GREETINGS:

I am happy to extend greetings to the Vocational Agriculture Teachers as you convene on our campus. We are highly honored to have you come to our campus always, but especially so at this time because, as you know, The Agricultural and Technical College is cooperating with the other 69 Land-Grant Colleges and Universities in celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the Morrill Act. This Act provided funds for the establishment of this and other Land-Grant Colleges. We believe that this Act provided the greatest opportunity in making higher education possible for so many citizens in this great country. Many of these institutions have assisted in producing fine leaders such as you, many of whom got their start here.

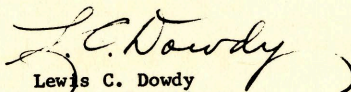

We are grateful to each of you for your excellent cooperation in making the Citizens Seminars throughout the State a success. You freely accepted the responsibility of helping us carry to the people of the State the purpose, program, services and needs of our College, so that they may receive first-hand information on the great contributions the Land-Grant movement has made to the people of North Carolina and our nation.

I commend you for the fine work you are doing. There are many challenges with which we are faced, and it is my hope that you will continue the good work you have begun. I suggest that you take full advantage of the information and experiences you receive in this conference, so that you may extend your contributions through teaching and service into incalculable proportions.

We welcome you to our campus and hope that your stay with us will be fruitful. You may be assured that the faculty and administration will continue to exert every possible effort to assist you in your program.

Best wishes for a successful and challenging meeting.

Sincerely yours,

Lewis C. Dowdy
Acting President
