| March 19, 1964 Hawley High Creedmoor, N. C. | The purpose of this visit was to serve as speaker for the Adult Classes' Third Annual Banquet at this school. We arrived at the school at approximately 6:45 P. M., and contacted the teacher of agriculture, Leroy Spells. The Third Annual Banquet of Adult Classes was begun shortly after 7:00 P. M. The high school cafeteria was beautifully decorated. Name plates were placed at each seat. Adult class members brought their wives along as their honored guests. Twenty-five members were enrolled in each class -- Tractor Repairs and Farm Arc Welding for beginners. The visiting teacher discussed the subject, "Achieving New Horizons - A Must for Better Living." It was pointed out that the image of farming has changed, and agriculture is more than farming as pointed out by State Supervisor of Vocational Agriculture, A. C. Bullard in the February 24 issue of the News and Observer. The mayor of the town was present, and he praised the group for their accomplishments. Also, other agricultural workers from the area were present. Mr. Spells, his principal, D. O. Leatherberry, and patrons are to be commended for conducting a dignified culminating program in adult education in agriculture. |
| March 20, 1964 State College Raleigh, N. C. | The purpose of this visit was to attend and participate in the North Carolina Teachers Association meeting. The program conducted at North Carolina State College provided an opportunity for us in agriculture to appraise progress being made |
