Stadium Pledges Are Mounting

By Daryl E. Smith

The conversations circulating around campus about the proposed athletic stadium have many people wondering about what is really going on.

Cal Irvin, athletic director, released a statement concerning the facts about the projected building of the stadium.

Irvin said, "The stadium drive is progressing very satisfactory and according to plans. The original idea was to solicit a prime list of potential givers, including alumni, students, boosters, boosterettes and friends who we felt would be highly motivated to offer their support."

He continued, "We were very successful in realizing a combination of pledges and monies totaling about $50,000 even before the official campaign was under way. The recent Al Attles banquet was used to officially launch the campaign for the stadium."

Irvin said, "Immediate future plans call for the appointment of a Blue Ribbon Stadium Committee composed of alumni, faculty, students, and citizens to spearhead an all-out fund raising effort among individuals, corporations, foundations, churches civic groups and club organizations."

Dr. Lewis C. Dowdy, chancellor, has indicated that, in the very near future, he will appoint a full-time director to manage the stadium effort.

He continued, "The idea now is to seek the 1.2 million needed for the first phase of the stadium complex by the end of January 1, 1976. If this goal is accomplished, it is hoped that construction on the proposed facility could begin by late 1976."

"The stadium complex as proposed will contain 20,000 seats for fans, a press box, concession stands, equipment and dressing rooms, and rest rooms, and a club room for special supporters."

"The complex will ultimately include full lighting, artificial turf and an all-weather track."

Irvin said, "The original plan was to seek at least $500,000 from individuals and group donors with the remainder from stadium bonds. Many of the initial donors have paid or pledged $500,000 or more, which will entitle them to a life time seat in the stadium and other special benefits such as (See Irvin, Page 2)

A&T Will Make Changes For Future Expansion

By Nepolia M. Smith

Several new improvements and changes are in the making for A&T. Even now some of the changes are in progress.

Upon talking to Gerard Gray, physical plant director, these changes were made known.

Starting in November, Murphy Hall is going to be renovated for the use of Vice-Chancellor for Student Affairs Activities. The House Management House will be renovated and the new tennis courts will be completed.

In December of this year construction of an Environmental Studies Research Field Laboratory on A&T's Farm is scheduled to begin.

In February of 1976, work will begin on a new Mathematics, Physical Science and Physics building, which will be located adjacent to the Student Union.

To aid the History, Political Science, Sociology, Social Service and Psychology departments a Social Service Building will be built. The construction on the building starts in April of 1976. Also the Central Heating Plant is going to be improved upon in November of 1976, Gray stated.

In addition to construction and renovation of buildings, other future improvements are planned, Gray said. More walks, landscaping, lighting and driveways will be provided. Also a new campus entrance from the new Market Street is in the planning stage.

Gray commented that these were some of the improvements planned for A&T but that other changes lie in store. The improvements mentioned will not be finished this school year.

Co-ed Visitation

Marshall Releases New Policy

By Benjamin T. Forbes

A revised version of the policies, procedures and guidelines regarding coed visitation was issued Wednesday by Dr. Jesse Marshall, vice-chancellor for student affairs.

In a letter addressed to Col. William Goode, dean of student management, and Mrs. Lucille Piggott, dean of students for organizations and development, Marshall stated, "Since the recommendation made by the University Council sought only to modify guidelines in order to permit universal application of the visitation policy to all students enrolled, I am requesting you to instruct all members of your residence hall staffs that effective Thursday, October 9, all hall residents may participate in coed visitation."

There are three procedures and guidelines for implementation of the new policy.

The first of the guidelines states, "The residents of each residence hall will vote, at the beginning of each summer session, on whether to participate in coed visitation for the academic year or summer session respectively. Voting shall be by secret ballot and shall be supervised by the hall director."

The second guideline states that "If coed visitation is not approved by two-thirds of the residents of a residence hall, the same shall be publicized by various communicative media."

Thirdly, "Coed Visitation may be reconsidered by a participating hall at a meeting of the residents of the hall if a petition is signed by one-tenth of said residents. Participation may then be changed by a two-thirds vote provided that a majority of the members of the hall are present and voting at the meeting."

The revised policy also states that coed visitation shall be operated on an honor basis in each residence hall that participates. Times for coed visitation are as follows: Thursday 6:00p.m.-11p.m., Friday 6:00p.m. midnight, Saturday 3:00p.m. midnight, and Sunday 3:00p.m.-11p.m.

