3-17-1967

The Register, 1967-03-17

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister

Recommended Citation
https://digital.library.ncat.edu/atregister/306

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Digital Collections at Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in NCAT Student Newspapers by an authorized administrator of Aggie Digital Collections and Scholarship. For more information, please contact iyanna@ncat.edu.
Yale Group Makes Singing Appearance Here

To Beautify A&T

because of the attitude it takes

Auditorium, Saturday, March 18,

will present a concert in Harrison class tradition one group stands out ification committee. Its duty is to at 5:00 P.M.

for the purpose of making Aggieimprove on the appearance of our land look more like a college cam­ campus. To accomplish this goal, members of this group, commandced by Cadet Capt. Thurman day morning by planting two trees hall. The ground breaking honor is given to Cad. Lt. Col. Henry Irwin chores.

Yale Group Makes Singing Appearance Here

THE DUKE’S MEN OF YALE

The Duke’s Men have had extreme pride in their success, and have coupled with a sincere concern for entertaining their audi­ cences and for communicating enthusiasm to their listeners.

Named after Basil “Duke” Henning, the master of Bayreuth, one of twelve residential colledges, the Duke’s Men have traveled widely, establishing a reputation all their own. Poised and polished, singing in shorts, suits, or white ties, they have impressed audiences everywhere with their lyric contents, spirited arrangements, and varied repertoire.

Unlike any other group, The Duke’s Men sing a wide spectrum of music which includes English madrigals, show tunes, harmonious songs, American and international folk ballads, and, of course, traditional Yale numbers. As would be expected, their great versatility enables them to perform for almost any type of occasion.

The pride which these juniors, sophomores, and freshmen take in the accuracy of their performance results in their rehearsing each day when at Yale, and gathering before school opens each fall for a week of concentrated practicing.

This pre-school “retreat” starts them on another year of hard work that really is pleasure a year which includes many on­ and off-campus performances during the fall, concerts of various ski resorts during the winter, and a capella tour which takes them to the island of Nassau in the Bahamas where they relax and sing in the warm, friendly atmosphere of spring vacation.

THE DUKE’S MEN OF YALE

March 20-22

Hodgins Hall Auditorium

Language Arts Week

Poetry, Jazz, Debates, Public

Speaking Contests

APRIL 24-29

Charter Day To Mark Diamond Anniversary

The Founders’ Day Celebration will be observed during the Diamond Anniversary on April 24-29.

Because the Agricultural and Technical College had no founders, the name of the annual celebration will be changed to the “Charter Day”.

The schedule of events for the Diamond Anniversary are varied.

Initiating the activities on the evening of April 24 will be the A&T Symphony Orchestra appearing in concert at 8:00 P.M. A dance recital follows on April 25. It will be presented by the stars of the

Dorsett and Dancers on Tuesday at 8:00 P.M. Then on Thursday will be a “Gipsy and Polka” presentation by the Music Department at 8:00 P.M.

On Friday night the Society of the Harrison Players on Thursday at 8:00 P.M. and on Saturday a famer Aggie. Miss Margaret Lynes, will appear in concert.

The culminating activities will be held on Saturday: Dr. Darwin

Rice will lecture on “Literature by Negroes” at 10:00 A.M.;

the awards luncheon will be presented at 1:00 P.M.; and the Gala

Banquet will take place at 6:00 P.M.

The theme of the Charter Day will be “The Intrait,” a psalm verse and catchword. It will be sung in its entire length by the A&T Glee society, and performances of the Duke’s Men will be dedicated to the memory of an Aggie.

The Gala Banquet is expected to be attended by all students, faculty and staff members of the college community.

March 19

Background Sheds Light

On Coming Performance

of Requiem and Cantatas

By WILLIE M. LEACH

This is a two-part article remarking the 136th anniversary of the founding of the “Faure Requiem” and “Gabriel’s” Requiem on Saturday, April 29.

The “Faure Requiem,” composed by Gabriel Faure, was first performed at the Church of the Gesu in Paris in 1888. Since then it has been in the repertory of many choral societies both in France and abroad. Significantly it is the key­note in Faure’s Requiem. In “Requiem,” Faure “deliberately omitted any attempt at dramatization, even in the Offertory section, concentrating rather on the creation of an atmosphere of serenity and spiritual contemplation. It is an affable, dis­sociated piece of music in the simplest musical terms — a fugato where religious musicality. This section begins with the Kyrie when translated means

“Have you made up your mind to run for an Office yet?”

Student Government Election Committee

CONTINUED ON PAGE 2
GUTS Need a Son

"Money is simply a highly efficient, measurable system to distribute whatever services we produce with our factories, our hands and our minds."

