5-28-1965

The Register, 1965-05-28

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister

Recommended Citation
https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister/253

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Digital Collections at Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in NCAT Student Newspapers by an authorized administrator of Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. For more information, please contact iyanna@ncat.edu.
College Lists 444 Prospective Graduates

Coed Gets Grant To Study Biology

At I. I. T.

An A&T College coed Lillian A. Lacewell, has been awarded a scholarship by the biology department at the Illinois Institute of Technology for the 1965-66 school term.

Lacewell, a senior majoring in biology, is from Richmond County. She is a member of the Student NEA, the Traffic Safety Club, Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, Gamma Sigma Sigma (coordinating secretary), and the Baptist Student Union.

Lacewell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lacewell of 401 West Blanding Street in Goldsboro, N. C.

Hobart Taylor Associate Counsel To President Johnson
To Speak At Seventh-Fourth Annual Commencement

By JULIA BATTLE

Starting June 30, Dr. Darwin T. Turner will be on leave from the college for a year to do research in France. This will be his third year of sabbatical leave at A&T College. Turner said the institute will be held at Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, 1963-64.

Dr. Turner has been given a fellowship in the University of North Carolina—Chapel Hill Cooperative Program in the Humanities. He will be at Duke University, where he will be doing research in the writings of American and English literature.

When Mr. Turner came to A&T in 1969 he had the following to say about his teaching career: "I have found that unless I can adapt to the needs of my students, they will not learn. It is essential to be aware of the effects of the times. I have found that the times have a great influence on the way I teach." Since that time, he has decided himself to the profession of teaching at Dudley High School. Lillian will receive a stipend of approximately $12,000 for two semesters of study at Illinois Institute of Technology.

Lillian will receive a stipend of approximately $12,000 for two semesters of study at Illinois Institute of Technology.

Dr. William H. Robinson will head Humanities. More than 400 students will receive degrees from A&T College's 76th Annual Commencement, Saturday, May 31, in Moore Gymnasium. Of this group 225 will receive bachelor degrees; 22 will receive associate degrees, and 94 will receive master degrees. Students receiving degrees are as follows:

CARY BELL HIGHLIGHTS REGISTER'S ANNUAL BANQUET

Cary Bell, '65, editor of the REGISTER, delivered the main address at the annual banquet Saturday night in Moore Gymnasium. Presently participating in the Peace Corps program, Bell is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, where he majored in English. He was also listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Something of a celebrity since his recent appearance upon the cover of JET, a national magazine, in connection with the activities of the A&T College Program, Bell is attending the program this summer as an exchange student.

In addition to serving as editor of the REGISTER while enrolled at A&T College he held membership in Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society, and Lambda Chi Tau Fraternity. He was also listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

"Something of a celebrity since his recent appearance upon the cover of JET, a national magazine, in connection with the activities of the A&T College Program, Bell is attending the program this summer as an exchange student."

CARY BELL HIGHLIGHTS REGISTER'S ANNUAL BANQUET

Cary Bell, '65, editor of the REGISTER, delivered the main address at the annual banquet Saturday night in Moore Gymnasium. Presently participating in the Peace Corps program, Bell is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, where he majored in English. He was also listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

"Something of a celebrity since his recent appearance upon the cover of JET, a national magazine, in connection with the activities of the A&T College Program, Bell is attending the program this summer as an exchange student."
The Challenges Of Today's Society

By EULA BATTLE

Today's society offers many challenges. It challenges one to prepare himself so as to meet all the challenges that confront man, and to live a successful life. In order to meet the challenges of today's society, one must develop morally, spiritually, and intellectually. If one does not meet the challenges of today's society, he cannot hope to succeed in the modern world. If not times of progress and preparation, the past four years have given each of us something which we can take with us permanently with this institution. We have been Aggies; and whatever else we may become, we shall always be Aggies.

The Thoughts Of A Woman

NANNIE LILLY

I sit here and I think but I don't understand his character.

The rights and the ways of a man, I can see that some things he does are not the nature of his character.

I am aware that I am woman and he is man.

I understand that his life is somewhat different from mine.

I know that, as a woman, I am here to love and to cherish him.

He says his heart is mine, I know my heart is his.

But yet he betrays and I suffer,

then I wonder, what price Am I paying?

The price of his loving me or the price of me loving him?

Is it right that life is so sad without him and full of joy.

With him, but yet painful?

Why do I (woman) love him?