Exceptions by the residence hall supervisor may be made concerning the number of guests a person may have, but each person is limited to two guests under the regular circumstances.

Study lounges are to be installed in each residence hall if at all feasible.

The policy also states that a standing committee will be established for the purpose of adjusting procedures and guidelines as the need arises.

A card system will be set for signing in guests and signing out guests. Guests must show some type of identification. The information on the cards should contain the name of the guest, name of the host, and room being visited. These cards must be destroyed within a reasonable time after the guest has departed.

Lights in the rooms must be kept on at all times, doors are to

Forty-Eight Of A&T's Students Are Selected Into Who's Who

A total of 48 A&T students was selected into Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities for 1975.

Students selected to Who's Who were chosen because of their academic standings, leadership ability, and community service. This year, A&T surpassed its quota of 46 candidates by two additional nominees.

Students Favor Zodiac Specials

By Zavery McDougald

A new and well-accepted idea has been implemented in the Food Service Department this year. This idea of Zodiac Special, was formulated by Lawrence Munson, director of Food Services

Student opinion concerning the Zodiac Special varies. Clifton Craig, a junior communications major from Chapel Hill, asserted, "It gives someone a good feeling to know that the university cares enough to set aside a special day for them." Clifton is a Taurus.

James Davis, a Libra and freshman business administration major from Rocky Mount, explained "It is a nice way to let the people born under the same sign get to know one another.

Anthony Motley, a Pisces, and a junior psychology major from Jackson, commented, "It is a very interesting change which gives the students something to look forward to, and it also exemplifies unity."

Seretha McNeill, a Cancer and senior early childhood major, from Fayetteville, commented, "It's a good addition, that should have been done earlier."

Troyetta Russell, a Capricorn and junior psychology major from Elizabethtown, asserted, "The idea of Zodiac specials in the cafeteria is great. I hope the students will take advantage of this offer." The next Zodiac Special will be held on October 30, for all Libras. So, all you well-balanced people come out and participate.

Alphas Participate In Drive

If you attended the A&T and J.C. Smith football game last week, as all Aggies certainly did, you were probably approached one or more times by several young men dressed in black and gold. They may have seemed to be begging for money.

These men of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity were collecting the money for the Greensboro Heart Association. One of the mottos of the Fraternity "service to all mankind," spurred the efforts of the brothers of Alpha.

The project chairman, Leroy Hartsfield, announced, "With the total cooperation of my brothers, we were able to present a check for $101 to the Greensboro Heart Association."

George Cobb, the chapter president, commented, "The project exemplified our goals of working for and with the campus and community."

Beta Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha thanks all who contributed to the worthy cause.

A&T Graduate To Perform Here

A concert by Greensboro's own Margaret Tynes, soprano with the Metropolitan Opera, will highlight the 1975-76 Lyceum and Art Series at A&T.

Miss Tynes, an A&T graduate, will climax the series with an appearance next March 1 at 8 p.m. in the Richard B. Harrison Auditorium.

The initial performance in the series will be readings by dramatic monologist, Robert Earl Jones on Monday at 8 p.m.

The series will also include a concert by Jessy Dixon and the Dixon Singers on November 10 and a concert by the internationally known Rod Rodgers Dance Company on March 22-27.

The art exhibits will include the North Carolina Art Society Annual Traveling Exhibit, November 16-December 16; Ben Shann's Afro-American Experience, January 12-31; the Amistad 11 and Chuck Davis Dance Company, February 5-March 7; and the John Biggers Exhibit, March 15-April 16.

Although born in Virginia, Miss Tynes moved to Greensboro when her father accepted the pastorate of the Providence Baptist Church. After finishing A&T, she received a master's degree from Columbia University and studied at the Juilliard School.

Miss Tynes has concertized throughout the United States and she has sung under the batons of the world's foremost conductors.

She currently makes her home in Milan, Italy, with her Czech-born husband, Hans von Klier.

Jones is the father of the notes Black actor, James Earl Jones. The elder Jones was contemporary and personal friend of the late Langston Hughes. His readings and poetry will be entitled "The Black Man's Journey to Freedom."

Jessy Dixon has been called one of the most imaginative young musicians in the field of gospel music. A noted singer, arranger and pianist and organist, Dixon formerly was accompanist for the late Mahalia Jackson and jazz singer Marion Williams.