"Things would be different in our economy if people... were to think in terms of... appropriating so much of their goods and services to pay for that worthy project."

"CUTS LB Tutorial Services (GUTS) asks for your real economic wealth but for your time. Your services are needed in the various communities in the Greensboro area. When the slums and demonstrations were over, former Governor Terry Sanford challenged the students of North Carolina to channel their efforts and energies into more creative and constructive avenues. Seeking to meet this challenge, students united in their effort to help those who were less fortunate than themselves."

"CUTS LB is a Greensboro area service bureau involved in tutoring services, or at least representatives from the colleges. Presently, there are approximately 330 tutors trying to serve more than twice as many people."

"Each college student in the Greenboro area is called upon to be responsible human, to lend a helping hand to those in need, and to think in terms of... appropriating not so many dollars but your hands and..."

Breaking the Faith

By Ray English

"Cruelty! Cruelty! Cruelty!" These were the words that the mob was screaming. "Kill him who claims to be King of the Jews!!" (St. Luke 23:46) The Earth shook, mountains fell, seas swelled, fire and brimstone and lightening opened the graves. The shroud of Christ was removed. The body wracked with the guilt of past years couldn't find a person to tend to His wounds on this wretched body. This being who had healed scores of sick during the past years was stuck on the cross and driven spikes through His hands and feet, kicked and thrown dirt and rocks at Him. The mob was screaming. "Kill him who claims to be King of the Jews!!"

"But you don't help these young aspiring boys and girls to develop, then they will not have the wisdom, understanding and knowledge."

"The task is not so very difficult, and as a tutor and teacher, a companion and an aid, one is able to help mold and shape the welfare of others."

"Classes Resume March 28"
Nelson Johnson Heads Guts; A&T Contributes 40 Tutors

The choice beacons com- mits fell that it would get more support. These contributions fall into four categories. They are 1. Wills. 2. Flowers, and 4. Checks. A student and faculty member is asked to give a will, a plant, and support the Student Government in its effort to beautify A&T.

The committee had the pleasure of receiving as many shrubs and flowers as possible. After this goal has been attained, the name of the student or faculty member will be inscribed thereon will be placed in the Memorial Union Building. As the project progresses, a report will be given to the Student Government. Please keep this in mind. Everyone will have the privilege of having his name engraved on the tree or around his flower garden. This plan has been approved by the committee.

Background

Lord Jesus Christ to deliver the same without delay and to purify us from all the unholy palm of hell and from the deep well of the pit of the unhappy and dirty. In the holy standard bearer. Michael, in the church of the holy light. In Latin the words are "Quaeritis pacem, mihi accipite eam," which means "Seek peace, take it from me." May light eternal shine upon them, O Lord."

"Luxaeterna luceat lis Domine," translating to "May light eternal of God, who takest away the sins of God, the first line of the Agnus Dei, the Lord is asked to let the pains of hell and from the deep souls of all the departed from the grave enter. For Communion, the first line is "Domine Jesus Christe, Rex gentium", "One of the most profitable ses- sions for the student delegates was the session involving the "Improvement of Dramatic and Speech Arts."

Soprano-Alto, Tenor Chorale, Chor- us, and bass voices.

"W" because you want it. The famous silent "W": the silent "W"—many you don't pronounce it, but you want it. The famous silent "W": sportswear that looks wright. It is a permanent press finish. It is a permanent press finish. It is a permanent press finish.
Rams Capture Regional Title Over Akron U.

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Powered by a 49-point performance by the fantastic Earl Monroe, Winston-Salem won the NCAA Collegiate Division Mid-East Regional Tournament Saturday night defeating Akron 88-80. The Winston-Salem Rams will head for the NCAA finals at Evansville, Ind., next weekend. They prevented Akron from making its fourth consecutive trip to the finals.

Winston-Salem's lead last week won the CIAA Championship.

The Rams also ended Akron's home winning streak which had extended to 52 games before Saturday.

Despite the loss, Akron's win-loss record to its credit.

A&T student, has been selected as a guide at Expo-67, Canadian World's Fair.

What you do on April 11, 12, may affect the rest of your life!

That's when the IBM interviewer will be on campus. When he'd like to talk with you—whatever your area of study, whatever your plans after graduation.

You'll find job opportunities at IBM in six major areas: Computer Applications, Programming, Finance and Administration, Research and Development, Manufacturing and Marketing.

Some of these areas may not mean much to you—now. But just let the IBM interviewer explain a few of them. One may be just the career you're looking for. It could be the start of something big—your future with IBM.

Whatever your immediate commitments, whatever your area of study, sign up for your on-campus interview with IBM, now.