I want to love him, yet I'm afraid Of loving him; therefore I do not love him.

Why are his words so real, so true, so promising but yet so hard to believe?

Though I want to believe him yet I do not want to believe Him.

I love him because he is the part of me and part of my life.

He is the cause of some of my sorrows and he is my joy.

He is man and without him I am only part woman.

Even with faults he is ever so clean because his dirt is Vaguely seen.

His possession of kindness charm, and loving affections Causes my mind and my heart to be deceiving.

Therefore, I know of nothing but the clear, true and loving man.

I know of his faults, but I'm not perfect either.

So I give his faults not a thought, and cherish the sweet.

Kind and lovable man.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editors:

Now that the Student Government elections are over, I would like to know what has been accomplished. I do not want to be misinformed, so I will try to clarify the above statement.

First, I am trying to figure out what type of an election that was. When I say what type, I do not mean whether or not it was a consensus type election, nor do I mean whether or not it was secret ballot or an oral election. What I do mean is that I would like to know why we had two elections for the same candidates.

At first thought it was because there was a tie between two or more candidates. However, this was not the case according to the chart I saw of the results. However, there must be some logical explanation.

I am wondering if there are any real or any copies of such council. I am trying to find out if there is a copy of this constitution, and if I could see it, I believe it is not a loosely constructed document that provides for such handling of elections as the one just held. Please do not misunderstand me. I am not criticizing my self to the point of blaming this type of election held. I do not mean to do it without restraint.

Secretly yours,

Wille Randolph

The Register

Published weekly during the college year by the students of A&T College.

Subscription rate $3.00 per year. Address all communications and subscriptions to THE REGISTER, A&T College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

Member: Associated Collegiate Press Association, and Intercollegiate Press.

Editor: Aloha Peyton

Art Editor: Yvonne Rouxouille and Stanley Johnson

Circulation Manager: James Wilder

Faculty Advisor: Mrs. Jerome M. Marrow

Reporters: Sally Battle, Robert Wagoner, Lee House

Kertie McKee, Willie Randolph

Aloha Peyton

The Editor

To the Editor:

I am wondering how to find the answer. This is not to be taken as something that is a belief that many things will go or will not go. It is to be something that is a belief.

Miss Sherrod's research indicates that the number of women in this country will be in excess of the number of men. This will be employed twice as many as we have seen before.

I am wondering how to find the answer. This is not to be taken as something that is a belief that many things will go or will not go. It is to be something that is a belief.

G. Sherrod

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1}

she may not know when to look for the answer. This is not to be taken as something that is a belief that many things will go or will not go. It is to be something that is a belief.

Miss Sherrod's research indicates that the number of women in this country will be in excess of the number of men. This will be employed twice as many as we have seen before.

I am wondering how to find the answer. This is not to be taken as something that is a belief that many things will go or will not go. It is to be something that is a belief.

G. Sherrod

The Thoughts Of A Woman

NANNIE LILLY

I sit here and I think but I don't understand his character.

The rights and the ways of a man, I can see that some things he does are not the nature of his character.

I am aware that I am woman and he is man.

I understand that his life is somewhat different from mine.

I know that, as a woman, I am here to love and to cherish him.

He says his heart is mine, I know my heart is his.

But yet he betrays and I suffer,

then I wonder, what price Am I paying?

The price of his loving me or the price of me loving him?

Is it right that life is so sad without him and full of joy.

With him, but yet painful?

Why do I (woman) love him?

I want to love him, yet I'm afraid Of loving him; therefore I do not love him.

Why are his words so real, so true, so promising but yet so hard to believe?

Though I want to believe him yet I do not want to believe Him.

I love him because he is the part of me and part of my life.

He is the cause of some of my sorrows and he is my joy.

He is man and without him I am only part woman.

Even with faults he is ever so clean because his dirt is Vaguely seen.

His possession of kindness charm, and loving affections Causes my mind and my heart to be deceiving.

Therefore, I know of nothing but the clear, true and loving man.

I know of his faults, but I'm not perfect either.

So I give his faults not a thought, and cherish the sweet.

Kind and lovable man.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editors:

Now that the Student Government elections are over, I would like to know what has been accomplished. I do not want to be misinformed, so I will try to clarify the above statement.

First, I am trying to figure out what type of an election that was. When I say what type, I do not mean whether or not it was a consensus type election, nor do I mean whether or not it was secret ballot or an oral election. What I do mean is that I would like to know why we had two elections for the same candidates.

