ACTIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

NEW FARMERS OF AMERICA

A. and T. College, Greensboro, N. C.
January 1 and 2, 1960

Friday evening, January 1, 1960, 7:30 P. M.

Board members serving as an Advisory Committee to the North Carolina Association, New Farmers of America, met and took the following actions:

1. The proposed 1960 NFA Convention program as planned by the State Officers and Executive Secretary, was reviewed and approved.
2. Applicants recommended for the Honorary Modern Farmer Degree were discussed and approved.
3. The Executive Secretary's Financial Report and the Auditor's Report were reviewed, discussed and received.
4. It was strongly recommended that all local advisors give continued attention and promotion to the NFA Degree-Advancement, FFA Foundation Awards, and Public Relations activities, with special emphasis during NFA Week.

Saturday morning, January 2, 1960, 8:30 A. M.

The NFA Board of Trustees meeting in its regular annual session, took action as follows:

- I.
 1. Received the annual report of the Executive Secretary, New Farmers of America, on the affairs of the NFA Camp for the year 1959.
 2. A review and analysis of the 1959 Auditor's Report was made.
 3. The 1960 NFA Camp Budget was reviewed, adjusted and approved.
- II. The following recommendations were approved:
 1. That all Chapters have good attendance at the NFA Camp during the 1960 camping season.
 2. That the camping fee be $10.00 per camper for the season.
 3. That the camping deposit will be $2.00 per person, refundable by sending an official notice to the Greensboro office two days before the scheduled camping date.
 4. That if a teacher has a party of eleven persons (boys and/or girls) attending the Camp, one of the persons may camp free of charge.
 5. Any Chapter or group taking girls to Camp, must have a woman Chaperon.