He recently received a Grammy nomination for his song, "Hellow Sunshine," and he was named "Gospel Artist of the Year" at Madison Square Garden.

The Rod Rodgers dance troupe features abstract styles, dance drama, jazz and modern works done to the music of popular arts artists.

In addition to directing his own company, Rodgers has directed the "Black Cowboys," and choreographed several productions for national television. He is also widely known as a master teacher and lecturer.

Lightner Defeated In Primary

RALEIGH, N.C. AP—Clarence Lightner, elected Raleigh's first Black mayor two years ago, was defeated earlier this week in a bid for reelection.

Lightner trailed with 5,644 votes as former legislator Jyles Coggins led the three-man field with 10,201 votes and Councilman Oliver Williams came in second with 7,524 votes. Williams and Coggins will vie in the city's Nov. 4 general election.

Raleigh council elections are nonpartisan.

Lightner had no immediate comment on his loss. He was the first Black mayor of a major predominantly white Southern city. His chances were dimmed after three members of his family ran into legal problems during the past year. Last week his daughter, Debra, was charged with fraudulent use of a credit card, a misdemeanor.

During the summer, his son, Lawrence, was sentenced to 20 days in jail for contempt of court on a charge that he had made an obscene gesture at a judge. The young Lightner was in court to answer a charge by his wife that he had struck her, though that charge was later dropped.

In January, Lightner's wife, Marguerite, was accused of conspiring to receive and dispose of stolen goods. Mrs. Lightner was acquitted after an eight-day trial.

Campus Haps

The History Club, in conjunction with the History Department, is sponsoring a bus trip to South Carolina. The bus will depart at 1:00 a.m. on November 8 and return on November 9. Some of the points of interest will be Boone's Plantation, Old Charleston, and Oyo Tunji. There are only 30 available spaces. Persons interested in going should pay their fees in Room 318 Hodgin Hall. The cost will be $15.00 per person.

Students are reminded that the Aggie Booster Club is sponsoring a bus trip to Baltimore on Nov. 1. Cost of the trip, including transportation, room, ticket to the A&T versus Morgan game and a ticket to the Colts versus Cleveland pro game on Sunday will be $46.00 per person. The money must be paid to Richard Moore, Room 203 Dudley Building by October 18.

Students desiring only the transportation, may pay $19.00

Reverend Sampson Buie, pastor of Roberts Chapel Baptist Church in Goldston, will be the guest speaker on Sunday, October 12, at 11:00 a.m. in Harrison Auditorium. Rev. Buie is also a Community Relations Specialist at A&T.

United Negro College Bike-A-Thon: Ride in the UNCF Bike-A-Thon at $0.50, $0.75 or $1.00 per mile on the 6.1 mile course. Starting time is 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., Sat., Oct. 11, 1975, from Merrick Hall parking lot. Contact any member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity to participate.

An Aggie Homecoming Pleases Everyone

As all of us should know by now, Monday will be the beginning of a week of homecoming festivities for the Aggies. The week will include such a variety of activities that everyone should become involved in some aspect of the celebration. There will be activities for Aggies of all ages.

One can rest assured that there will be more than enough "styling, profiling, moving, and grooving" during the week. But, homecoming wouldn't be quite the same without this element.

However, the thing that makes an Aggie Homecoming so appealing to everyone is the spirit we put into it. Everyone seems to be psyching himself up for the week-long celebration. Even the football players gain an extra incentive to win the homecoming games.

Exactly what is it that instills this mysterious spirit within us? Maybe it is the combination of all the events (reunions, social events, religious ceremonies, and the football game). All these things help make us remember how proud we are to be Aggies.

Homecoming is always an enjoyable and extraordinary event that everyone associated with the Aggie family (members and non-members) looks forward to.

Let There Be Education For All

By Daryl E. Smith

The elimination of racial duality in the educational system in North Carolina is the major problem Black students face today. The present system of educating leaders for this society has always been lopsided and in favor of the predominantly white institutions.

The growth potential for influencing racial changes has been set back another 10 years by the unwillingness of this state and the federal authorities to proceed with dismantling the dual educational system.

The burden of eradicating this duality should not be on the victims, but on the very people who engineered this system from the beginning.

Black institutions of education have suffered from lack of sufficient capital, quality programs which would attract all people and the development of library holdings for the students to enhance their minds.