At first thought it was because there was a tie between two or more candidates. However, this was not the case according to the chart I saw of the results. However, there must be some logical explanation.

I am wondering if there are any real or any copies of such council. I am trying to find out if there is a copy of this constitution, and if I could see it, I believe it is not a loosely constructed document that provides for such handling of elections as the one just held. Please do not misunderstand me. I am not criticizing my self to the point of blaming this type of election held. I do not mean to do it without restraint.

Secretly yours,

Wille Randolph

The Register

Published weekly during the college year by the students of A&T College.

Subscription rate $3.00 per year. Address all communications and subscriptions to THE REGISTER, A&T College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

Member: Associated Collegiate Press Association, and Intercollegiate Press.

Editor: Aloha Peyton

Art Editor: Yvonne Rouxouille and Stanley Johnson

Circulation Manager: James Wilder

Faculty Advisor: Mrs. Jerome M. Marrow

Reporters: Sally Battle, Robert Wagoner, Lee House

Kertie McKee, Willie Randolph

Aloha Peyton

The Editor

To the Editor:

I am wondering how to find the answer. This is not to be taken as something that is a belief that many things will go or will not go. It is to be something that is a belief.

Miss Sherrod's research indicates that the number of women in this country will be in excess of the number of men. This will be employed twice as many as we have seen before.

I am wondering how to find the answer. This is not to be taken as something that is a belief that many things will go or will not go. It is to be something that is a belief.

G. Sherrod

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1}

she may not know when to look for the answer. This is not to be taken as something that is a belief that many things will go or will not go. It is to be something that is a belief.

Miss Sherrod's research indicates that the number of women in this country will be in excess of the number of men. This will be employed twice as many as we have seen before.

I am wondering how to find the answer. This is not to be taken as something that is a belief that many things will go or will not go. It is to be something that is a belief.

G. Sherrod

The Thoughts Of A Woman

NANNIE LILLY

I sit here and I think but I don't understand his character.

The rights and the ways of a man, I can see that some things he does are not the nature of his character.

I am aware that I am woman and he is man.

I understand that his life is somewhat different from mine.

I know that, as a woman, I am here to love and to cherish him.

He says his heart is mine, I know my heart is his.

But yet he betrays and I suffer,

then I wonder, what price Am I paying?

The price of his loving me or the price of me loving him?

Is it right that life is so sad without him and full of joy.

With him, but yet painful?

Why do I (woman) love him?

I want to love him, yet I'm afraid Of loving him; therefore I do not love him.

Why are his words so real, so true, so promising but yet so hard to believe?

Though I want to believe him yet I do not want to believe Him.

I love him because he is the part of me and part of my life.

He is the cause of some of my sorrows and he is my joy.

He is man and without him I am only part woman.

Even with faults he is ever so clean because his dirt is Vaguely seen.

His possession of kindness charm, and loving affections Causes my mind and my heart to be deceiving.

Therefore, I know of nothing but the clear, true and loving man.

I know of his faults, but I'm not perfect either.

So I give his faults not a thought, and cherish the sweet.

Kind and lovable man.
New Editor To Attend Workshop

Sponsored by U. Of Minn. and A.C.P.

William E. Goode, the newly selected editor of the REGISTER for 1966-67, will attend a college newspaper workshop sponsored by the University of Minnesota. The workshop will be held in Minneapolis during the summer months.

The workshop, which will be conducted by the University of Minnesota's Journalism and the Associated Collegiate Press staff, will run for two weeks, from June 14-28. It will be an intensive two-week session in which the editor will get a chance to study the files of All-American and first-class rated publications from colleges throughout the country. He will also have an opportunity to exchange ideas with college newspaper staffers from other parts of the country.

In addition to the workshop in the afternoon, there will be "elbow room" sessions in the mornings in photography, typography, and makeup which are open to the participants. Goode is a junior English major from Greensboro. He graduated from Dudley High School in 1963, and attended Manhasset State College in Minnesota and Tennessee.

Mr. Goode will be a sophomore in the College Press, being sponsored by S. J. Shaw, director of the Department of Journalism and the Associated Collegiate Press.

Organization News

Campus organizations have put final touches on their 1966-67 programs and have made plans for the upcoming school year.

