. Is World Government Possible?

EEDITORS' NOTE: The following composition, written in class, was based on "World Government or World Destruction" by Stephen King-Hall.

Freddy V. Faulk '68

Because of the situations and conditions prevalent throughout the world, we are faced by the question of whether world government is a necessity. We need to consider the factors that make world government a necessity. We need to consider the factors that make world government a necessity.

The factors that make world government a necessity are many and numerous. The factors that make world government a necessity are many and numerous. The factors that make world government a necessity are many and numerous. The factors that make world government a necessity are many and numerous. The factors that make world government a necessity are many and numerous. The factors that make world government a necessity are many and numerous.

Attempts have been made and are still being made to achieve such a goal. Delays are occurring because of an un-successful and was followed by the United Nations Organisation. Today, the United Nations Organisation was followed by the United Nations Organisation. The United Nations Organisation was followed by the United Nations Organisation. These countries are not putting forth such an attempt. They are not putting forth such an attempt. They are not putting forth such an attempt. They are not putting forth such an attempt.

The Community is still waiting for the world to take over the world, they know that war may mean total destruction.

World government not only can be achieved; it must be achieved if we are to survive.

Student Council Begins Year's Activities

The Student Government held its regular meeting last week evening in the Student Government's office in Rooms Buckeley, presided over by Student President Martha George and Secretary Ida Thomas, both of whom are seniors. The meeting was opened by Mayor Alonzo Flowers, graduate student and winner of the top spot in the 1964-65 school year. Major Richard Santure, professor of Air Science, is replacing Alonzo Flowers as chairman of the council. Major Santure is a native of San Diego, California, and now North Carolina, with two years of college training. He left college during World War II, after which he returned to Ellington Air Force Base in Texas. He has received the distinguished Air Medal and the Eisenhower Hall Commission, James McMillan, chairman. The meeting was opened with a roll call and a discussion of the agenda for the day. Dean Robert Finshman, dean of the college, presided over the meeting.