Education should be for all people and not just for selected individuals.

City Council - Speak Up

By Benjamin T. Forbes

It seems that the only time the A&T family hears anything from the city council is during elections. Many of the candidates who solicit votes from students and faculty never come on campus. They (candidates) just send someone to the campus to litter it with their "vote for me" signs and campaign brochures.

We here at A&T don't need to be bothered with such candidates. If we can't receive their support when we so desperately need it, then we shouldn't bend over backwards to give our support to them. Not once has this reporter heard the members of the city council of Greensboro speak in favor of A&T in its struggle to obtain the much-publicized school of veterinary medicine. The lack of support from the city council has led me to believe that smiling faces don't always speak the truth.

Although some to many of campaign signs are only on campus for only one day, one day is too long considering that the council probably wouldn't support A&T for that short period of time.

If A&T plays a major roll in Greensboro's economy, which it does, then the city council should be going out of their way to aid us in any type of improvements we attempt.

The city council may have supported the Aggies when A&T's basketball team won the MEAC Championship by honoring them earlier this year, but we need their support in other matters as well.

Maybe someday the time will arrive when the city council will strongly speak up in support of A&T. However, that day may be a long way off.

Harrison Players Will Do 'Porgy'

Before the Richard B. Harrison Players at A&T decided to stage the drama, "Porgy," for their first production of the year, they relied heavily on some research undertaken by the university's speech department last year.

Miss Bernadette Anderson and several of her students spent several days in and around Charleston, S. C., researching the old gullah language spoken by Blacks there.

"This kind of information has been very valuable to us in preparing for 'Porgy,'" said Dr. John Kilimanjaro, who will direct the play.

The play will open a four-night stand in the Paul Robeson Little Theatre beginning on October 14.

"We have had a lot of fun getting this play together," said Kilimanjaro, "and we are certain that it will be a first class theatrefare."

Like Kilimanjaro, the student actors are also excited about the forthcoming play. "It's definitely going to be different," said Baxter Griffin, a freshman speech and theatre major from Winston-Salem. "It has elements of humor and seriousness."

Although he had no significant experience as an actor in high school, Griffin has adjusted well to acting, according to Kilimanjaro.

Another newcomer who will appear in the play will be Sandra Jones of Winterville. Her background in high school was in modern dancing, but she said she chose theatre as a major at A&T "because I have always wanted to try my hand at acting."

"This will definitely be a show persons can relate to," said Sandra. "It really shows you the inner feeling of Blacks."

The lead role of Porgy will be played by veteran actor Avery Verdell, while the role of Bess will be played by Mary Logan. Reservations for the play may be secured by calling the box office at 379-7852.

U.S. Navy Port Authority Band Will Preform In Auditorium

The U.S. Navy Port Authority Rock Band will perform on tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Harrison Auditorium.

Homecoming Item Has Errors Concerning Shows

Editor of The Register:

In the October 3 edition of The A&T Register several errors were noted in the article entitled "Homecoming Will Be Exciting." First of all, there will be three video tapes which are "Jimi Hendrix Plays Berkley," "Brand X," and "Sing Sing Thanksgiving". The Homecoming Show for Saturday night will include Donald Byrd, the Magnificants, and the Majors. There will also be a movie on Friday, October 17, at 9:00 p.m. entitled "Texas Chainsaw Massacre". All of the above events are sponsored by the Student Union Advisory Board.

Roosevelt O'Neal

The Port Authority Band, with chief musician Jim Allen as band leader, is touring the nation to celebrate the Navy's Bicentennial to highlight the Navy's 200th Birthday. One year prior to the birth of the United States, the Continental Navy was established in 1775.

The members composing the group were chosen to "be someone special" in today's Navy. The members are all active duty sailors who have received training at the Navy's School of Music at Norfolk, Virginia.

Port Authority Band, which plays at most colleges and high schools, was formed in 1970, is based in Washington, D.C. The band is said to specialize in soul and rock music.

Band members besides Allen include, Don Letbetter, Trumpet-assistant leader; Rose Lewis, vocalist; Michael Beegle, tenor saxophone; David Caradine, drummer; Norman Clark, guitarist; Scoobie Reddick, electric bass; Gary Welsch, trombone; Lennie Liberman, conga drum.