ALPHA PHI ALPHI

The Alpha divided this school year into three divisions: the junior, the annual, and the White Star. This affair was one of the highlights of their program. The brothers of Beta Epsilon are members of the Sphinx Club. A monthly meeting was held for the formal presentation of their selections for the coming school year. She is Patricia Langer, president; Carla McLaughlin, secretary; and Doris Graham, treasurer.

The men are members of the Sphinx Club and are Bobbi Moore, William Strickland, Howard Wallace, George Doak, and Malt Johnson.

The women are members of the Sphinx Club and are Richard Webber, William Crawford, Stephanie Mcknight, Lila Lee, Marcia Roberts, Robert McNair, and Barbara Brown. These young men hope to receive their tuition aid for the remaining years during the fall.

The women of the Sphinx Club are Anita Patterson, Sphinx President; Carla McLaughlin, and Doris Johnson, attendants. Music was provided by Smoky and the Bluebirds.

Other items on their program for the year include monthly films on topics of importance to the college, a school dance every other week for the March of Dimes.

The editors will be Warren Campbell, president; Terrence Baker, vice-president; Harvey Corbett, recording secretary; Morris Davis, treasurer; and Harvey Haws, dean of probats.

The group includes from left to right: James Harrington, High Point, J.anya Taylor, and John T. Logue, New York City, public relations staff. They are both of Eastern Airlines.

Miss Sandra Morton, left, stewardess with Eastern Airlines, talks with A&T College students. Misses. Marj. D. Green and Brenda Moore, concerning careers as airline stewardess, during a visit to the campus this week.

At back are: J. G. Corbalis, Miami, Fl., director of stewardess recruitment and John T. Logue, New York City, public relations staff, both of Eastern Airlines.

ALPINE RECRUITERS

The Northern Peace Corps has announced the appointment of Miss Catherine A. Hinson as deputy director for the Peace Corps in the United States. She was formerly a research assistant at the University of Minnesota, where she conducted research on the effectiveness of the Peace Corps in Latin America.

She will be responsible for preparing and implementing the Peace Corps' policies and programs, and for providing technical assistance to the Peace Corps' field offices.

A native of North Carolina, Miss Hinson holds a B.A. degree in history from Eastern University and an M.A. degree in anthropology from the University of Texas. She has also done graduate work at the University of California, Berkeley.

Dr. Andrew Best Delivers Address

At Annual Fellowship Banquet

Dr. Andrew Best, M. D., from Greenville, was the guest speaker at the annual Fellowship Banquet and the Twenty-Year Service Awards ceremony of the Fellowship Council and the Twenty-Year Service Board of the University of Minnesota Alumni Board.

Dr. Best spoke on the subject, "The Brotherhood of Man." He took a very appropriate view of man in which he told and answered several questions: Who is my brother? What is my brother? What am I going to do to help my brother?

He concluded his speech by reminding everyone that there are still many and many valleys to be crossed and that we are going to have to do much better; we have to go with the existing man and try to see what he needs. He was uncertain, and we must be ready to face it.

The occasion was the presentation of the award of letters in several degrees. This awarded the fellowship Service Awards for four years of distinguished service in campus social science (Western Culture), which included offering college credits of 12 semester hours.

The enrollment is to be limited to 12 students in each of the ten complete high schools prior to the opening of the institute. Selections will be made on the basis of achievement, performance in high school and with reference to national origin. Students who are chosen for the program will be eligible for the school year.

Selections will be based upon applications, including transcripts of high school records and the score earned on the College Entrance Examination Board (SAT), revised prior to the deadline.

Inquiries or applications should be directed to S. J. Shaw, Director of Freshman Studies at A&T College.

A&I T College To Operate Institute

To For Superior Freshman Students

A summer Institute for High School Freshman Students in Western Culture and English is being sponsored by the University of Minnesota. The Institute will run for ten weeks during the summer of 1966.

The Institute, to be directed by S. J. Shaw, director of Freshman Studies, will be attended by high school students in Western Culture and English, and will provide an enriched, accelerated program of study for the student in an intellectual and cultural environment, which will include guidance and services to help in a smooth and comfortable transition from high school to college life. The Institute will provide an environment in small class group, with close personal attention, to allow the student to progress as his ability and interest indicate it.

Courses in English, mathematics, social science (Western Culture), and the honors program will be offered. The program will be offered through the University's School of Journalism and the Associated Collegiate Press.

A special feature of the program will be a research reporter in Photography Department. The research reporter will be responsible for helping students with their assignments, and will work closely with the students to help them develop their ideas.

Alumni Employed By Newsweek

Sends Day Visiting On Campus

By EULIA BATTLE

Catherine A. Hinson, who was hired by the college as a speech writer for the REGISTER in 1956, is being recommended for appointment to the position of managing editor of the college newspaper in the future. She is a member of the Alpha Mu chapter of Tau, the English honor society.

Miss Hinson was one of the students who participated in the Student National Press Association's "Newsweek's News" program. She was selected as a member of the program's editorial staff in 1961.

Miss Hinson has been in charge of the college newspaper since 1963, and has served as managing editor since 1965. She has been an active member of the Alpha Mu chapter of Tau, the English honor society, and has served as managing editor of the college newspaper since 1965.

In her work, she has met with President Harry S. Truman, President John F. Kennedy, and many other interesting and important people. Miss Hinson has been able to see enough to be on hand for the CSS coverage of the presidential elections, and her research paper is entitled "Chicago Lyric Opera" covering the ten years of presidential elections.

Although she has been offered a modeling job, she prefers to continue her job in journalism. She will be a research reporter in New York City for Newsweek for three years.

In her work, she has been a member of the Student National Press Association and the University of Minnesota Student Press Association. She has also been a member of the Alpha Mu chapter of Tau, the English honor society.

After she completes her three-year contract at Newsweek, she plans to return to A&T College and begin a new career in journalism.
And So Ends Another Year

By LEE A. HOUSE

All of the football games have been launched, struggled through, cheered at, and talked about. This of course includes that "bullshur" homecoming the Aggies, old and new, witnessed. These were the highlights of the fall season of the '64-'65 year. The "swans" of "overcrowding" freshmen, the "wise" sophomores, the "jolly" juniors, and the "wondering" seniors over-ran the campus in September. By storms, the "wild-eyed" freshmen played the traditional roles of "rats in a maze". No one had trouble identifying everything and everybody connected with the "old pro's", the sophomores, who were babbling over with sous. The "Brown Hall visitors" who just didn't look or act like soopers, strangely, were becoming intellectuals; they were tagged juniors. The "questionable graduates", known as seniors: "super", "junior", and "scared" were readily called seniors. With the coming and going of distinguished visitors, convocation, Thanksgiving, quarter exams, astonishing grades, an abundance of other notables characterized the Fall of '64 at the big "T".

Spangling the spicy winter months, the Aggies were early down to business; eager bearers, we were. The freshmen underwent a transformation from wild-eyed to starry-eyed. The seniors made over-vero as the juniors "intellectualized" while they "decided". The seniors grew more stable—graduated or at to graduate; that was the question. The "F's" were raised and looked upon. The honor roll was at an all-time high. The freshmen who had rationalized or "decided" to pursue a career, or to graduate or not to graduate; that was the question. The "F's" who were raised or carried or lost the majority on nearly every level; however, they served as stimuli for harder work not just stimuli for the past.

The most conducive period for "dropout" to "love-bird" to the making of "F's", "daydreams", and nearly any and everything but "hard-down study" is tagged to the spring quarter in Aggieland. Amazing enough, we studied diligently during the spring quarter. For hearty changes of pace, however, the Aggies flocked to or out on the "campus green", the canteen, to baseball games, the spring dance, picnics and cook-outs, and surprisingly enough, the library, classrooms, vespers, services, in other academic gatherings received quite a few student patrons.

The spring quarter convocation, the Honors Day Program, was possibly second only to the inauguration. The top scholars from each department and the institution at large were honored. The inauguration and all its compliments heralded a trail as the biggest event of the year. Dr. L. C. Dowdy, sixth President of A&T, having reigned for a year, was installed by student, faculty, alumni, and many others. Scholars from Yale University to Atlanta University were on hand to share in the history-making event. With the coming of the Marvellous Temptations, the return of the Aggie student teachers, and the student government elections, the whole campus began to lean toward that final day— that terminating day.

Whether you end the year on a note of gaiety or sadness, the end cometh. The choice is yours until the 28th day of May, 1965; and so ends another year.
The new editor goes the responsibility of continuing some started many years ago and which continues today. It is you, the staff, through whose efforts to in keeping the REGISTER will forever be. You, as a faculty and student, may express your views on controversial and current matters which affect it. Further more, it is carried on in relationship to the community, or as a member of the staff, you have the right to express your approval or disapproval. And you, as a member of the staff, will find your voice. The paper is for you— the old and the new. To enjoy your companion and make the best of your efforts is to help.