Out Of The Mouths Of Black Folk

Henry Highland Garnet (1815-1882)

Although Henry Highland Garnet was born a slave in Maryland, he became a successful minister, teacher, editor, and missionary, as well as an eloquent speaker. The statement below, excerpted from his speech, "An Address to the Slaves of the United States of America", was delivered at a National Negro convention in Buffalo, and it is indicative of the militant attitude which was characteristic of Garnet.

"Brethren, arise, arise! Strike for your lives and liberties. Now is the day and the hour. Let every slave throughout the land do this, and the days of slavery are numbered. You cannot be more oppressed than you have been—You cannot suffer greater cruelties than you have already. Rather die freemen than live to be slaves. Remember that you are four millions!"

The fever that won't break: THE RISING COST OF A MEDICAL EDUCATION.

Like most things, the cost of attending medical school has risen sharply over the last decade. To many medical students that cost represents a heavy burden, a financial problem that can affect your concentration.

It needn't be that way. The Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program was originated to free you from those worries. Men and women who qualify will have the costs of their medical education covered, and will also receive a substantial monthly allowance.

The program offers more than tuition and salary; it offers you the opportunity to begin your practice under very favorable conditions. As a health care officer in the military branch of your choice, you'll find yourself with responsibilities fully in keeping with your training, and with the time and opportunity to observe a full spectrum of medical specialties.

When you decide on the specialty you wish to pursue, you may find yourself taking those graduate medical studies at one of our many large and modern medical centers. If so, you can count on that training being second to none. Both the clinical and research work being done in them have made Army, Navy and Air Force hospitals a major new national medical resource.

It's a long road, but the first step is simple. Just send in the coupon. The details we send you may make the whole way a little smoother.

Donated TV Equipment Still Remains Unusable

By Daryl E. Smith

"WFMY-TV donated over a quarter of a million dollars worth of TV equipment but it can't be used by the students because we can't get the parts and supportive equipment that go along with it."

This statement was made by Anthony Welborne, media technician in the television studio.

Asked why the donated equipment has not been fixed, Welborne said, "Dr. Ellis will only approve a purchase order for the minimum amount for pa, but not for emergency supplies used to back up the present system."

Asked what benefits would be provided for students if the donated cameras were fixed, Welborne said, "The cameras are the same type that commercial studios utilize and students could be trained on them here in our own facilities."

"It would be another educational tool for the students."

Checking further this reporter asked Dr. Willie T. Ellis, asst. vice chancellor of academic affairs and director of the AIDP Program if he had any knowledge of the donated equipment, Ellis said, "No comment".

Homecomings Improve Annually

By Deborah Daniels

Homecoming is one of the main events students anticipate for various reasons of their own. Nevertheless, one can agree that a diversity of activities occur to keep energetic students occupied and entertained throughout the celebration.

Many fantastic and outstanding attractions in the history of A&T have been imprinted in the minds of witnesses of them. Since the theme is "A Blast from the Past", it seems appropriate to blast your mind with golden memories of the past during homecoming.

If you were here in 1973 you would have witnessed, during homecoming halftime, that the drum majors did not march on the field as they normally did.

On the contrary, they flew on the field-in a helicopter.

In the 1974 homecoming during halftime, the band had a treat in store: an Aggie Bulldog performed on the field. Naturally it was a man in a dog's outfit.

"Homecomings are better every year," Dr. Waverlyn Rice thinks. He says that in the past years, homecoming didn't have themes as they do now. Also he thinks the floats are better because they are made commercially instead of by students as they were in previous years.

"Styles are open now," a former Miss A&T, Dr. Pearl Bradley of the Speech Department commented. "Homecoming has a set pattern and it hasn't varied much. But I can remember the times when there were fireworks. But I enjoyed the reunions and games."

Miss Jean Bright of the English

Department reminisce about an incident during an A&T Homecoming in which she and other members of the Fort. Nightly Club participated. They had made a float with Anthony and Cleopatra statues on it. As it was being pulled in during halftime, they had noticed, too late, that tools, such as hammers and saws, were left at the feet of Cleopatra.

Pamela Elaine Carlson Will Present Recital

Pamela Elaine Carlson, a flutist in the A&T State University Symphony Band, will present her senior recital Sunday, Oct. 12, at 3p.m. in the Richard B. Harrison Auditorium.

Pamela is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F.

Carlson, Jr. She is also a majorette in the marching band, special service chairman, of the Band Council, and secretary-treasurer of the MENC (Music Educators National Conference).

Alpha Kappa Alpha Will Sponsor Heart Fund Drive

By Gwendolyn Davis

The Alpha Phi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. will distribute brochures and collect charity funds for the Heart Fund on Saturday, Oct. 11 from 10a.m. to 1p.m.

The AKA women will be located at the K-Mart Department store on Randleman Road.

We encourage you, as concerned citizens to contribute to the Heart Fund Association.

SPORTS NOTEBOOK

By Craig Turner

A&T is only one week away from its homecoming and the midway point on the football schedule.

The Aggies played according to form and dispatched Johnson C. Smith last Saturday without a great deal of difficulty. George Ragsdale went a part of the way in establishing himself as the MEAC's top running back.

The 6-0, 185 pound Baltimore, Md., native rushed for 126 yards on 22 carries and two touchdowns. He was the most damaging weapon A&T could come up with against Smith.

Even a more promising sign was evident in A&T's offensive line. Up until last week the veer offense had totally failed.

With some permanent changes in personnel, and the birth of the Power I attack, the offensive front has gained some necessary timing and strength.

Whether the 21 points was a TRUE indication of what Aggie fans can expect or not is still up in the air but it was indeed a welcome change from the previous 7-0 defeats.

Tailback George Ragsdale was named the "MEAC Offensive Player of the Week" as he accounted for 126 yards rushing and two touchdowns in A&T's 21-0 win over Smith.

Just a week ago, splitend Dexter Feaster gained a similar honor from the conference's sports information directors.

South Carolina came the closest an MEAC club has come in upsetting the Mississippi team 7-7 in Lorman, Miss.

North Carolina Central was rated a solid favorite over a rebuilding Morgan State unit. But the Eagles found themselves trailing late into the fourth quarter to the young Bears 20-7.

Only a late rally saved Coach Willie Smith's club from its second defeat in Durham as his befuddled "Birds" salvaged a 20-20 tie.

Howard defeated Florida A&M in Philadelphia, Pa. but the Bison suffered through another one of its lackluster performances. The 6-0 victory left a lot to be desired about the Bison.

Also in MEAC action, Delaware State has either improved immensely or Maryland-Eastern Shore is hopeless. At any rate Delaware romped 44-0.

Norfolk State is unbeaten and untied this season going into the Saturday contest with A&T. It faced the same situation a year ago against a weakened Aggie squad and lost.

That game was in Greensboro and A&T must go to Norfolk. But that really isn't important in this game. So, this is word from our staff writers for this week.

A&T Will Clash With Norfolk

By Craig Turner

A&T will face the defending C.I.A.A. (Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association) champions when they travel to Norfolk, Va., Saturday.

The Norfolk State Spartans are one of the few remaining undefeated Black colleges left and are rated fifth in the Mutual Black Network poll.

The offense has been literally unstoppable, mostly because of quarterback Steve Graeff (6-3, 185). The junior passed for over 1,000 yards last year and is the CIAA's offensive leader in total yardage.

The running backs will be small but extremely quick. Ken Moody (5-8, 160) will get the call at tailback as Collin Arrington will be his running mate.

The offensive line lacks size but is lean enough to grab tough inside yardage. Mike Macklin (6-2, 22) is tops.

Defense is a sore spot for Coach Dick Price this year. Steady improvement has been transpiring over the last two games.

The stars of the unit are tackles Steve Minor (6-5, 230) and Roger Nance (6-3, 250). The linebackers are hurting but the secondary can regroup behind Tommy McLendon (6-1, 180).

Game time is set for 1:30 p.m. at Foreman Field, Norfolk, Va. Saturday afternoon.

Howard Players Receive Player-Of-Week Honor

DURHAM, N.C. AP-Howard linebacker Tyrone Sambro and cornerback Leonard Duncan of South Carolina State were named defensive players of the week in the Midwestern Athletic Conference.

Named offensive players of the week in MEAC were split end John Chisholm of Delaware and running back George Ragsdale of North Carolina A&T.

Sambro was credited with 10 unassisted tackles and six assists including three in the Florida A&M backfield to stop drives inside the Howard 25 Saturday.

He also recovered a fumble in Howard's 6-0 victory.

Duncan was credited with six solo tackles and two assists as S.C. State played Alcorn to a 7-7 tie Saturday. Duncan also made a key 13 yard punt return and ran a kickoff back 24 yards.

Chisholm was selected because he caught three passes for 56 yards including four touchdowns in Delaware's 44-0 defeat of Maryland Eastern Shore.

Ragsdale carried the ball for 126 yards in 22 attempts and scored two touchdowns as A&T rolled over Johnson C. Smith 21-0.

Webster Denies Health Reports

BALTIMORE AP-Rookie center Marvin Webster of the Denver Nuggets has denied reports that he'll be sidelined for the rest of the American Basketball Association season with a liver ailment and says more tests will soon be taken to determine the exact extent of his physical problems.

"I don't know exactly what is wrong. But I feel weak and I'm overweight," the 7-footer, nick-named the "Human Eraser" for the shot-blocking ability he displayed at Morgan State, said in an interview published in Baltimore Sun.

Further tests on his condition will be taken "within a week," Webster added.

Webster, who signed an estimated $1.4 million contract with the American Basketball Association team last spring, was released from a Denver hospital Saturday after six days of preliminary tests.

Since his release, reports have circulated about Webster's condition, climaxing Monday with a story from Asheville, that quoted Nuggets' Coach Larry Brown as saying: "I'm not expecting Marvin back. He may never play again."

Both the Nuggets and the player's mother, Mrs. Edward Webster, were upset by the report.

"There is nothing to the story," a Denver spokesman told the Sun. "An official report on Marvin's condition has not been released yet."

Mrs. Webster said from her home here that the Denver doctor "assured me that the problem was not connected with Marvin's liver...The doctor said that Marvin could play as long as he kept on taking his pills. The doctor believes the problem might be caused by a reaction to the medicine Marvin took for his hepatitis last year."

Freshman Runningback Proves His Capabilities

By Nicie Cannon

Last Saturday night in Memorial Stadium, Aggie fans had the chance to see A&T's offense do what an offense is supposed to do—score points; and six of those points were scored by a freshman standout, Calvin Hawkins.

The Greenville native comes from an athletic-prone family and he is presently trying to live up to the reputation that he has presently at D. H. Conley High School. The versatile athlete lettered in basketball, football and track as well as being an all-conference selection during his senior year.

Now, Hawkins is proving his capabilities on the Aggie squad and "trying to make some type of contribution to the team's success." However, the business administration major did not set any personal goals of great achievements for himself. He says that he only plans to do his part in helping the Aggies have a winning season.

When asked his opinions on the football team, Hawkins stated, "I think we have a pretty good football team. At the beginning of the season, the defense was ahead of the offense, but the offense is catching up. Since the offense is catching, the rest of the season should be successful even though we'll be playing some tough teams the latter part of the season."

Hawkins plans to be a big part of the team's success as he has earned himself a starting position against Norfolk State on Saturday. One attribute of the potentially outstanding runningback is that he doesn't consider pressure to be an obstacle in living up to his potential noting that pressure wasn't a restricting factor in rushing for his first collegiate touchdown. "I didn't feel any pressure. I was pretty relaxed since we had a 14-0 lead. I felt I had to go in and do the best I could."

SEEK, FIND and Destroy seems to be the motto of the Aggie defense. Norfolk State look out!!

"Skill. Determination. Self-confidence. That's what it takes to wear these wings."

Navy Wings of Gold. They mean a lot to Lieutenant John Burton, from DeKalb, Mississippi. And they say a lot about him, too. Skill. Determination. Self-confidence.

After finishing college, John entered the Navy's Aviation Officer Candidate School. He worked hard, and it paid off. Now, he's a helicopter pilot facing new and different challenges every day. But, more important, John had what it takes to earn his wings and fly Navy.

If you're a college senior or graduate, the Navy offers you a program that can start you on your way to an exciting career in the field of aviation. It's called Operation Challenge. It all begins in Pensacola, Florida with the basics: the theory of flight, principles of navigation and Navy customs. From there, you'll be trained to pilot jets, multi-engined aircraft, or helicopters. You'll learn formation flying... take cross country hops...and fly at night and by instruments. The ultimate test is landing on an aircraft carrier. That means a short runway—and one that's moving. Sure it's tough, but we teach you to handle it.

There's more, too. After graduation, you'll work with a great team of professionals. Plus have a chance to travel...see the world...and have some fun.
